Ranieri Matias´ Words

Trade of faith expands.

Planet Earth became a large battlefield.

Waves of hate, corruption and selfishness spread throughout the Planet and who didn´t build inner solid fortress of faith and trust according with Father's designs fell under suffocating load involving the whole Orbe.

Throughout the Planet Earth, explode bloody battles among brothers.

Trade of faith expands while people don´t conceive superior force upholding the planetary life.

Corruption is valued and Life vulgarized.

All you fall under final examination.

Since two thousands years ago, the lessons sound in your ears and you let the opportunities slip.

Only "eyes of seeing and ears of hearing" keep the basic lessons of love and fraternity and avoid suffocating pollution.

Brothers, be sure you shall suffer painful and crucial moments. Spend the little moments you still have to strengthen your faith and practice charity.

Jesus invites us for working.

Answer his request and come with us build up the New Land.

Setun Shenar's Speech – Which side do you choose?

Your Masters and Instructors allowed me to bring you some revelations about macabre experiences made by reptilians using neglectful men who opened them the doors of spiritual and physical life, freely.

That category of hair-raising creatures in order to subdue the Planet Earth, they are acting strongly and easily over physical and spiritual plans, mainly after large progress of your genetic science.

They benefit at most their know-how to invade and harm by lethal way, the scoria of the society arrested in prisons.

They have began their experiences openly in the USA that interested on high-tech information offered their people as payment.

At the moment, the reptilians act free wherever due negligence and faithless men who allow their macabre actions.

They act free, not furtively as before, destroying more and more the humanity. Obviously, disguised and deceiving the poor fellows who make easy their vile actions.

Brothers, pray and watch. It is time for separation between the wheat and the tares; the wolves in sheeps' clothing; the leftists and the rightists of Christ.

As soon as possible, choose which side you want. Never, you can serve two Lords, God and Mamon, without loss for yourselves.

Your future is in your own hands. The choice depends on you.

We keep on alert. Believing or not in our words, the reptilians exercise every type of ignominy over your people.

"The signs of Earth time finishing" come. Do not avoid your progress once again withstanding Father's Laws.

There is no way to deny huge negative force acting over this humanity and also that already has arrived "last hour" for this same humanity on the Earth.

Do not judge the neighbor; improve yourself and help the largest number of helpless people.

I leave you in the name of the Light and Peace of Master Jesus.

Setun Shenar (vice of command Ashtar), 10/03/06

When the extraordinary become reality

"... Men can intervene over the whole process, because thus allows each person's free will, however there is limit, even for human species. When such choices reach the Cosmical System, God intervene: ENOUGH!

The Beast approaches!

It would be better this people understand the limit of insanity imposed by Universal Law of Love, Progress and Justice."

PRESENTATION

Here it is more one book, at a request of Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, Spiritual Instructors of GESJ.

Ranieri Matias, Creator and leader of First-Aid Centers placed in Viana/ES and Vale Encantado/ES. He is brave warrior, Servant of Christ, worker of Blessed Cornfield.

As regard Count Rochester, since long time, I am very fond of his works. Instructor of Elevated Graduation, expert and strategist in Abysmal Areas.

At the moment, the raw material for performance this work don't come from Akashic Register, intraterrestrial cities nor distant Planets either. The reports described here are real from visible and invisible back-stages as well as from extra-physical plan of Police Stations, Penitentiaries, Prisons and Reformatories.

They are extraordinary and awful pictures worse than terror films, but which ought to be published about The End of the Time and several mysteries unknown up to now.

To face those events shown and divulged already let us upset, imagine when see our brothers and Father's children fell under pains, anguish, tortures and terror in the prisons. Probably, unless we have terminal infarct, we shall be crazy forever.

Otherwise, we shall bear in mind that, there is no divine injustice; and yes, lack of love and no respect to the neighbor.

Father loves all his children, however the mankind discriminate each other daily.

The current prisoners made many mistakes, however their spiritual redemption could happen at less painful and humiliating way, if weren't a such negligence of authorities that little or nothing avoid a such inhuman situation.

Thence, not everything is lost; the executioners and neglectful people pick bitter fruits of disaffection.

All, without exception, from the highest authority, hierarchically speaking, to the simplest employee, at physical plan, who mistreat, torture, humiliate, discriminate and enrich himself through dominance over helpless ones, they ought to answer for such mistakes, cruelty, greed, ill-faith, indifference and so on.

In 15/02/2006, while writing these words, I remembered that "TV Globo News", showed about a prisoner punished for murdering and, eight years later taken as innocent.

"Pepper in eyes of other one means refreshment."

Jesus, one of the greatest wise man, when landed in the Planet Earth said:

- "With same measure you measure, you will be measured."

It is questionable think that only capital punishment could solve this assertive, besides of catastrophic mistakes could bring, also that just dies the physical body, while the immortal spirit stay alive, free at astral plan and acting accordingly with his nature in prisons, or no, until his free will interfere over embodied and disembodied spirits, surrounding him.

Life go on!

At last, we beg the spiritualist people, who read this book, if they can't act directly in the prisons that, at least, daily, offer a sincere prayer to Jesus, Personified love who had lived among us, helping our hapless brothers in prisons, police stations, reformatories, detention houses and so on. If you don't know how make a prayer, recite this one bellow.

Christical Prayer

We wish health and peace for all of the creatures

We hope that all they are happy and live in harmony.

We hope that all they are well-blessed.

We are brothers, we are brothers, we are brothers.

Peace and Fraternity.

May the Light, Love and Might of our Lord Jesus Christ restores in the Earth,
Kingdom of God and his Harmony. (repeat 3 times)

Jesus Christ, Greatness of God, Greatness of Love and Peace.

Glory to God at Heavens and Peace to all of the willingly Men.

Margarida (GESH)

1ST CHAPTER JUST AS PREFACE

Keep always discreet on your thoughts, words and practice good actions.

Thus you become invisible to insane creatures inhabiting the Planetary House with you.

Commander Setun Shenar
(Vice of Command Ashtar)

01. Why this Work?

Peace be with you!

Sisters, anything would be asked if you were unable execute them.

Dived in the darkness, our brothers, God's children, exploiters and explored fall under the worst inhuman conditions such as "Beasts" shown on terror stories.

They are in debt creatures who have to redeem themselves from darkness to Light, thinking in God and exposing themselves as children of Light.

That is a dark and sticky road, satanic traps chasing us, but we are kept with Larger Power of Loving Jesus and on behalf of him, we ought to restore the Light over there.

Don't worry, who are at work.

Concomitantly, we are divulging to this humanity the lovelessness among of the creatures.

The reports described may disturb the sensitive souls, though are necessary to most of them who didn't awake yet. Our brothers of old times are enslaved in the darkness and libertinism.

May Jesus guide us. Much Peace for you.

Ranieri Matias, 14/01/06

02. Invitation for this book

Save Jesus!

Divine Light drive us!

Brothers, all we are involved by Jesus' Love. We shall work thankful his Fertile Love redeeming our mistakes and driving us, through the fraternal work to progress.

Thank you for this opportunity, once again, receiving a such gift, as redeeming work as want our Father.

Everything that disturb minds remain at second plan, often unconscious or beneath the carpet, as we use to say.

However, who endeavour to change, entering in new sidereal home, at dimensional plan above that in which lives, he needs revealing his unconscious, so that, doesn't betray it anymore, behaving well with Evolved Brothers. Then, if can't fell their loving and blessed presence, even so they are with us.

Once that we are in charge of awaking deceived brothers, we urge to divulge this work, which we have done lovingly. Here speaks your brother and friend Count Rochester with our dear brother Ranieri Matias, brave coordinator at work in the Shelter Servants of Jesus.

Together with you we help the neighbor, if you accept our invitation. Usually, the material come by means of our minds, thoughts and ideas, for divulge for all of terrestrial inhabitants. Usually, disguised, the sisters enter with us in those awful holes, created by human mind and thence, we catch the naked truth divulging it to your society. Thus we are contributing for awakening embodied people.

May Jesus blesses our taskwork, if you accept it, and drive our steps with wisdom and kindness.

Margardia: Which work?

Rochester: Popularization about the occult realities which the people avoid them yet. It means human beings grouped into cells, as animals caged. Because of a such humiliation and several other deplorable factors existent in prisons, incredible transformations of behaviour are developed, gradually, over there, while creatures live in adversity of behavior and become true beasts.

M: Do you mean prisoners?

R: Yes.

M: Does it mean to visit, with astral body, Prisons and Houses of Detention?

R: Firstly, our ideas and thoughts are transmitted, materializing the popularization mentioned; later on, we shall visit, at astral plan, the sources of knowledge and reality that may be divulged to society in the Earth, at the present time.

The means of communication already divulge some result of behaviors and inhuman life in your Planet. We offer our fraternal service to superior plan, blessed by our Evolved Spiritual Instructors for helping embodied people, at the moment, divulging about a such reality at physical and astral plans, as well as the results suffered on their spiritual morphology.

As soon as we finish the book "The declined people and their terrestrial journey" nr. III, we shall begin more one book for first semester of 2006.

M: Will we visit Detention Houses, Reformatories and Prisons, with astral and also physical body, or only with astral body?

R: For the time being, we couldn't coordinate the both activities together. As far as we know, we shall visit those places at spiritual plan. We go safe and sound as you already know and, usually, disguised, just like spiritual entities of those plans. There, we may use same garments and appearance, so that we can check everything, without be noticed, whereas, all of the strongholds are kept by perverse entities, unaware of their condition as Children of God. Our communication is up. We leave you with our ideas, so that evaluate them and we are at your disposal whenever you need. We greet you in the name of the Light, thankful Master Jesus for this new opportunity of fraternal work.

M: We are also thankful the presence of loving brothers and also the invitation for more one book. As always, we make our utmost on behalf of Loving Jesus and other Masters, mainly Ramatis, dear friend, who since millennia, follows our evolutive road, as part of his spiritual family.

A: Peace of Jesus.

Count of Rochester, 13/01/06

03. The presence of Beasts in Prisons

Greetings, brothers!

We are with you on behalf of Master Jesus.

We follow you by invisible realities of awful terrestrial prisons.

If many of you feel sadness due the physical degradation, more desperate would feel when see large number of beasts caged together with prisoners in your terrestrial prisons.

There, live several types of spirits: commanded and commanders. The latter ones are bosses of gangs. From their little thrones settled under extreme violence, they subdue Life and Death of careless people.

The sexual degradation is the most aberrant possible and foolish pleasures are currency of accessing what should be basic needs.

Many of them, because of huge magnetic load, they have their astral bodies shaped up at mental form of animals.

Even as humans, don't bear up such conditions, thence they shape up as physical form to survive.

At mental plan, those creatures don't have either hope or future.

They live each minute furiously under a such inhuman condition, piled up, sharing the little space, at costs of hard confrontations and, usually, the loser is removed for not being devoured.

Your prison compound is fertile source of beasts, inadmissible to mankind.

Your society, taken as high-tech has acquired means of communication and transport highly developed, however, unable to communicate by fraternal and universal language, putting all of creatures at same landing of contact.

Even having advanced technology, you don't help those careless people, men and women piled up who stay there even as disembodied spirits, increasing the number of beasts.

Brothers, open your eyes full of illusions and look for human feeling dispersed by empty hands for want of charity.

Your dear children are easy objects of Beasts, because of your own inertia, negligence and disaffection.

May Jesus blesses you.

04. Shady Islands

To enter in a prison, detention house or a police station recalls a primitive and inferior world.

The humans are piled up, inciting conflict, revolt, hate, and so on. Psychical and sexual unbalance creating disturbances that, often only finish after lots of incarnations.

This situation above, for decades, at physical and spiritual plans, have impelling groups of horror where the libertinism, violence and slavery are imposed from the strongest over the weakest ones.

At astral plan, time is finished for creating of First-Aid Centers in those places, where already have astral constructions of horror, at medieval style, even famous drawbridges over ditches with alligators, surroundings the castle. Many charitable and devoted Spirits work there, so that, little by little, afford assistance those poor fellows supplicant for help.

There is a feedback of savagery at physical and astral plans searching for perverse energy stored there, which borders go beyond of physical walls of prisons.

They are disembodied spirits so attached with embodied and composing an awful group of "Beasts", by natural symbiosis that only experts eyes can see.

After those brothers are redeemed from that terrible situation, only purifier fire can extinguish the black flames stored for centuries. Just Love can transform the present deserters by means of other experiences.

Only by painful journey, the deserters of Divine Laws can be adjusted.

The meat body doesn't supply those creatures, immunity to their mistakes, only offers them the blessing forgetting of own mistakes, so that can restart safe and sound, new journey of redemption.

Unhappily, low instincts surpass the human reason and again, see each other dragged by same belligerent instincts which didn't surpass yet.

Thousands of embodied spirits from astral areas, full of pain are begging for mercy so that forget the mistakes disturbing them on and on. Usually, they receive much care of invisible and guardians. They grow up at physical plan as deserve and need for healing them. They don't benefit the opportunity nor endeavor for changing either, falling again and increasing more the debts.

They supply the Dark Army with revenge and blood spilled.

Thousands of spirits, at meantime, leave meat body (die) going to prisons, whereas, lost the redeeming chance and are exiled again.

Earth time is finished and another planetary cycle crosses by inferior areas of pain, in another home.

For sure, Light from Father's Love may shine their hearts until purify them.

Beasts may become angels in a distant future.

There is "a free by-pass between shady Islands and Abyss" more and more stronger while neglectful authorities strengthen the prisons over there.

The insane minds have enough time to draw up a programme. At "shady islands", the prisons have no occupation to avoid ill nature thoughts.

The prisoners don't living in adversity can't survive in a primitive system that, by its turn, creates primitive creatures too.

Don't worry you, who endeavour for changing the system; otherwise, poor fellows who supply those places and may leave the Earth worse than prisoners, inhabiting places worse than have contributed to build up, at the moment. Not because of punishment of Divinity; It's just Law of Return, rewarding everything they have done to the neighbour, when had in the hands, appropriate tools for building a world better.

The arrogance, negligence and disaffection, selfishness, hypocrisy and pride are elements that need of several incarnations exiled in another Planet.

Oh, brothers! You, who stand a chance in reducing sufferings and injustices, do your best; on the contrary, you can't at least imagine the hard consequences over you.

Don't love the neighbor means strong mistake for Divine Constitution.

Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, 20/01/06

2ND CHAPTER

DRAMATIC HISTORIES: THAT'S LIFE

"There aren't either innocent or unjust ones among of the characters described along of the following reports.

What human eyes don't see, even so, can't be erased from his conscience"

Count Rochester

01. In My Name, Liberate sufferer souls

Strong energy fills the whole place and soon I caught words of that Silent Voice:

"In My Name, liberate those sufferer souls, our dear brothers.

Yesterday, while you were suffering, loving hands rescued you from darkness.

Go, if not for Me, help your dear relatives dived in mud of sufferings.

I am always with you, even when you can't feel My Presence.

When you touch the sufferer brother, helping him, it is to Me you do that.

Come with me do do one's good.

I love and involve all you with My Love."

Jesus Sananda, 11/02/06

02. Cicero's revelations

Cordial greetings.

Before we begin the helping activities in those places pointed out by Superior Spirituality, we intend to enlarge that area introduced you. With energies from High Spheres, a favorable place was settle down to welcome sufferer and insane souls of your brothers, prisoners.

For sure, they had mistakes, but how they live now, they can rescue the present and past mistakes. Once there is no Divine injustice, all of the reports described, hereafter, refer to those in debt brothers, went on in the past, searching for upgrowth.

"There aren't either innocent or unjust ones among the characters described along of the following reports. What human eyes don't see, even so, can't be erased from his conscience".

If your physical eyes can't see the reality described, enlarge your minds to reach the understanding over the facts, without affect your faith. The harder is the reality, there is behing it a balance of forces pointing out how is huge the current pain, because of petrified hearts involved by perfidious plot.

The negative and positive polarities are balanced from surface to abysmal areas and when an awful scene reaches our eyes, we need understand what they teach us.

Clairvoyance: I see a man with his nude back lying face downward who seems unconscious. His skin and hair is so clean and has an old scar on the backs, maybe due a cut. The skin beneath the scar was already recovered with something like a graft.

The lateral sides of the wound are red. A worker who cares of that patient said that he was found in his cell bloody, whose vital signs revealed still his physical life. At spiritual plan, we could see much vital energy enough to last around twenty years.

Country Life

He was a rural worker submitted at hard difficulties raised in the countryside and due the land-grabbers presence, our brother and his family moved to downtown.

Poor and without his few belongings, he searched for only possibility existent in that place, the diamond mine.

Clairvoyance: I could see scenes of his day-by day in that diamond mine. Many men working together dirty of coal and dust, carrying big sacks on the heads. The other ones, among of them was Cicero opened arge holes on the soild while the other companions washed the land using screens.

Cicero a strong man, whose production and earnings overcame a lot his friends, usually provoking discussions for out of envy of some companions. Once, maybe in Para state, when happend one of those intrigues, Cicero, disturbed, hurt a man seriously and taken to prision.

Prison and revolt

Cicero was arrested and forgotten. Not even his wife´s appeals nor his son's cry avoided that corrupt police let him caged.

After two years fell under mistreatments and strong revolt, he began practicing terrible crimes in his cell; he murdered several cell companions too. He created an extermination group with resources supplied by own police , “erasing” prisoners taken as without recovery and uncomfortable to police.

Five years of violent practices let him worse until he was murdered by enemy phalange with violent knife blows on his backs, while slept.

Clairvoyance: I saw the police opening the cell where Cicero slept and other five men coming in. Four of them held Cicero´s legs and arms while the fifth attacked his backs with several knife blows until his death.

Cicero´s Spiritual Background

This case, under spiritual point of view, shows the formation of a dangerous gang composed of bad and treacherous entities, as follows:

The old enemies disembodied threw over land-grabbers who forced Cicero moving downtown and also turning him closed to suggestions of good spirits and easened Cicero´s prision.

For more two years, the old enemies made fun of merciless sufferings of Cicero's spirit and when was concluded the revenge plan, abandoned Cicero worn out.

Thenceforth, the hate seeds, planted more and more by enemies, found favorable soil, germinating revolt that, by its turn, impelled more revenge and violent attacks of Cicero against his companions. By everywhere he passed by, he spilled blood and panic among of his cell companions.

He who ignores beyond of material life may suppose that Cicero's death stopped his troubles. Negative. After his death, free from matter, for twenty years prisoner, he created a net of violence responsible for several rebellions in the prisons of that area.

Clairvoyance: I see a spiderweb begin forming nearby the roof of a cell, covering its top. At meantime, the web grows up and covers the other cells too.

Now, the spiderweb covers the whole penitentiary compound placed at north of a country. All of the cells have threads of that web, from where leaves a sticky substance.

Those hair-raising creatures, half man and half spider, inhabit those threads and, when want to feed, they prick the prisoners, provoking disturbances and even deaths. When the prisioner leaves his body, his spirit stays tied in that sticky substance,

"embalmed" by one or more spiders and, slowly, their vital fluids are sucked, feeding them. Few spirits avoid the "embalment" and consequent vampirism of his vital fluids.

When have many food, supplied with many deaths, the spiders "embalm" spirits coupled, depositing their nestlings there, living on their prisoners' fluids.

Q: What happen with those spirits, when no more have anything to be sucked?

A: Most of them come in voluntarily there or helped by some Evolved Spirit, at ovoid state, until the rescue is possible.

Cicero was the creator and keeper of "thought-form" of that web, as it is known at astral, the area of prisoners taken as one of the oldest agony places, we chose it to begin our works of helping and cleaning of prisons, at inferior astral.

We don't know yet, what is the depth of webs at inferior plans, thence, we need our friend's mental activity, so that we get in deepest strongholds and erase the original threads there.

At the beginning was cleaned at astral plan, soon below the physical one, and the patient's recovery has already began; while he is still unconscious. His mind worn out refuses to get back to conscience painfully.

Negative Portals strengthen Darkness

By the same way the thoughts, words and good actions move healthy energies, allowing the traffic among of several dimensions, storage of vile feelings and thoughts constitute "negative dimensional portals", getting in touch with darkness in the Earth, also attract perverse minds which advanced knowhow worsen the evil reality of prisons.

Usually, those beings attracted try to materialize the negative force, acting and creating by meticulous plan, at parallel dimension, a small fortress bound for settling true "Cities of low astral" in the future.

The opened "portals" allow conversion of harmful energies produced in the matter by energies able to build up buildings, shady valleys, forests of thorns, awful grottos, swamps full of wild and poisonous animals, mires covered with moving mud and other perfidious and treacherous places.

The energies stored also serve for genetic improvement able to feed those creatures' survival, turning them hybrid, or simply adapted, so that survive and insist on their performance beyond the walled cells, detention houses, prisons and police stations.

Clairvoyance: I see hundreds of nestlings of spiders moving from prisons to street. They run quickly coming in some places settling their webs in commercial and residential places.

The houses near to prisons are the next target of dark scientists. Those careless inhabitants with no inner defense, they are easily arrested by "Beasts" living in the physical plan polluted with poisons expelled by creatures unknown.

The ill-nature for killing, constant thoughts on death, scenes of cruel murders, pleasure for crimes, are the first symptoms identified to whom getting in touch with spiritual realities described above, little by little, loose the notion of superior reality and space and let be taken by thought-form of that spider created by Cicero.

The other Instructor said that, often sensitive people catch strong thoughts and feelings of embodied ones taken by that terrible plot.

Thought-form

When is created a thought-form, its roots grow up like a vegetable, and seek through the creator's mind food for survival. Thence better is the atmosphere as much lower and denser are vibrations where it lives.

When reduces the food, the parasite exercise power over creator's brain with chemical regulators, producing more food until it can survive by itself.

However, even after leaving its creative source, the main cells stay inside the creative brain, at latent state and at any moment, increases the roots again, so that become stronger and free.

Only the destruction of original thought-form can extinguish them, once and for all.

The more rooten is the thought-form, larger is its performance, usually leaving marks in plans and sub-plans in its original body.

When the situation is dangerous in all of the all plans, sub-plans and inferior bodies, it needs to destroy the main cells of informations, avoiding new thought-form.

Thenceforth, several years of treatment are necessary until the last cell is extinguished forever. After that stage, strong mental asepsis destroys part of cerebral tissue bearer of terrible disease, hurting the astral body (1).

(1) Note: boldface from GESH

Clairvoyance: I saw a politician speaking, whose words emitted energies drawing pictures in the air quickly like a ballet. When he finished his lecture, a thought-form supplied other part of his body, with no notion of which picture would be formed yet.

After clairvoyance, the Instructor explained:

Only other reincarnation like "acephalous" or suffering lesions in his central nervous system, can regenerate the cerebral tissue of astral body, placing healthy cells where there are cells supplying primitive roots of mental-form. That is Cicero's journey. The initial gap between his mind and powerful spider-mother happened at battle, because only powerful "swords of light" could break the strong fluids there, since dozens of years.

Clairvoyance: I saw, at astral plan, a big spider tied with Cicero's mind with thick and pressing threads. While we were struggling, the threads, one by one, were cut by our swords til the spider fell down and Cicero was unconscious too. From the threads appeared a bright and sticky substance.

The Instructor told me: The spiders are strong thoughts-form and thus are wanted by insane minds.

His body full of legs, hair and threads creates countless roots hindering to cure its creators.

Q: Does the creator desire that spider form?

A: No. Maybe the spirit stores it when watered by low vibrations. But also happen when tireless workers of darkness, accept harmful suggestions before concentration of low vibrations favorable to creation of a form-thought.

That was the road trodden in a such situation.

Clairvoyance: I see dark beings with paper, pen and strange appare auscultating the prisoners' energies inside the prision cells. Usually, when the prisoner is inert, those evil workers apply him shocks in specific points of secondary chacras, that once stimulated move the energies and measure his vibratory state. Elucidating better, as follows:

The team of dark scientistc control low vibratory tonus of prisoners, so that don't reduce too much the energy flow or "source of dimensional portals" supplying the inferior cities.

Q: Why don't they clean those places where monitore the energy level and any alteration denounces presence of Evolved Workers acting over there?

A: Yes, there are several ways to act in those places which surely, have to be removed the main sources, producers and keepers of flows of harmful energies. "Stricke the iron while it is hot".

It is an arduous, dangerous work without return, because once began, we only can go ahead. However, with survival of thought-form after separed from his creator, we have spare-time to take care of patients without be noticed. Thence, they are arrested and we go to final combat and remove all of the beings controlling of flow of energy which supplies partly the generators.

When there, in the Fortress, they notice lack of energy in that prision, no longer they find the power transmission machines nor at least who have done the cleaning . The only measure is communicate and face the angry bosses.

Waves of violence and punishment may unbalance the "stronghold" and if makes easy our presence, we may invade there and conclude the deep cleaning.

Q: What are a group of women near to prision saying Jesus' name?

A: See how fanatic performance of that group is produced by evil spirits. On the contrary that suppose the embodied man, those energies at fanatic disarray disturb the prisoners, usually giving flow to inferior energies withstand God and supplying the flow already described.

Are they or you the prisoners?

When you withdaw the prisoners from healthy social conviviality whose undesirable conducts are taken as light penalty, you are condemning them much more than some years of seclusion even without corporal and moral pains.

Your juridical compound fall the sick spirits under polluted places, running risk of suffering infection at high levels insted of allow them recovery at all.

For negligence, disregard, coldness, indifference, selfishness, vanity and other vicissitudes they punish all of the society with virus, bacteria and astral larvas capable of infecting a large number of people whom need more of help than punishment.

While presenting this case, we refer to many other men and women, whose realities reminds of that of our character Cicero.

Other reports go on presenting, as much as possible about the compromising, responsibility and complicity that each one of you, by action or omission, establish with hard reality of prisons, detention houses, reformatories, police stations and other places bound for whom withstand the Terrestrial Laws.

You are a single body with same planetary matter and dipped in the same cosmical ether connecting the spirits. Who doesn't influence, is influenced by mental forces surroundings; who doesn't subdue, is dominated. Few ones think freely.

And you, dear readers, which places inhabit your minds at Planetary House bound for upgrowth?

It a meaningless question, you may say. For sure, it was done so that you get free the ties from matter, and also we leave the next question for you think deeply: Are they or you the prisoners?

Q: Brother, could you explain about the events whent on in the past which had provoked that painful situation to Cicero's spirit?

A: So that you recognize each sufferer one as helpless brother to receive human treatment, it isn't necessary to know his old mistakes. It's enough you keep at heart the lessons of Master Jesus.

Many people due superficial knowledge learned, they think the karmic law as resource without rational logic and also that successive reincarnations only postpone pains, sadness and violence and thence, forget about the necessary transformation for events of great importance to Spirit's upgrowth, embodied or not.

Poor fellows! They hurry up to throw away the best mechanism of regeneration of helpless spirits, usually stand a chance for upgrowth although not easy or painless.

Those people seek mental atavisms, avoiding responsibilities of each one and, often transferring their own responsibility to Creator.

When you assume that task which you have to execute, you get free from mire of successive incarnations reaching you above the terrestrial pains.

The power of the mind

The mind is able to turn on and turn off alien intentions, as well as, our feelings act directly over several of our mental connections, even over formation or deformation.

When men understand a such mechanism shall give a deep evolutive jump, no more subdued, but giving up the eveil external and internal influences.

Through the mind keep dominance and subjugation over the weakest one. Thus is imperative to know how handle the own mind.

The first step to neophyte spirit, trainee and candidate to spiritual redemption means to get free from the ties which, he own often have produced or by other people over him up to now, mainly those ones due karmical partnership.

The unconditional Love, pardon and to do one's good are some of medicines that when supplied, can produce for sick minds, the solvent chemical agents to undo hard energy nodules, allowing free flow of good energies for patient's body.

For instance, if the area wounded is the leg, foot or arm, the agent acts there, dissolving the nodules. However, the treatment ends when the substances have a concentration circulating by organism, erasing in the brain, the root of that problem. The larger time has happened the event, more difficult is the action of regenerating chemistry, larger concentration of chemical agents, and as consequence, longer time of treatment is necessary to be solved the nodules.

As regard Cicero, he needs of drastic resource for his own awakening.

Large load of pure light of high quality can healing quickly the patient', however taking all of the precautions necessary due the similarity with laser, strong when concentrated and may provoke at that meantime pains and exaggerated reflexes over the patient.

Q: I wonder if the same happens over some spirits unfolded, because we felt coming from High much energy, often inciting terrible pains for entity. Those partially animal contort until have the rigid peel broken?

A: Yes. Thus happens in a sense with beings conscious.

03. Spiritualistic Medium: From receiver to transmitter

Clairvoyance: I see Chico Xavier beside me. He says that life time he was "receiver of Spirits' histories" and, at the moment, he is transmitter. He continues:

Not only we address messages for you. Also we take study trips learning and affording assistance for prisons, as well as, wearing away dense negative load, often adhered on your perispiritual body, easing psychic-physical-emotional unbalance.

No problem. When it happens, elevate your vibratory quantum, accelerating the inner dynamo that produces and emits high vibrations from inside to outside able to neutralize the disastrous load adhered on your main spiritual body. You are prepared to avoid those harmful energies.

Masters and Instructores of Elevated Spiritual Graduation uphold our fraternal task bound for sufferer brothers.

Prisioners´ s Premonitions

Low and suffocating clouds spread throughout Sao Paulo city.

It happens strange tumuld in the prisions that offer danger, the prisoners are anxious and seems that something negative is about to happen over there.

The place is full of violence by several factions. The prisioners have insights that a rebellion is about to happen while police keep on alert.

The double homicide

Jonas doesn't take part in any criminal faction. He was punished for murdering cruelty a neighbor who inconvenienced his wife who also died in his hands. Firstly, he doesn't remember what went on in the past and when recovered his conscience, the both victims were lied bloody and quartered near to him.

He ran away stunned but didn't go far. Denounced by neighbors, the police arrested him quicly to punishment prision.

In that prison, he only made a point of living. He had many cell companions and no friend; he didn't trust on those men sharing with him that awful place.

In that day he felt a squeeze in his chest, reminding of his children. He had dreamed about Elvira and her lover bloody and chasing him crying for revenge. He had woke up anxious and wet of perspiration.

He noticed his companions of misfortune anxious and suspicious. They felt that something bad was about to happen with them. Jonas didn't want rebellion whereas, after each one, the policemen became more violent, the daily meals made scarce and the place already small for so many people, after the depredation was uninhabitable. The place seemed a house abandoned for long time, dirt and destroyed.

Of course, nobody had said nothing, but a bad air blew in that shady day.

Burglar of Banks

Norberto didn't pay attention to atmosphere in that day. He counted the hours and minutes to get free from that hell. After long years living in that prison, he had some friends, as well as several enemies too.

He didn't take part in traffic there. He have been a burglar of bank, but never trafficker nor used drugs and thus had some enemies.

He would better keep on alert until get his freedom.

Suddenly, he was anxious about a dream had some weeks before, when one boss of prison, Luizao, offered him a deal, aware of Norberto soon would be free.

No trouble as yet; he had already refused some dangerous proposes.

Luizao had awful appearance and seemed bigger than was indeed. He said that yearned much blood and Norberto could kill and quater some companion.

He was afraid of Luizao and ran away. It was so real! What should be that? Luizao made fun of him

He changed the direction of his own thoughts and dreamed about freedom again, the only thing he wanted thenceforth.

He would go on practicing crimes helped by old accomplices, far from that place. He would make progress and have enoug money for his "retirement."

Rumors of rebellion

Tião always was violent. He was good at fight and decided on everything at once. He was small trafficker by order of larger commands. He had "made his pile" with traffic and awaited his freedom and thence begin new life with savings managed by his wife.

He avoided confrontations so that could be free at once.

Of course, he didn't flee from danger nor little fights. He own had murdered some prisoners during rebellions, but never taken as guilty. During rebellions, usually have deaths, but who worry with more or less one dead?

He had heard rumors about the rebellion and didn't want take part in that. But, if they disturb me, he thought, I can't avoid it.

Let the thing slide!

Thiago was secluded for four years for traffic and consumption of drugs. Not even he was 21 years old when went in prison at Andarai.

He didn't live the reality, though aware of being exploited by big bosses of traffic to practice the dirty part of that business. No trouble, since the drug arrived where he was arrested together with other companions of gang until they were murdered.

He knew about the great rebellion was about to happen, but he didn't want take part in it. He was tired, after four years endeavouring for surviving there. He only wanted his freedom. But, what to do besides of being thief if he hadn't attended no school.

The foreboding insights

Ethal was leader of gang and planned to invade the other area to balance accounts with rival faction. He knew that the other command there outside, have deviated a shipment of weapon and "dust" from Colombia for his customers.

There would be war in the prison, once he already knew that no more would see a gram of dust nor weapons.

He was well that day and, at the same time, had bad insights. He had two strange dreams. The first one about his mother that left him anxious; she cried and implored him to stand aside that awful life. She said that was alive (but had already died), inhabiting a beautiful house, in a flowery and beautiful place where someday, if he regreted his sins and changed his life, he also could live with her in that place similar a ranch which he dreamed when was child. He cried but didn't change his idea and his mother went away.

Dream: big boss or ghost?

The other dream seemed more real and left him better. One powerful boss, already dead since long time, appeared apologizing due his own strange appearance but necessary to be respected, he said.

He, boss, seemed a male goat, red and had horns. He said that would help Ethal to make success of his plan and later could become a great boss too.

He pointed him out some strategies about the subtle trap, how attract the rivals, without be noticed because they keep on alert and guilty and, don't know that the deviation of load no more is secret.

At that meantime, there was a dragon following that boss of big horns, speaking and making fun of that situation. - Am I arrived at animal world? Said Ethal and the boss didn't like because was the General Commander. He didn't understand nothing but all right. The news are good and now go to balance the accounts with traitors.

Naison and his gang keep on red alert. Everything ran well. They diverted the load of Ethal and when he discovered, should happen a large tumult.

How awful day! he thought, taking a look at the cloudy sky. If rains will be better.

He ordered the spies to take a walk and discover what was about to happen there, once he felt as a physical pain as signal. All of the prisoners were anxious and sure that something bad would happen there.

Arrangements for Great Battle

At astral, the beasts planned a battle among of factions and the police, at physical plan, so that could get much blood for experiences in full swing.

The Dragon should conclude the plan and uttered the last orders able to provoke collective death in the prison.

There would also happen at physical plan, balance of accounts among rival gangs, in debt Spirits who withstood Divine Law, for several incarnations.

Rebels and primary in actions and thoughts were handled easily by darkness so that take part in that bloody battle.

Among of policemen and prisoners, the balance of accounts with spirits petrified with hate, since hundreds of years, should be bloody battle. The debtors would tumble, as well as the beings of low vibration, cruel and sanguinary instincts, attracted by karmic Law, would tumble in the bloody night too.

The people less engaged with satanic and cruel web, would be redeemed, however marked forever, because of large negative load that was supposed to explode in that place like a bomb of high destruction power.

Few of those souls had merit enough to avoid the tragedy.

Massacre in the Prison

By order of dragon, criminal forces were at battle. The police reacted and more than a hundred prisoners were murdered bathed in blood.

No one of those men, prisoners or policemen engaged in that massacre, is free from negative mark adhered in his spirit as red-hot iron, keep them tied until pay to the Divine Law, with pains and sufferings, the debits gotten during the massacre.

Those insane spirits may live thousands of incarnations until liberate that damned mark.

Even after destroyed the place, many of prisoners free or transferred to other prisons go on suffering negative impact of that massacre and don't rest because are always disturbed by Beasts and crazy spirits screaming for justice.

Up to now have mysteries and murders due that massacre.

The black handcuffs built between men and spirits need thousands of incarnations to get free from them. They are exiled to other Planet, each one as his merit and vibration level, but someday they have to pay the debts to the Providence.

It's time for readjustment, crops, choice and exile.

Jesus, Friend of all the hours involves us with His Love, larger than all of the pains in the world, as he own told us.

Insane Souls prejudice over prisoners

Little by little, the place is emptied afterwards that bloody massacre, however, many spirits with hearts petrified with hate and revenge still exercise power over embodied ones, so that don't forget the great tragedy and take revenge.

There is still blood stains which only can be extinguished with fire purifier magnetized there. The spirits living there are redeemed by Spiritual Aid Teams, but others insist on stay there, pulled by huge negative magnetic load.

Only when dressing in new clothes (reincarnation) at other Orbe, those sufferer souls can stand a chance of mental balance unconscious.

Only the fraternal time can appease their minds and hearts, for restarting as children of God and Jesus, always following them.

We realize that lots of people don't believe on our presence nor our messages, though doubt is inherent to the human being.

The faithful ones are aware of depth of a such work published up to now and feel us executing the orders of Christ lovingly. For these ones, we offer our humble work, for Heaven's sake and our sufferer brothers.

Save Jesus, Divine Friend!

04. Genaro's Grocery

Genaro and his beautiful family

Genaro opens the Grocery's. He is a happy man, descendant of Italian people, who works in the slum where lives with his family.

Life had been him hard, even so, he usually faced everything lovingly.

He moved to that slum, afterwards his wedding-day when there was few neighbors in that place like a small farm, full of birds and fruitful trees.

Little by little, the neighborhood increased, although without improvement. After all, birds and butterflies lived away and only afraid of some ill-nature neighbors.

He had a couple of children. Mary was oldest and was taken as princess. Genaro loved his daughter and usually provoking jealousies in own mother.

Some years later, was born Eleuterio who triplicated the happiness of Genaro. He was always showing his "male" in the slum proud of his son as a gift of God.

Following the dictates uttered by Evangel, Genaro and Lucia took care of children and lived well, teaching us to be dispensable wealth for true happiness.

Genaro's widowhood

Eleuterio was five years old when his mother suffered a strange illness and died. Genaro, widower and upset no more he smiled.

After months of sadness, advised by friends, he looked for other other woman to help him in his Grocery's and also take care of his children.

At once, lots of candidates appeared as happy housewives of comfortable home, profits and honest husband. As regard the children, didn't matter so serious commitment that means to take care of children as were own children.

Taken by much sadness, Genaro deceived with his neighbor's appearance, whom noticing his interest, prepared her own strategies to defeat the other women.

Plots went on in the past

After one year widower, Genaro was married again. Mary and Eleuterio had foster mother to take care of them, because the plots went on in the past among them.

Selfish and careless, Leonor, new wife of Genaro, had been mother of Mary and Eleuterio in last incarnations by karmical Law. Usually aborting or even abandoning them already grown up, she didn't worry with future. Despite of painful years at astral, studying and longing for receiving them again as her children and, now even engaged in driving them during this earthy existence, she went back.

She received from Divine Providence a home that didn't deserve, children already grown demanding little cares, stable financial condition, and an honest husband, that, above all, loved his children.

It wasn't by chance Leonor and Genaro met again. He had been a good father to her and also had several opportunities to tame her ill-nature, but her efforts proved useless. Now, they were together again and, as always, he wanted to execute well the Divine Plan.

Nor everything that glitters is gold

Dazzled to stand new chance now, Leonor moved to Genaro's house with no good objective. She didn't take care of the children as regard health, well-being, feeding and study. She only thought about physical and monetary benefits and often prepared dangerous strategies.

Once, while the Grocery's wasn't running well, she convinced the husband to sell alcoholic drinks, in order that attract more customers and increase the profits.

As regard Mary, earlier, Leonor stimulated her working at counter. Pretending false interest on the girl's education, she convinced Genaro the work was much more educational than school. Genaro agreed under condition that his daughter didn't abandon the school. Thence, Mary, at 10 years old, began to work half-day.

Eleuterio, started delivering goods not always from Grocery's. Leonor answered for financial section and often stealing at her convenience.

Thus they lived five years. Eleuterio no more was so innocent aware of everything. He tried to alert his father, who didn't believe him supposing that his son adolescent was jealous due dominance of Eleonor over him.

Mary, who in other incarnations had been abandoned by her mother and was prostitute, earlier, she felt the atmosphere of that bar inciting her to restart as prostitute again. Many of the customers fell in love with her. At the same time, his father' was out of money due constant stealing of Leonor. Life in that simple house no more was comfortable as before, while Mary was more interested on beautiful shoes and clothes.

Leonor, at this current life, couldn't have children, by reason of crimes went on in the past, what let Genaro upset. No more he could see the little ones running at home, as before and often he reminded of his dear Lucia.

Genaro dreams about Lucia

Genaro ignored that beyond of Life, Lucia's spirit could see everything. She tried to alert him what could happen to her dear children thenceforth.

By dream, Lucia approached him so tender and talked long time with Genaro, alerting him about Leonor's ill-nature and the risks the children could run. She advised him and went away, having accomplished her duty as evolved spirit. She couldn't stay there, aware of no more was embodied spirit.

Before her departure, she begged the Spirituality for help her and approached of her children equally, speaking to them about the reasons and importance of terrestrial life and how they should behave, not involving with Leonor who only wanted to exploit them at her own convenience.

Mary and Eleuterio began "easy life"

Leonor, as soon as she noticed several men interested on young and beautiful Mary, she eased the approach with girl and, at the same time, disguised as good mother, she influenced Mary with customers, as it was completely normal.

As regard Eleuterio, foolish and unprepared boy, she began inciting his negative and unconscious tendencies. At each delivery, she tried to reward him with payment in cash, influencing him for material goods.

Once he already had a such tendency for greed, Eleuterio, started delivering packages supposed to be drugs. He didn't worry because the payment was good, only he should be careful to not run into troubles.

Alleging reform of old house, Leonor built up more two comfortable bedrooms, where incited her stepdaughter for prostitution.

Genaro ignored everything, deceived by Leonor and didn't worry with her negligence at home, because she was good at businesses and, despite of economical crisis, she was important for survival of his bar, whereas, she had the good idea of selling drink and thenceforth had increased the customers.

Genaro ignored that, also at astral plan, the customers had increased and also was worsen the quality of visitors. When he had the first doubt if that atmosphere would be good to his children's education, several entities approached him at once and anesthetized his mind, so that never, he closed the bar, point of vampirism and orgies.

Payment for Faithlessness

Once, while he was looking for Leonor at home, by chance, he got in his daughter's room and saw her dressing in little cloths, as a sensual woman amusing the customers. Taken by great horror, Genaro ran way and soon suffered an aneurysm, taken to Medical Center and some days later, returned to his family, as vegetal.

Even too sick he could follow up everything near to him. Now he heard the several conversations among his children and wife.

Now he was sure that Leonor never had loved him, only wanted material goods and, little by little, under his eyes, drove his children to wrong life.

His daughter, so pure, became a prostitute and his son, trafficker. Thenceforth, the bar was uphold just as facade to police.

Reformatory

The place was filthy and the customers had desappeared. Aftwards Eleonor and the both adolescents were arrested by policeman.

The adolescents were taken to reformatory where suffered much torture and became them full of hate and only wanted revenge to Leonor.

United by ties of misfortune, Eleuterio and Mary draw up a programme and escape the law. Two months later they were already at home again, talking big how had escaped the law during that tumult.

They moved to another city and formed a couple of thieves; she attracted the preys and he held them up, often murdering them, when necessary.

Not even they thought about their father invalid and no more saw their relatives. Since long time, their grandparents had died and now they only wanted to murder the stepmother, blaming her because of whole misfortune over the family, forgotten that due their own faithlessness fell under vile woman.

During one of those rebellions, Eleuterio and Mary finished their lives of crimes, arrested to serve a thirty-five years term of prison each one. They were 18 and 20 years old, respectively.

Eleuterio couldn't imagine what awaited him in the prison. He judged he should live well having food daily without working. But the old executioners, already planned years of suffering as revenge for that insane boy.

Dirty cells full with droppings, humidity in the walls, stink, constraining proximity with men and homosexuals and constant fights, little by little, tamed the rebel boy.

When Eleuterio learned how to benefit that place, he formed a gang, Clan of Scorpions bound for traffic in and out of prison. He did what knew better: delivering drugs until became a big boss.

When the police tried stopping the flow of drugs, they made tumult and everything was forgotten. Sometimes, Eleuterio felt remorse for his mistakes, for instance, When his mother appeared and asked him lowly to avoid the traffic.

The tragic End of Eleuterio

Stunned after her mother's vision, Eleuterio concluded he could be crazy and, betraying an accomplice of traffic, he bribed the guard, his affair, and escaped the law.

He lived many years tally with whom had helped him to flee, but, tired of that companion's jealous he went away, though didn't go far after anonymous accusation by his affair, who afterwards committed suicide.

Terrified of returning to prison where had ferocious enemies, Eleuterio knew which would be his future in the prison, thenceforth. Afterwards his arrival at prison, he was murdered and decapitated by old accomplice who exhibited the traitor's head as example for other accomplices.

By the other side of life, his old boyfriend fell him under endless sufferings, from where was rescued by insistent supplications of his mother's spirit.

When Mary was arrested, she felt much revenge against Leonor. After suffering many abuses by policemen, she suffered serious disease and died. Her mind fixed on revenge put her closer stepmother, who was enjoying material goods with men and women, dishonoring his father's house whom had received her lovingly, once again.

Mary spreads hate

Mary was strongly connected with stepmother incited her to commit suicide.

Genaro abandoned and sad didn't bear up and died soon after Leonor's death, without no news over his children.

Thenceforth, the bar was closed, once and for all, which had been the source of honest work for education of souls interconnected by karmical Law.

Nobody else was interested on that place that started to be vampirized with strange visions such as: a headless man, a crazy woman and a beast with woman's face. Most of the people avoided even, pass by near to it.

Count Rochester and Ranieri matias, 24/02/06

05. Jose and Eufrazio: bad boys

It was Christmas night in 1980, when two men masked entered in a millionaire man's house, coffee planter, and murdered him brutally, avoided the prison without be noticed.

The widow, stunned never again was the same. Soon after her husband's death, she died too, leaving the fortune to a nephew, whereas, hadn't children to inherit the large patrimony, got with effort and arduous work along of one existence.

The leader of a plot and his disorderly life

At last, Godofredo, the nephew could enjoy the large fortune desired since always. He paid the brothers Jose and Eufrazio to murder his uncle. Everything was well planned and nothing could blame him; who was away when the tragedy happened.

Jose and Eufrazio were good at that task. Godofredo met them in São Paulo. In that time, the cunning plans began and made concrete when the both brothers had lost much money at gambling and Godofredo paid them the debt.

Thenceforth they were thankful to him. Godofredo knew their weak point and that had already murdered someone in Sao Paulo, at gambling and didn't hesitate in offering them the dirty deal which they accepted at once.

Some years after the tragedy, Godofredo was owner of whole business belonged to his uncle. He forgot entirely about the episode and kept practicing gambling and libertinism. No more he had heard about the criminals up to now.

To recall is to live again

One day, while Godofredo was reading the newspapers, he saw a headline which discouraged him so much. Jose and Eufrazio were arrested for murdering a rich merchant with same strategies used to murder his uncle.

Prisoners and out of money, the brothers asked Godofredo to help them.

Godofredo for fear of them avoided any contact.

Without news on Godofredo, the brothers that hadn't nothing to lose, they threatened him if he didn't help them.

Godofredo was in a blind alley and stayed silent, not answering the brothers' threats, who insisted on asking him help.

In the prison, the brothers met other accomplices also cold and cruel criminals who didn't mind with nothing besides of murdering any one for little money. They knew the traffic net in and outside of prison and could reach Godofredo when wanted and then prepared an ambush for murdering Godofredo.

"Who slayeth with the sword shall perish with the sword"

The prisoners together with gangs of extermination outside the prison, Godofredo was murdered at cold blood and without witness, at same house he had ordered his uncle's death.

Jose and Eufrazio, more and more were requested to murder cell companions or any other, once they amused to stab and see blood of a body.

At astral plan, they were deeply driven by vampires increasing them the desire to spill blood.

Godofredo and his uncle murdered met and fought hatefully at astral. They were arrested to prison where were their murderers, though they weren't so cold nor had primary vibrations as their murders; they couldn't avoid the vampires and other dark entities inhabiting that place of hell.

They were arrested and tortured ever and again in a place like underground of some medieval castle. They didn't understand why were there tortured mercilessly.

They lost the own conscience and no more couldn't struggle. They were arrested to laboratory of Reptilians in that prison. Their unbalanced energies changed by tortures were collected by perverse scientists for shady experiences.

Jose and Eufrazio, after years of wrong life, were crazy due impulsive desire of flowing blood in a cruel way, were murdered while slept, in a cold dawn in winter.

Vampires dressing in physical body

Out of physical body, their spirits no more shaped up human form. They became vampires as whom obsessed them.

They took part in gang of vampires and arrested in the punishment prison, as hard obsessors thirsty for blood to calm their fury.

Now, they were irremediably engaged with powerful Reptilians with dominance over that institution. By order of Reptilians, they rushed on embodied ones, increasing them misfortune and inciting them to kill the cell companions.

They acted freely, as well as all of the inhabitants of shadows in that place.

Vampires captured by Servants of Light

One day, there was a rumor among of gang of vampires. A bright string involved and stopped them. They couldn't avoid that light able to arrest ten vampires, among them, Jose and Eufrazio.

They didn't understand what happened, they struggled hardly to get free, but their efforts were useless. They saw each other caged in cell walled with bars of light that hurt when touched them. A soft light flooded the environment touching them too.

Along of the days, they felt as were anesthezied, without control of own forces and not even could stay awake.

They didn't knew how long lived like this and were transferred to a big living room, walled with bars of light.

Out of prisons, some men appeared and seemed shining. They couldn't stare them, because provoked indisposition and even shame that, since long time, didn't feel.

They spoke calmly and said that were Servants of Jesus and as brothers wanted to help and offer them new opportunity of life.

The vampires didn't understand why they spoke on Jesus to them, that were beasts and no more had human bodies. They were completely lost and even so, didn't want to live different. They noticed that those bright men could read their thoughts, when said that such situation in which they lived had been provoked by themselves with hate, revenge and insanity from low instincts. And they also said that could modify everything, since they no more committed crimes and also accepted help.

Accepting such help, they would be led to medical center and submitted to a appropriate treatment and thence could recover their human form again. After the medical service, they would receive instructions and lessons, preparing them for future reincarnations of fights and sufferings, so that could reward the Divine Laws, the large debits gotten with neighbor.

They should suffer a lot of vicissitudes, betrayals, learn how to forgive, respect and love the neighbor as were themselves.

Those words were like pinpricks in their astral bodies. The brothers declined cryed like beasts that didn't accept the "undeserved" offer from Providence in that crucial moment for their spirits.

The long trip to exile

From that gang with ten human vampires, only two have accepted fraternal help, while the other ones, among them, Jose and Eufrazio didn't.

Brothers of elevated Spiritual Graduation (Workers of Light) also explained that who didn't accept such help sincerely would be transferred to prison-ships and led them to other sterile Planet bound for rebel spirits.

The rebel group was anxious and didn't believe in such words. Never, they had heard about a such things! Then, the Evolved Instructor explained that Planet Earth finished more one cycle and sooner would begin a new one, where only could take part in it, those people that no more had low feelings at heart which had provoked fall and pain to the neighbor and themselves too.

The furious vampires rushed on the grating bars to avoid the place and hurt themselves. They screamed until were unconscious for long time.

They woke up inside the prison-ship, looked around and saw them still caged, but that grating of light had changed by strong material unknown.

They may join with other groups already in preparation of reincarnation at astral of sterile Planet.

The both ones who accepted help, firstly are led to Planet compatible with their vibration where submit to a specific treatment appropriate to reduce them the negative load adhered on their spirits and afterwards go to exile.

Thus it happens, daily, at this planetarium time: duel between Light and Darkness, where the rebels and cruel creatures are arrested and exiled to other orbes, similar to their vibratory characteristics.

Godofredo and his uncle were removed from dungeons, at the same time that the vampires were arrested and followed by another road.

Groups of Workers of Jesus' Army, by order of Instructors of Elevated Spiritual Hierarchy, faced and arrested several beasts of shadows and set free some prisoners, completely crazy such as Godofredo and his uncle.

The sufferer ones were under hypnotherapy at sanatorium nearby the crust where lived until were transferred to another Orbe, after fell under fair selection, where just the good wheat is sowed in the Earth and the tares are transferred compulsorily.

Jesus, the Divine Friend drives everything.

Servants of Jesus Colony redeem insane Creatures

The poor fellows Godofredo, the uncle and other sufferer spirits such as the vampires arrested, all they were led to Servants of Jesus colony which have a "Specialized Compound" bound for affording assistance to that kind of spirits.

The Spiritual Instructors working here with Extra and Intraterrestrial brothers, they settled down "complex and extraordinary laboratory" with equipments that embodied scientists have at least imagined, appropriate for treatment and recovery, at short time, of astral bodies quite deformed.

To receive that specialized treatment, it is enough to accept it freely and willingly. According with karmical merit of each one, dear Father allows that so it be, reducing so much the time to recover the human condition.

While the spiritual body is under specialized treatment, his mind is driven by advanced magnetic process, recalling positive memories and receiving instructions to his fast recovery.

They answer for their careless actions that couldn't be different, but the help received strengthens their spirits so that can face the hard collisions later.

After the internment at Medical Center, they are transferred to other ward of the Cologne. It is a type of recovering shelter. When that stage is over, with psychic and spiritual forces balanced, they are driven to compulsory reincarnation, still in the Earth or transferred to "Ships" and exiled in Planets suitable to their vibration and merit.

Those ones reincarnated compulsorily in the Earth also are exiled, though, they may inhabit a physical body again, for reducing the caustic negative load adhered in their spirits.

They reborn with bodies deformed, teratrogenically speaking, and live short time. After the return to spiritual plan, they rest some time before the exile.

For short period, they inhabit a meat body, enough for reduction of huge black mass that let them nearly materialized.

Servants of Jesus Colony have been specializing at prison area and recovering dangerous creatures. Thence, have High Credentials and Workers acting in the both plans, always receiving an appropriate training and assistance.

Due the opening of "portals of inferior astral ", liberating several negative beings, the work has multiplied. Also we are strengthened because more and more spills on us huge Energy from Sublime Jesus' Heart, upholding us.

All our workers are good at redeem brothers deserters of Divine Laws.

Servants of Jesus colony have several surprises for all you.

Save Jesus.

06. The avaricious and inhuman Jew

Gregorio, avaricious and inhuman Jew treated his employees so badly, as slaves. Bad remunerated and exploited, they worked in a filthy, fetid and dark room settled in the underground of shoes store.

One day Joaquim arrived late. He said that his wife was pregnant of six months and bleeding, he took her to First-Aid Clinic and later transferred to Maternity, where she lost the child for delay of appropriate assistance.

Joaquim, upset explained the situation to his boss and asked him a loan to pay additional charges.

The insensitive Jew, answered that couldn't help him, who as a lazy employee and wanted to deceive him. Actually, Gregorio nothing knew about his employees' life, he just wanted to exploit them, not involving with private life for not giving him expenses.

Appears other criminal

Joaquim, stunned and rioted threw on his boss the first object he had in hands, a wood carver, several times.

The tumult called attention of neighbors and Joaquim was arrested to prison.

He seemed a robot when the policemen handcuffed him.

Why had made that, he thought. And Isabel, who would take care of her now?

His wife was at hospital, not recovered yet, she was down when knew about her husband arrested and living with thieves and cruel criminals what worsened her health, she suffered a widespread infection and died ten days after Joaquim was arrested.

They didn't have other child. Joaquim was upset after his wife's death. He made turns of fury crises and deep apathy.

That miserable Jew! I would kill him thousand of times if I could, Joaquim thought, hardly disturbed.

He badly could breathe in that small and crowded cell. He felt go mad. God had abandoned him.

The subtil approach of Reptilian

By that negative mental picture, he was besieged by shady creature masked that only he own could see following his steps in the prison. That strange being always had a hood covering the body and head. The cell companions already avoided speaking to him, taken as mad man.

Once, after was besieged sexually by a boss of small cell he killed the aggressor.

Taken of horror, his cell companions avoided him more and more; despite of cruel crime, he continued in the same cell. Maybe, the police liked that situation while there was space to other prisoner.

Now, Joaquim talked with strange and hair-raising creature who asked Joaquim if had liked to feel stronger to kill his enemy. Joaquim answered that he didn't worry about anything else.

That sinister creature subdued Joaquim who changed his behavior who no more was solitary. He started getting in touch with other cruel prisoners, using drugs and take part in orgies, raping the weakest ones.

Who dared to face him was defeated and murdered at once.

He dreamt about the strange man saying that would reveal his own identity and remove the hood. His body was covered by a reptilian peel and his face looked like a gecko and Joaquim had him as old friend.

The reptilian promised him a surprise for the next two days, after a party. He said that Joaquim should kill somebody, cut the chest and draws up the heart.

Joaquim wasn't frightened and agreed. During the party with drugs and drinks at will, Joaquim was provoked by one prisoner and like wild animal, he murdered the companion, quartering his body and took his heart as had ordered that beast.

Joaquim's companions frightened him completely.

The reward promised

The Reptilian that subdued him even when was awoke, now, he promised bring him, by night a reward.

Joaquim while was sleeping left his body and saw his "friend", holding a frightened man, that inhuman Jew who Joaquim had murdered.

The Jew, recognized Joaquim, now with Beast's appearance and he fainted. He was tortured brutally by Joaquim. Prisoner at dense astral of prison, the Jew got crazy after much humiliation and torture. The years passed by until Joaquim was murdered brutally during a rebellion.

When he was at astral plan and looked at himself, he saw that had his appearance similar that "friend". It was taken of horror, because never had evaluated his own actions. He allowed to live as sleepwalker subdued by that Beast for long time.

At the present time, shaped up as reptilian and stunned he didn't know to whom appeals, what to do, how get free from that animal body. He tried removing his own skin, fell himself under strong pains.

It appears his wife's spirit

Once, by a insight of lucidity, after several unsuccessful attempts to remove his own skin, he reminded of his dear wife Isabel and cried.

Why was everything so different from his original plans? Why God had abandoned him? Thence Isabel appeared to him, not so clear.

He throw on her feet stunned and unhappy.

Isabel, who didn't love rebellions; on the contrary, life time calm; she begged the Father for helping her. She received help and already recovered, she worked to redeem his companion from that life in adversity.

Isabel explained him that God hadn't abandoned him, but he yes, had forgotten God and, thence, there was only a single road, an only chance to get free from that situation. He should ask God to help him. Only He, Almighty Father could help him.

The woman's picture disappeared as a cloud.

Joaquim cried bitterly and some minutes later, he tried to babble a prayer, but the words didn't come. He looked around and saw his "old friend", looking at him hatefully.

He closed the eyes and recited words of a prayer learned when he still was a child and in his wedding day he had recited it too.

Our father, who is in heaven...

He felt it as a balm and at the end of the prayer fell asleep and woke up in other place better than that awful prison. He thanked God and lost his senses.

Joaquim was helped by Servants of Jesus and at the moment he is under hypnotherapy and can't face the reality yet.

The Jew couldn't be helped yet. Sooner, he and other prisoners may be redeemed by servants of Jesus too.

Father's Eyes guide everybody.

Save Jesus.

07. Prejudice increases here outside

While the corrupt and guilty souls cross by borders of countries freely, the honest citizens stay prisoner of fear at home.

The prisons and penitentiaries broke the concrete walls and, the tentacles of threats and violence spread reaching the honest men. From interior of prisons, by orders of vile minds, prisoners' minds conspire against honest citizens. Each one of those prisoners has his own history. They were born of a woman's belly, as all of the free men and grew up as children of God. They became wild men due injustices suffered by terrestria and retrograde Laws. Often are seen by eyes out of walls, as aberrations that should be exterminated forever, as a terminal cancer.

It increases prejudice here outside and hate there inside.

To provoke fear means self-defense.

The brothers of shady islands don't know how behave. They see each other reared in the alley of despair.

They lost all of the hopes to recover human form again and fall under siege of shadows, deceiving them with promises of powership.

No more they know how differentiate the road. They are arrested to the cliff. Blind men guiding each other. Where do they think arrive at?

Anastacio's history

Anastacio was slave in old times. Rioted due mistreatments, he set fire to his Lord's house and died too.

New existence or reincarnation.

Now, he is a rich heir while his old lord is his employee.

He benefit his authority to exploit the employee's rights.

He kills his boss cold blooded.

He is punished for murdering.

In the prison increases his hate against injustice.

That Lord of yesterday don't humble himself.

At astral, Anastacio raged when saw his employee as old boss.

They fight, each one in his plan spreading hate and revolt. Rebellion! Fire!

Once again, Anastacio sets fire to his boss.

All of the souls somehow associate by magnetic attraction. If it doesn't happen at physical plan, for sure, it does at astral plan, or even in the both plans. Sooner or later, meet each other, victims and executioners for appropriate repair of aggression.

If the meeting happens in place appropriate to revolt and unbalance, it explodes sparkles of mortal confronts burning delinquent actions and destroying souls confronted.

Being the place is unbalanced, the Law utters for readjustment, without pardon. There is only flow of hate, viscous inferior feeling, by same devastating magnetic attraction, the inferior forces join and threw over those men piled up in prisons.

There is no divine injustice, and yes, human imprudence.

Anastacio, the slave, still keep at practicing avenge against his Lord, by means of rebellions in the prisons, as you know.

08. Don't judge the neighbor: Help him

Antwerp's mother died while he was born. She grow up alone; her father always blamed her due his precocious widowhood.

The trafficker's arms guides her. Prostitute, used drugs and was punished for vagrancy. She hated herself of having caused her mother's death. She sets fire to mattresses of FEBEM (Welfare Institution for infractors adolescents). Alone, she tries to avoid the prison and dies. That event is showed on TV as follows:

"Rebellion with death in FEBEM" enlarge statistics of government.

Each creature is a spark of God. All they are brothers. The stronger shall help the weakest one, so that don't have deaths and fruitless remorse ahead of the time.

Antwerp's Father alone cries due his live in adversity. Remorse corrode him. If he had protected and loved his daughter, he wouldn't have sentenced her to that vile life. He lost a chance to his own upgrowth and contributed to spread shadows of revolt.

There is no injustice. There is correction for wrong actions.

The man can't judge the neighbor and, yes, help him.

Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, 20/01/06

09. The ill-nature slide into Beast

Juliana, poor ugly duckling.

Rich girl, the friends make fun of her.

She meets Oswald. Poor and ambitious boy. He fall in love with her interested on her money. He plans to murder his wife and inherit her fortune.

He didn't murder her secretly. He was discovered in the act of homicide and arrested to punishment prison, as dangerous prisoner.

In the prison, he prepared a command of righteous men, provoking rebellions and murdering prisoners.

He becomes wild man, not by chance, due his own ill-nature.

Evil spirit from shady areas of astral, he accepted new reincarnation in the matter, helped by his wife's spirit to redeem him from shadows. Nevertheless, he doesn't recover and delays his ascense and more distant from his wife.

Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, 20/01/06

10. Pirulito and Joaquim, yesterday, partners; today enemies rivals

Just as Explanation

The hapless creatures wander over astral plan. They suffered violent death, after had lived much disorder in the Earth and at invisible plan.

They arrived stunned at astral plan. Not even have left the physical body, were subdued by Darkness together with connections lived in the matter. They are still arrested unconscious to big caverns, where are selected accordingly to their bad habits and crimes practiced, and later addressed to activities they need, thenceforth.

Those souls had no religion, while were embodied or only interested on walking with Bible under the arm, disguising the ignominy. They didn't believe in God and were usually open for evil influences. At astral, enslaved, they execute the orders of shadows and can't connect the ideas as a whole.

The criminal factions of astral plan multiply, forming ghettos, where inhabit disorder and violence.

When the criminals arrive at prisons, at astral plan, they are already strongly subdued by small group of bad bosses and obedient slaves and the other enemies chasing the offender ones.

The invisible population living in prisons, often are larger than embodied ones there. The invisible group also have insane and murderous souls out of prisons, seeking accomplices for new taskworks.

Clairvoyance: Attempt of Attack

There is a break of this message and I feel a vibratory fall. I see a dark being dressing in hood and black layer, floating close Shelter Sevants of Jesus (ASJ) getting in main door.

His eyes twinkles when sees in the dining room, the shield lit of GFBU (Great Universal White Fraternity). He throws a black arrow against the shield to destroy it. At once, the shield throws back a light ray transforming the arrow into ashes.

He shaped us as a black bird and ran away.

Again the message restarts, briefly and was interrupted again.

That creature comes again with some accomplices. At this time, appear some intraterrestrial brothers from a bed of medicinal plants, near to ASJ. (Some beds form a "dimensional portal" to Stelta, intraterrestrial city). They turn on the shield around ASJ, increasing at speed and power.

The enemies await outside the exact moment to invade the place. But the shield at high speed suck them at once.

When the meeting was over, I was taken to same place where they were furious caged. The boss, that creature masked was Reptilian.

Afterwards the message goes on:

The lovers' couple

Joaquim wakes up with soft breeze touching his face. He opens the eyes and sees Joanita beside him who smiles happy.

She was wife of his friend Pirulito, "boss of traffic in the slum". At once, he fell in love with that polite and different of sarcastic girls of slum.

They moved to another slum, far from where they lived before. He was sure they were wanted ferociously by his rival. He only wanted to benefit the whole happiness possible with his girlfriend.

Tragedy and death

Pirulito, furious beat the whole slums of Rio de Janeiro looking for his girlfriend and her affair. He had safe information where the traitors were hidden.

He and his partners surrounded the house in which lived his traitors.

That seemed a war invaded by infernal shooting. The neighbors ran at home before the first agitation sign.

They shot and set fire to that house and the couple died together.

The police arrived at the place and have more shooting. Pirulito was arrested with some accomplices.

Joaquim woke up dizzy. He thought had died. He was wounded and crawled. Where was he? Which was that dark place? He felt hurt but alive. Where was his girlfriend? He didn't find her. He hear somebody screaming him hatefully. He saw Pirulito staring him hateful. He was king size. - Who were those creatures with him? - Maybe animals, gorillas. Or people? He saw himself dragged by that group. He didn't know where was, maybe in the prison. He couldn't get free. He had been tortured, several times and fainted.

Pirulito, prisoner, only thought on the traitor.

Besieged by vampires

Pirulito still has nightmares. His spirit unfolds while sleeping. A sinister creature approaches and says that would help him to find the traitor and, as reward, use his body to communicate with some people.

Pirulito doesn't understand how it is possible.

- Don't mind, I'll let you know - the stranger says.

Pirulito begins to dream that he own arrested Joaquim and torture him every night. He is happy with the news.

The prisoners and cell companions see Pirulito having strange behavior. He is more violent and sanguinary now. A day before, he killed a companion and drank his blood. All had feared him. Pirulito, slowly, became a vampire.

Later on, Pirulito was murdered brutally in the prison cell and began to disturb the other minds at physical plan, as well as, he have done when embodied.

Pirulito and Joaquim and other spirits were redeemed from prison to cel hospital, at astral plan and exiled.

Thousands of souls in a such condition inhabit astral plan and also thousands of embodied ones may arrive at same situation.

They don't believe in God nor pardon whereas, only vile feelings supply them. Withstand the Light, they prefer live in Darkness. To awake them lasts long time, though Eternity doesn't end, when worn out, may remember that are children of Light and only to Creator ought to follow.

Ranieri Matias, 11/02/06

11. Ademar's Compulsory reincarnation

The stains adhered on spiritual body of that criminal become magnetic and visible vibrationally in middle of turbulent atmosphere where Ademar lives, fell under perverse entities wandering and chasing candidates for awful actions and experiences.

Thus happened to Ademar, in debt spirit who went down to matter for calvary of fights He and old accomplices that had composed his family are redeemed now.

Since he was born began live in adversity. His mother died during his birth. He was the seventh son of poor family in the slum, created and subsisted over helping of some neighbors. Ademar and his brothers grew up because their survival instincts always spoke louder. His father, upset after his wife's death, faithlessness fell a pray to drink and subsisted over little tasks, once in a while.

The slum where he was born, taken as one most violent and the drug traffic every day stronger spread the tentacles over children and adolescents.

Ademar, "deliverer" of drugs

Ademar was arrested by his faithlessness, deliveryng drugs, as by-pass of traffic between slum and asphalt.

The first time he went downtown he was fascinated with sky-scrappers and, even young, he promised to himself, the poverty would end. He would be rich and powerful, get cars and apartments and one of those wonderful buildings would belong him.

Earlier, at 15 years old, he already was good at shoting and stealing with gangs and had already hurt a man at gas station.

His brothers hated him. By other hand, among his accomplices he was taken as hero. The boss always applauded and gave him missions more and more dangerous.

He only had primary school, and not even knew how reading and writing. It's meaningless! he was good at gambling and traffic "business". He started using drugs, while was adolescent. Bad boy of slum was known and courageous.

Prision in the Reformatory

When he was 16 years old, at first time, he and other accomplices were punished for stealing a store equipped with alarm system linked to police station.

Never he had seen a such place like that reformatory. He always lived away and to be arrested was even a torture. He promised to escape the law and never prison.

Soon he provoked a rebellion, setting fire to mattresses and at meantime many adolescents ran away.

Ademar is free again. He met the big boss of slum and said that, he own, wanted the leadership of small gang composed of old friends and others known in the reformatory. The boss chose some area of slum and introduces him some rich adolescents to welcome him downtown.

Free again!

Thenceforth, he began take part in parties of middle class, delivering drugs coming from slum and soon was important by-pass between the slum and the asphalt.

At the moment, Ademar has imported cars stolen and inhabit empty apartments invaded. He hates prison and loves his freedom. To live at reformatory made him decide that he could die, never as prisoner again.

Finally, he was boss of traffic. At his 21 years old, he was already old user of drugs, cold and cruel with accomplices traitors. He committed kidnappings, tortures and murdering the victims, even whom had redeemed him. He took the old boss's place, murdered. He had a long criminal record. The police didn't dare to arrest him, danger had special protection and always escaped the law without be notice.

It was Saturday afternoon, when he prepared a "party" in one of his strongholds and was wanted by policemen. He tried to run away, but his efforts proved useless. He didn't want to die, but also prison caused him panic.

He went to a "prison of strong safety". He made fun of the place, while noticed the place. He and his accomplices benefit a visitors day, taken the latter ones as hostages and soon ran away. At the moment, he is wanted by police for murdering of policeman, while escapee. After that attempt, in order that keep alive, he was arrested again to single cell, where was tortured, ever and again.

He died in the prison, without nobody searching for his body. The family, since long time had abandoned him and his accomplices were prisoners too.

He was buried as indigent.

Disembodied spirit is big boss again

Ademar, not even had left his body and was already dragged by a shady group awaiting him at beyond-grave. When aware of new situation, he looked around and recognized those deformed spirits close him as old accomplices of last physical existence and the other ones whom looked him familiar, later recognized them as accomplices that, like him, for centuries crawled in shadows of delinquency and crime.

Now he remembered of his "boss" there. He had been dragged compulsorily to matter and, while reminding of that, hated the Evolved Beings whom had induced him to that fight in the earth. But, he smiled, when knew that now, he was stronger and also his gang had increased.

After have lived some days there, already balanced, he was leader again, which against his will had given up.

He hated the police that had arrested him to that libertinism and addictions. Thenceforth, his daily routine would only disturb the police. He would join with "those" that, of beyond of life, commanded the prisons. He looked for his old accomplice, leader of gang of rampagers, that eased their arrival at prison where had died. After some meetings, he was right that by night the "boss of prison" would receive him. Happy, he notice that already knew him and formed a partnership with criminal factions of prisoners and prepared the banquet to satiate their low instincts and order murders of policemen and escapes the law.

Exiled Again

Ademar was spirit declined of old Planet because didn't reach high vibrations, followed the evolution of his original Planet for more one planetary cycle. Once again he was deportee from Planet Earth.

He was chosen by "Reptilians" interested on his warlike spirit, to recruit more followers. He felt powerful and already has wild appearance.

The human creatures embodied now in the Earth open hearts and minds for perverse influences of dark beings such as Ademar and thence are led to exile purifier.

The itinerary of love and pardon uttered by Jesus is known by all of the creatures, who may choose own road to go ahead. The fall to abyss is voluntary. Loving Instructors and Guardians endeavour at most so that their pupils hear their appeals.

The wrong choice of road to proceed, lead them direct to "prison-ships". Here, in this Planet, times is up for more falls, because there won't be other incarnations. Thence new lessons are learned through the exile.

Jesus helps us lovingly.

Thousands of souls such as Ademar going down to matter, stand a chance to choose the right road and throw the opportunity away. The majority are exiled in Planet compatible with their low instincts and merit.

Divine Justice offers resources for correction of offenders of Law. Who doesn't benefit them, the fair and magnanimous Law send the lazy student to other school.

Save the Liberating Force of Love.

Ranieri Matias, 17/02/06

12. He feels safe in prisons

Deusiderio was the vice commander and followed up the tortures so that could prepare the report. Usually, executed the macabre ritual just for pleasure to hear screams of people tortured and feel the smell of blood.

He had been butcher and was used cutting the meat. He was punished for murdering a woman with fishwife blows, quatering her body.

He knew that could die at once and didn't worry. He was feared because of bad blood he treated his victims. In the prison he felt well. He could practice his cruelty under the police's eyes. He hadn't remorse for anything he had done. The policemen knew his sanguinary instincts and nothing did to stop.

Deusiderio felt safe at prison. Embodied spirit of abysmal areas, he had his last chance in the Earth as vampire and have to wear away his instincts at sterile Planet hereafter.

Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, 27/01/06

13. Not always: "Like father, Like son"

Homero was born in a golden cradle. Due his lazy and ill-nature, since early, he didn't respect the oldest people and at home had already stolen objects of value for payment of drugs.

By fits and starts, he attended at University of Law but chose easy life, once and for all, despite of his afflicted parents' appeals, so that, at least, he could take a diploma. Aware of his ill nature, they could imagine his black future and sadness for his relatives.

He gave up his family to take part in criminal faction of slum near to a rich place. When he was was out of money, he visited his family for stealing them.

Relax old man! Police don't reach me!

Antero, the father, lived upset and didn't understand his rebel son who could have everything and chose strenuous work. What was wrong? He thought daily.

Never Homero had been a tender child nor his father tamed his single son, his father expected he could take a diploma of odontology clinic; but not even the University of Law he concluded. Which future he could have in the slum?

Once, he asked him the reason to be like this and Homero, making fun of him, answered that life of adventures and adrenaline at high speed fascinated him. He thought his son was drugged when said:

Calm down old man! Police don't reach me!

Antero knew that sooner or later he would be called to recognize his son's body at mortuary, because he had already been arrested twice and ran away.

Homero hated to fall under his father and go to school. He was born for adventures full of heroine. Taking part in traffickers' gang and boss's friend, he could use drugs at will.

He hated prisons crowded with all types of creatures.

While he was under that inhuman life, he was about sorry for not have attended the University to allow him special prison. Now it was too late.

His thoughts stopped due creams and shots of police was invading the slum.

- Why I chose this life in adversity? - he thought at meantime.

Again he was arrested and several accomplices murdered during that tumult.

Sexual siege in the prison

Homero, beautiful man didn't avoid of being besieged sexually by order of boss. He hated that situation, but couldn't react or would die, what he didn't.

During nocturnal orgies, there was many drug and drink in the prison, brought by visitors, hidden among of clothes, domestic utensils, electronic apparels and other several ways of penetrating into prison "foods of first need", as regard drinks and drugs. Often, out of reality and was exploited sexually by many cell companions.

His parents got him a lawyer, but his situation was serious because had already escape the law before.

Macabre and fearful nightmares

He began having strange nightmares. He saw himself seduced by brute man, later shaped up as monster, half man, half animal injecting substances in his body. The monster wanted his body. Later on, he was sick seriously, not SIDA and his skin changed of color. Often was taken to hospital, what was a balm, far from that awful prison.

The strange dreams continued ever and again and that "ghost" still injected several substances in his body. All his efforts proved useless to avoid that situation.

When he told the doctor about his nightmares, that said he suffered hallucination, due the usage of drugs.

He lived that awful situation until something more terrible happened. He dreamt about himself as big size animal.

He was taken as crazy, because of his wild screams terrifying the companions.

When no more support that life in adversity he committed suicide in the prison.

When his astral body was free of physical body, the beast that had arrested him still alive, left him to a cell similar that at physical plan.

No more he had human body nor the nightmare finished, on the contrary, his pain was thousands of times stronger, the nightmares didn't stop and often he revived his own suicide. He still inhabited same prison where had died and was used by perverse beings that incited him to disturb the other prisoners.

Some years after his death, mad and unconscious, he was redeemed by invisible Aid Team.

Insane experiences developed by Reptilians

Two reptilians scientists dialogue and I heard as follows:

- "Our experiences are unsuccessfully. We have to discover what is wrong for dematerialization of mankind because we are at loss of many guinea pigs.

- I believe that is little collaboration of "human beasts" at work. We want their bodies and we have enough human raw material supplying energy for our equipments. As much more hate, wars, fights and blood; fear, terror, rebellions and so on have in this military area, better operate our machines."

Clairvoyance: I see a "Laboratory" of Reptilians in the prison. Our Spiritual Instructor explains:

Reptilians get in touch with their preys while are sleeping. They disguise as humans for first contacts and later, already "friends", take the poor fellows for macabre experiences, at attempt of dematerializing the body and later materialize them, once and for all, at physical plan or develop methods to stand a chance of reborn as human beings in the matter.

Note: The reptilians have advanced scientific and technological knowhow and can materialize at physical plan as wanted.

Their experiences cause pains and merciless sufferings to unhappy preys in their hands, seduced by proposals of easy pleasures, drugs and powership. Exchanged with strong nets, those hapless and faithless creatures are attracted easily serving as guinea pigs for abominable Beasts.

The prisons are full of experiments. Often, bad habits of embodied ones let them vulnerable to siege of Beasts such as Homero, worn out by drugs.

Those Beasts strenghten more and more, supposing them able to subdue the whole world, exterminate and change the human race at their convenience. They multiply the laboratories in the Planet, improving their terrible experiences, always searching for a formula to create new race of mutant and overbearing beings.

As well as mankind seeks youth's source, without sucess, also Reptilians seek the cornstone to reborn in the Earth.

At that meantime, deceived due increment of low energy supplying them at astral plan, they multiply efforts over tragic experiences with neglectful human beings, exposing themselves more and more withstand God's Moral Laws.

At each prison throughout this Planet, they settle macabre laboratories to reach the objective. Thus, they increase the burning of negative karma they have in hands.

Homero, fell under traumatic experiences and exiled to Planet suitable to his vibrations, softened by scathing sufferings and removing black mass adhered to his spiritual body. He needs a lot of existences to restore his mind again. Strong physical disturbances must afflict him, for hundreds of existences, taming his ill-nature.

Why, brothers of mine, to travel by a such painful road and be hurt by those poisonous thorns, if there's other road offered by Almighty, full of Love, watered by Sublime Jesus' lessons?

Wake up brothers, ahead of the time that strong torrent of pains and sufferings arrest you for painful exile at sterile and inhospitable Planet, whereas, you live surrounded with beasts which you own looked for them.

Be sure that you are able to build up a better world. Begin by yourself the necessary change for construction of new world with abundance of evolved feelings, peace, fraternity and union among of the creatures.

Each creature lives as deserves and necessary to his own upgrowth. Most of embodied souls, for the time being, are anesthetized by primitive instincts and choose road of fast pleasures and material goods, projecting a future of darkness and pains.

Wake up brothers, while having lucid mind and physical body, offering you chances of progress. Avoid ambushes of shadows attracting you to abyss that no more may be in the Earth, but in some inferior Planet.

All low feeling connect you to shady beings forming strong ties.

Why do you prefer more Darkness than Light for renewal and progress?

The chances finished in this Planet.

Reptilians together with embodied ones live the last moments in the Earth. Those faithless people may live long time on sinister valleys necessary to retake the human characteristics as we are at the moment, who suffer, cry and love.

He who faithless about our words, take a look where lives, and before human fury avoiding his freedom and imposing him fear, he'll know where is the truth.

There is only a road driving us to Jesus.

To follow it, it's enough to practice the sublime lessons of Master Jesus.

Ranieri Matias, 24/02/06

14. Adelaide and her low life

Clairvoyance: I see a prison cell, where was a woman stand up near to the grate. She looked at outside upset and thoughtfully.

It wasn't about time for her baby's birth yet, but Adelaide already suffered anguish at heart about the future of her baby.

Usually, she recalled memories from her own childhood, when could run free along of the without pavement streets in the countryside where was born.

Farmers' daughter, Adelaide was the ninth of twelve children. Her parents had little time to take care of her thence she was cared by her sisters.

Who takes care of my baby?

My baby shall be free, she thought. Who takes care of him? Would he also be live in adversity later?

Life time she lived unlike of many other girls she knew. Even so young, she knew men and guided by her oldest sister, she learned how benefit that life, using her intelligence subtly and also the own body when necessary. She supposed able to withstand the world and stand a chance for wealth and luxury life, until she had met a different man.

Often, her mother recriminated her way of dressing and behavior. Even humble and poor, Maria Jose was a honest woman, but all the efforts proved useless to tame her children, created by the oldest daughter.

Jonas, Adelaide's boyfriend

At the beginning, handsome and polite, Jonas knew that Adelaide could be useful for his kidnapping plans. Her good appearance passed herself off as honest girl and, when was dressing well could earn some money.

Thenceforth, they began stealing banks and electronic boxes. She liked that challenge and, attracted for easy money, she accepted follow his boyfriend.

At astral plan, her mother already as disembodied spirits, tried at high costs to deviate her from such ideas, but, as always, without success.

Maria Jose supposed her daughter's future would be tragic, whereas, she could notice at astral plan, dark entities surrounding her boyfriend.

The bell sounds strident announcing some meal. Adelaide slipped her memories and went to dining room, always watched by policemen.

The food was so bad, but she couldn't avoid it or would starve along of the day. The meal reminded of dirty water. In spite of everything, the food was good at home when compared to that cell in which she lived.

The nightmares disturbed her on and on. To think about her child's future was her daily routine. Best should be die together with him.

One day, taken by those ideas, she thought: If I die, everything is over. To live here means to be dead. Thence I kill him too. For sure, if he knew what I plan to do, he would be thankful to me for saving him from larger sufferings and pains in the future.

Within her uterus, through a clean light, the spiritual instructor could see a little baby nearly undernourished. The lack of good food for that mother acted negatively over the baby's upgrowth. He was anxious because of his mother's morbid thoughts.

Poor child, how much suffering even before be born!

She decided to commit suicide

Outside of the cell, the people's movement was restrict; few visitors made Adelaide's life still more empty hapless.

She was sure that could finish that torment and began how to render concrete her plans. If the rests of foods weren't collected at once, she could let them it be rotten eat them later.

No tool there was useful as lethal weapon. If at least she had a mirror piece, she would have the pulses cut.

Taken by those thoughts, never Adelaide supposed that there was a spectrum of reptilian tied to her mind to subdue her and thence get large load of vital fluid: a young woman and her child at fetal state would be a good meal.

Other entities attacked her inciting heavy load of low feelings and thoughts, increasing more and more her anxiety. Everything due her faithlessness and sadness.

In addition to many entities surrounding her and the cell companions didn't help her either. The latter ones only told her on abortion histories, rape and death of women there and that there wasn't place in the world for a worthy, decent and happy life.

My brothers, no one of this Planet or any other part of universe may deny to children of God, the balm of hopes that, whenever is possible, shall be offered lovingly for each one creature, mainly who falls under spiritual state of despair and pains.

Believe that always have a solution for who falls in mistakes, able to strengthen him and stand a chance to go ahead better than before.

Unhappily those minds full of vile thoughts, spill on his hapless neighbor the fictitious determinism of falls and faults.

Who was that reincarnating spirit ?

- Who was Adelaide's son?

Luiz, Adelaide's son, who survive hardly inside her womb, was a spirit extremely debtor, answering for long moral delay of whom would receive him as son now.

If he was born, he would pick the results for his own negligence in preparation, instruction and orientation of whom, for several existences had been his daughter.

Five consecutive existences put those spirits joined by sacred ties of motherhood and fatherhood, by turns of incarnations. The current mother had been his mother beforetime, and the current baby had been his father.

Now, he had already suffered to much even before he was born. Living in his mother's womb, he was also fell under Law of Cause and Effect, putting together creatures of same energy and finding them wherever they were.

Adelaide kept at planning her suicide. She asked the cell maid one chair to sit down near to the opening of fresh air and also a blanket for cold night.

Like a film, she recalled memories of hard moral fights and torments, since her first pregnancy, when her boyfriend had suggested abortion as the best solution, so that they could live aways, as always.

Even disappointed with her boyfriend who loved her, on the other hand, touched by that being's presence in her womb, she didn't abort the child. (See note as follows)

Note from Spiritual Author: The presence of a friend or enemy connected with the astral uterus of a woman, happens as a psychical detonator of changes necessary for the upgrowth of those creatures involved. The troubles originated reveal old memories, bringing to current life, a large load of feelings to be adjusted hereafter.

All the steps for an incarnation, since gestation, growth until the end of first childhood, everything is followed up by "experts in high-tech of reincarnation".

Everything that had been planned runs risk of interruption and waste of energy, time and work bound for readjustment of those hapless souls.

Partly, Adelaide answered for that situation, when she was punished for murdering, and later on due to inhuman assistance offered to pregnant women in the prison, when she should receive special care.

Aborted twice

Adelaide provoked abortion, at the fifth month of pregnancy. Free from that uncomfortable presence, she swore no more to become pregnant again.

Later on, even carefully, Adelaide was pregnant again while the crimes demanded her much physical efforts in addition to organic condition and, again Luiz saw frustrated his attempt to be reborn.

To avoid the risk of pregnancy, Adelaide began to drink teas and other drinks produced by an old lady, her neighbor.

The human being ignores the karmical power that despite of all attempts of that woman, she provoked new coupling of Luiz's spirit already suffered and weakened in that astral uterus due to the hard mental load of rejection of motherhood.

Motherhood! Sublime feminine task to stand a chance to birth and blooming of life and redemption chance!

Stunned due to her third pregnancy, without believing what was wrong, Adelaide seemed to hear his son's spirit saying: you have to accept me, thence she accepted the pregnancy, even with all conflict of feelings spilled on her mind.

The assault

At the moment, Adelaide and her husband take part in a gang of five people; she was the only woman serving sexually to many men. Thence, she didn't know who was her son's father. Otherwise, they planned assaulting banks, where she served as bait to bank policeman, the target of that action and she was anxious.

By spiritual side, her mother asked her to give up such life and take care of her child.

The obstinacy on greed and luxury involved Adelaide's mind with thick layers avoiding the loving influence from her mother and provoking that disturbance.

For sure, that should be the last crime. Divine Providence favored the policeman's action avoiding the crime and three of five thieves were arrested to punishment and among the both escapees was Adelaide's husband.

The suicide

She was sent to House of Detention and was awaiting judgement. At that meantime nothing more interested her and decided to commit suicide, once and for all.

In the night, while her companions were sleeping, Adelaide, using the chair, tied the blanket to the grating bars and around her neck and committed suicide.

Sure that she and the child should be free forever, Adelaide, jumped and lasted some minutes to die for want of oxygenation.

Not even she had left the physical body, the vampires, previously recruited invaded the prison cell and jumped over her body anxious for big banquet.

Soon after the macabre action, under spiritual vision, she witnessed the party of vampires, screaming and giving her nerves. With a last tremor of body was extinguished the sparkle of that young woman and, some minutes later, also her baby in her uterus.

In the morning, when retaking the activities in the cells, the cell maid found Adelaide's body inert hung up for asphyxia. The cell companions, some frightened and other ones indifferent, looked at that awful scene, imagining how should be their own end.

Searching for freedom by means of death, Adelaide was hardly magnetized by terror and hate by her executioners. More prisoner than before, now, she restart new life full of pains again.

15. Abelardo, violent policeman

Abelardo was a violent policeman who after several troubles caused to his Corporation, he moved from streets where made patrolling and occurrences to House of Detention, where accordingly to his superior bosses, he could be more useful watching dangerous prisoners. If he practiced violence there, wouldn't bring them troubles, whereas, the prisoners, most of time haven't to whom appeals when were tortured.

Abelardo didn't mind nor had any other choice. He had been excessively violent with an adolescent arrested in the act due traffic of drugs in the slum. The boy died even before arriving at the police station. The superior bosses didn't want to expose himself, whereas, they had already enough troubles with population and means of communication. In the prison, Abelardo could wear away his violent temper.

As many other friends, he became trafficker

Despite of being feared by prisoners, he also was corrupted by traffic, that could offer him new way of life. His salary was short and his wife always inconvenienced him.

The bosses of traffic knew how seducing a person "out of money" like him. It was enough to put some dollars in his hand so that he moved to the other side at once.

Abelardo eased the arrival of drugs in the prison while his friends and policemen closed the eyes to traffic there and often took part in that net too.

Abelardo lived away after one year at work, his profits increased and his wife was calm, even a lover he had.

Once, one boss prisoner and a accomplice told Abelardo about rebellion and needed make easy some escapees for important businesses "outside."

Abelardo trembled. One thing was living at costs of those terrible prisoners, good for nothing, and he only eased the arrival of drugs in the prison. If they wanted drug, was their business. To open the prison cell for them could be dangerous to him.

The policeman at least couldn't imagine their future, when chose the traffic. For sure, the bosses didn't want Abelardo's help. They wanted only to test him, and later offer him high position in the traffic net. Abelardo was the person they wanted for dangerous actions, inside and out of prison, thence he should be tested firstly.

He went search wool and left shorn

Abelardo didn't understand the alert sounding in his hear. He pretended to accept the traffickers' proposal. After prepared the plans, the rebellion began with gangs rebelled due mistreatments and prisons overcrowded. It was just a facade. That poverty life in that shady island no more disturbed them. They had dominance over that place with corroboration of own police.

They set fire to mattresses, arrested hostages, rush and faced the police.

While the tumult near to the prison called attention of means of communication and local people, at the bottoms, the thieves escaped the law without be noticed.

Nevertheless, Abelardo didn't like prisoners nor wanted see that scoria as escapees. He informed to Superior Command that there would be rebellion and escapees. All set ready, the plan continued and Abelardo pretended to help his accomplices.

As well as had planned, he went to the place established to help the escapees. He didn't intend executing order and yes, eliminate those thieves. When he arrived there, the escapees were already far from there police of higher command was awaiting him there. They stared him anxious and he asked what was happening. The answer was a shot in his forehead.

The next headline on the newspapers was: "Rebellion, death of policemen and escapees prisoners".

That couldn't be avoided, sooner or later, overflow prisoners by walls of prisons, in addition to own police taking part in crimes too.

Policemen without good salaries and training, living at slums commanded by traffickers of prisons. They are usually vulnerable to falls moral and don't avoid force of evil; they fell under material appeal and are corrupted too.

The whole system is fragile since constructions and unprepared servants to overstrain.

Abelardo wakes up shaky at other dimension. He sees himself as prisoner in a punishment cell that never had seen and subdued by creatures like demon. He got crazy without understand that scenario.

The humanity walk for blind alley

If had higher moral condition of whom monitore the prisons, the situation even so precarious could be controlled. It isn't enough brute force to contain the evil. Above all, only moral force is more important and in addition to many policeman act as were in place of prisoners corrupted by criminals too.

Before a such disarray, only from High comes fair correction, whereas, the terrestrial people and legal authorities, no more are able to control the negative waves in full swing nor expansion of evil beyond the illusory walls of prison.

The authorities are silent. The few honest men aware of a such danger happening at the present, they know that little or nothing can be done.

The prisoners supply themselves with negative force for their evil enterprises. No more, there is control and are easened by "Darkness!" to satiate their addictions.

They are true robots of Darkness!

Often upset due bad habits are subdued by darkness.

Which chances for deliquent adolescents inside and outside of prisons? Nothing! They don't glimpse any future such as: upgrowth, money, home, leisure, if not by means of crimes. At the present, the prison doesn't fear them anymore; the prisoners keep at practicing the same crimes, maybe with larger profits.

Impunity incites the hapless ones to the crime; there is no punishment nor reduce the criminal action.

The humanity walks for a blind alley ending at deep black and cold abyss. There, the starving beasts await fall of incautious ones to devour them.

Brothers, the matter is good for nothing. It's just a life-style for immortal spirit.

Don't condemn your spirits to painful sufferings because of promiscuous worship to perishable and useless matter.

By behind of all unballanced human actions have vile creatures, stimulating crimes, addictions, hate and so on. They live on energies from blood, fear and terror got during confrontations.

All evil action, supplies and increases dominance of Darkness over you, faithless people to Divine Laws and Jesus.

You answer for your own actions and must pick bitter fruits.

Ranieri Matias, 17/03/06

16. Gangster by inheritance

Clairvoyance: I saw an assault happening in a convenience store by three thieves. They were hooded, armed and attacked hardly the people there. At hat meantime, before the end of assault, one of them fell on the ground and the other ones ran away by main door.

Adamastor was taken as hero in the slum. Early his father noticed his inclination for leadership, when he used practicing little crimes, along of years inhabiting slums. Claudio, his father, prepared the son to be a criminal. Thence, proudly applauded the illicit activities practiced by son. Father and son loved each other.

The first fights happened since the first childhood when Adamastor defeated some of his friends. Everything was reason for discussions and duels to wear away his ill-temper.

His mother, young and shamy, didn't like that situation and also didn't withstand her husband. All her efforts proved useless to make him tender and polite boy.

The toy weapons, belligerent games and fighting histories about the traffickers and policemen incited Adamastor to be a hero in the slum. The world, to him, was perverse and conspired against helpless creatures.

As "army of salvation" wanted to withstand Laws imposed by residents of asphalt (from city). For that reason, it was necessary to be supplied with heavy armaments, appropriate training and so on.

Holdup

Thus thought Adamastor, twenty five years old, our young character of crime. Boss of "organization of traffic" in his slum, he planned several assaults to earn much money as he wanted since he was a child.

Claudio was proud on his son; the mother no more wanted other child. For her only daughter, she offered all love possible that couldn't offer to Adamastor.

In that day, as usual, the three thieves met for some ritual before starting the crimes: they talked about the last events that had made victims among of their friends, relatives and the other people of slums and also spilled hate over the police that raised difficulties to their actions.

Once they fell into hate due overdose eased dialogue with invisible world.

At other side of life, spirits skilled at infernal caves (see note 3 bellow) disturbed their minds evil thoughts.

(3) Note from Spiritual author: infernal caves are places of inferior astral. Thus are called due the natural openings of rocks where dark spirits settle down training and preparation centers for helpless spirits bound for acting side by side with embodied ones, through explosive combination of crimes, drugs and violence.

The strong and appropriate training has supplied that group of obsessors, dominance over their minds, transmitting to embodied ones, force, agility, daring, coldness and violence.

After session of drugs, the three friends went down the hill to "face a real", in a word, to practice an assault.

They identified the little supermarket or a convenience store as target where had only two electronic boxes, but was the only commercial point of that place. Despite of little income, also the risk was the least possible, because of strategies used to avoid violence, at that moment.

Everything was all right, but, in the middle of operation, Adamastor, so excited due overdose of cocaine and adrenaline in his blood, he suffered a convulsion crisis.

From convulsion to prison

The accomplices, afraid of that situation and without boss ran away, leaving Adamastor behind shaking his body on the ground. Time enough so that the police arrived and arrested our character to prison.

Judging that convulsion as contagious disease, the boy was checked superficially and unconscious taken to police wagon.

He suffered serious disease because of dirt and hot transport, usage of drugs and without appropriate medical assistance and became human rag.

No more Adamastor could ratiocinate as before, he babbled words due lesions in his brain and lost physiologic control and usually was always dirty and stunk.

The physical and mental conditions took him to Judiciary Insane asylum. Without his documents and insane, Adamastor never again met his relatives. They made long pilgrimages searching for him and soon back out supposing that, probably, he was already dead and buried as indigent.

Far away from his family and where had grown up and, worn out, our character upset attracted old invisible accomplices who talked as follows:

- He can't give up. So much time we spent to this foolish one, and now, does he go back?

- No, it's meaningless!

- Let's revive him to catch our thoughts and execute our orders at once.

Nor everything was lost

Thenceforth, the spirits at high costs of discipline and mental energy, they recovered the old trafficker and burglar.

Soon he called the attention of professionals of that insane asylum when noticed the patient had recovered his mental capacity. They couldn't at least imagine that by behind that alive mind, there was treads of ectoplasm driving him as marionette, by two entities of awful appearance.

Adamastor was transferred for punishment prison after countless attempts to avoid the prison and murders of companions in that asylum.

In the prison, soon he got in touch with traffickers to know the daily routine regarding flow of drugs, the main bosses of drugs inside of prison and so on.

Little by little, helped by new accomplices, disembodied spirits, Adamastor recovered his perspicacity and courage of beforetime, retaking his high place in "organized traffic" in the prisons.

Insights of lucidity

Seldom a nostalgic breeze invaded his heart recalling memories from slum, about brief insights of tenderness he lived with his mother and sister. Uring that short minutes invaded him Forces of Divine Love, when Evolved Spiritual Brothers, at distance, they irradiated good vibrations inside of cages, overcrowded of prisoners.

For many people, sounds strange we describe over a prisoner's life, but believe that, who depends on your old penitentiary compound, one day they were children driven by adult hands and minds that should point them out the roads for healthy life.

Taken to punishment prisons together with perverse minds, quickly, Adamastor reached high graduation among of the prisoners due his leadership.

In short time, he formed his gang with accomplices of crime and resources to weapons and ammunition and small army to set him free and thence he could clean out his low instincts.

Under command of Darkness

Adamastor at least imagined his plans were supplied by perverse enemies.

As well as Adamastor was seen at physical plan, also at astral, the two dark spirits attracted near them and that pupil, countless spiritual entities without any trace, even distant of his remainder humanity.

While the prisoners were sleeping, they disturbed the less violent ones. Those sexually perverted were exploited daily satiating the invisible executioners doubly. The most violent and vampires, by order of tutors, incited rebellions, fights and after sucked the energies. Those that avoided sexual orgies at astral plan of prisons searched for faithless women that, while slept, wandered seeking satisfaction of wild desires.

The spirits more prepared and good at vampiric techniques, when found a good source of energy from embodied and insane person, they were magnetized sucking their energies more and more until the victim had nothing else to offer them.

Before the first signs that embodied could suffer any physical disease, the dark spirit abandoned him at once and sought other source of energy.

Only the foolish ones believe that iron bars, automatic systems and modern locks can contain the crazy fury of spirits good at stealing precious energies to render concrete their revenge plans.

Adamastor's body was arrested in a prison while his spirit was free as a bird and taken everywhere wanted his friends. He learned new strategies, drew up a programme and satiated his pleasures in brothels and nightclubs "of heavy" his needs of drugs, sex and drinks.

Arrangements for rebellion

The old gang of Adamastor was stronger with adhesion of new followers disturbing the different factions.

It was formed a dense cloud of spirits and was about to explode rebellion among of those gangs.

Adamastor's boss always distrustful, he began to bribe policemen with money of traffic in the prison, so that they allowed arrival of weapons and other objects.

After few weeks, they had many followers armed and supplied with energy sucked from faithless people who ignored that were supplying suffering, unconsciously.

Several people still suppose that troubles in prisons end behind the walls and grating separating them of a such reality.

It's meaningless. All we are tied ever and again, because nothing surpass the powerful mind.

Bloody Massacre

It explodes the revolt. Incited by desire of violence, Adamastor provoked the confrontation among of rival factions in the prison. They some prisoners enemies as hostages. They mutilate, perforate, abuse sexually of whom yesterday lived as they own suffered painful reality or even worsen the pains of those poor fellows.

The crazy vampires sucked fuidical emanations of semen, blood and drugs used during the confrontation.

The madness was total. Embodied and disembodied spirits hardly tied, moved, sincronically, as funereal ballet presenting awful scenes.

Only Adamastor was out of such madness, cold and insensitive by intervention of whom commanded his will.

Adamastor and more three friends crossed by that bloody arena, penetrating into enemy territory and murdered the opposite commander. He own was the leader and screaming like a Beast, announced the end of rebellion.

At the end had wards destroyed, rooms and dining rooms damaged and several weapons among of bloody bodies, some of them still pulsing alive.

It doesn't matter. Adamastor was feared and hated by policemen. Some corrupt accomplices sorry for their illicit protection, when saw the prison completely devastated. The other ones took a pride in work of the young man, 30 years old, affirming the perfidious partnership.

The ambiance of vile normality reigns at prison again, but Adamastor doesn't sleep, he plans the next step: to escape the law and enlarge his army so that later live as king with beautiful women at his disposal and everything else that money could offer him.

Painful meeting again

Clairvoyance: At the moment, no more I see the prison. We are again in the slum where I see Bianca, Adamastor's sister.

Bianca was a beautiful girl, however the years of poverty and suffering in the slum let her a shy girl and without larger sex appeal.

Her mother upset because of tragic end of his son, she took care of Bianca avoiding presence of her brother's friends. The father fell a pray to drink after his son's death, he was murdered by police during a confrontation in the slum.

Despite of much poverty, Bianca worked as housemaid in rich building. By night she went to school and arrived at home too late.

She lived fearless and always was so tired that only wanted to sleep after the daily routine. Usually, she stopped nearby the beach while could dream awoke as any other girl about love, marriage, children and so on. But soon she felt a strange sadness. She didn't believe that she own and her mother could live like those beautiful and happy girls walking along of the beach, every morning.

Once, she noticed several police cars patrolled the building where she worked. Afraid of that tumult, she ran away to reach the building fastly and great was the surprise when didn't see Genevaldo, the doorkeeper.

Even before get in elevator, she was stopped by a weapon pointed to her head. Other two men, at the bottoms of the building, screamed nervous, while two other thieves by the front side ordered them to run away crossing by main door.

Bianca saw Genevaldo fallen on the ground and she tried to save her skin and removed the thief hood. When saw the mark in that man's neck she screamed calling her brother's name that she supposed as dead, she ran away and was murdered by other burglar.

Adamastor's Death

Adamastor, surprised with his sister's presence who since long time didn't see her, he ran to her direction forgetting what happened. Who was that girl? How did she know his name? What strange familiarity with him?

Adamastor didn't see the police and with two shots in his head, he died close his sister's body.

He was escapee since some months ago and formed other gangs that, under his leadership assaulted rich buildings stealing weapons, jewels and money.

He trafficked drugs and sooner would visit the slum and also his father as hero, rich, powerful, as a winner, never as prisoner.

He had established dark invisible ties, that not even had left the body, they thrown over him sucking his remainders of vital force and caged him at infernal caves where no more could leave, if weren't the workers of Light by a request of his mother and sister, already disembodied too.

Today, he is under hypnotherapy treatment, where the conditionings and violent automatism, developed broadly by perverse dark beings became prisoner of himself.

17. Juvencio, an upset spiritualistic medium

Prisoner of shadows Juvencio recalled recent memories

It was a hot day and since long time didn't rain.

Juvencio awaited his judgement after have served a some years of prison.

The memories of his wife and little daughter were still alive in his memory. Why had done that crime? Not even he knew what had happened him.

He remembered that was disturbed for strange visions. He woke up a lot of times beside his wife Vanessa, however he couldn't see well the woman he loved so much, only the ghost like nightmare.

Oddly enough, he thought to cut her neck and drink the blood. He couldn't understand nothing and thought go away but, who would take care of his family?.

The little daughter, Maria of Lourdes, was still a baby, when the strange visions began. Often, the cradle seemed catch fire and he tried helping his little daughter, who ran to his arms. Thence, everything disappeared, he put the girl on the bed, and he own returned to sleep again.

He never saw a such thing and would like to face it. He didn't want to tell to anybody about his strange visions, because could take him as crazy. Never!.

Visiting the sorcerer yard

What more disturbed him was the ghost and strong will of drinking blood. Then, he fell back upon a sorcerer yard and understand what happened with him. He knew that his sister visited that place decided to follow her. Songs, dances and many strange words happened in that "burrow", as the place was called.

At the beginning, he was afraid of everything but didn't say nothing; he could seem coward. He thought that nothing so bad could happen him; if he noticed any risk, he would run away, at once.

During the second visit, something strange happened. His presence in the "chain" lasted long period of mental absence, as that time hadn't exist.

Soon after, he asked the participants what had happened with him. His sister answered she didn't know, but he was an excellent spiritualistic medium and that a very important entity had visited them and used him to communicating with embodied ones.

He didn't understand nothing. What was a spiritualistic medium?

In spite of doubts, Juvencio went on visiting that place more and more. At that meantime, his nightmares stopped and also that strange thirst of blood has reduced. At the moment, only worried him the long absence of memories.

No more he had that strange repulse for his wife and everything was all right.

Nevertheless, he didn't understand the presence of "strange being", that once in a while, appeared so clear in his dreams. Stand up nearby the main door, the ghost always said: Don't you invite me to come in? Juvencio agreed and thence they talked long time.

That "ghost" said that they had a important mission to accomplish and thence, Juvencio needed to give up his family and the church where would have his energy sucked by demon. He added that the great day would arrive for that great task.

Juvencio woke up upset after that dialogue and saw a scratch on the table.

It was December and the approach of Christmas incited him strong desire to eat rare meat, twice or three times a day.

His wife, despite of finding strange that behavior, prepared everything he asked her, until one day she prepared a chicken for lunch, she saw the husband in the kitchen stopped staring the blood for brown sauce. After uttering strange words, Juvencio drank the whole liquid slippery, dirtying him and the table.

Visiting The Church

Due that strange attitude and very frightened, Vanessa refused the sorcerer yard and fell back upon the church nearby her house and asked the Pastor to help her.

The Pastor interested on that subject, asked her to took his husband to the cult, so that could see him and thence give his opinion. When arrived at home and before tell her husband what have done, he said: "Tell him I won't go; if he crosses by my way or I kill him. And you, don't avoid me, nobody can help you! You are mine and soon serve me as food to my soul."

Afraid of those words, the young woman awaited until the next day, while he went out, she prepared to move to her mother until everything was right again. Nobody could blame her to save her skin and avoid her insane husband. At once, strange feelings invaded her. Worn out, she decided to rest some minutes before leaving. Everything was ready and there wouldn't be so bad resting before taking a such important attitude.

The violent death

When she woke up, saw Juvencio over her. He seemed other person completely stunned. He pressed her neck with both hands and she couldn't breath.

Looking at the cradle, Vanessa felt stronger and ran to save her child. Furious, he attacked her with a knife, tearing her body with own teeth boned her body.

At spiritual plan, tied to Juvencio there was a vampire satiating his thirst of blood and revenge of whom had been his executioners beforetime.

When finished the macabre ritual, Juvencio aware of everything and not bearing up that scenario, he fainted. As soon as he heard Vanessa's screams he called the police that arrived at once and stopped without a word before that awful scene.

For many days, the case have been described in that place. At the present moment, he awaits his judgement.

Never again, he was same person, not even the dreams disturbed him. Far away from there, kept by shadows, other vampire awaited to subdue that unhappy and upset spiritualistic medium, satiating his wild fury.

The judgement happened quickly. The public justice tried to allege insanity, requesting psychiatric treatment for him, what would be profitable decision. However, the cruelty of crime refuted any resource and thence was uttered lifelong.

Soon afterwards the judgement, gangs of vampires arrived triumphant in the prison, after all they would be supplied with much energie that Juvencio would help them getting, thenceforth. Hapless who crosses them the road.

Even the least trouble inconvenienced Juvencio, who taken by uncommon force, he threw against the opponent struggling with own hands and teeth.

Juvencio and the Director of Prison

He was feared by policemen and hated by all of the prisoners. He amused talking with vampires that always visited him. One day the director of prison talked with Juvencio about those strange thoughts.

Experienced and wise man, the director knew that Juvencio was exploited by invisible spirits for strange rituals. Taken by sincere compassion, the director decided to help that sick spirit, who had with him an obsessor of any plot went on in the past.

He offered to help Juvencio and thenceforth his name would be under prayers.

Where are the human hearts that refuse to extend fraternal hands?

How many unconscious and neglectful spiritualistic mediums inhabit dirt cells, waiting for fraternal brothers that, at least, could reduce their suffering.

Why aren't human beings practicing charity without asking whom?

Lots of men and women arrested to prisons are our brothers under karmical Law, helpless, as any other brother of our compassion.

Let's return to our history.

For several months, while sleeping, Juvencio was helped by spiritual instructors and prayers offered by that Group. Nevertheless, without studying deeply the case, some members of that team felt pursued by terrible creatures ever and again. Afraid of that situation, they abandoned Juvencio's case, supposing that the other Evolved Spirits could take care of him, thenceforth.

Those workers ignored that the Highest Spirituality demand embodied workers for upkeep of charitable energies in the material plan in favor of sufferer brothers.

Sorry they have abandoned the patient. For fear of him or negligence, they didn't investigate the true work nature which had in hands and lost a wonderful opportunity to practice the beautiful knowledge. Minds full; empty heart and hands.

Juvencio again fell under dark forces. Vampires and beasts used him, by turns, in order to provoke fights and shed blood.

When Juvencio was thirty three years old, after served a six years term of prison, he was murdered by cell companions. At astral plan, the vampires, same beings that had used him to several crimes, sucked his his vital fluids.

Rochester, 17/02/06

18. Attraction power between Tereza and Luciano

Who everything wants, everything loses.

Tereza grew up rebel. She hated poverty and the dirt slum where lived. She always had at heart negative load. She supposed herself much intelligent and beautiful to live in adversity.

Someday she would live surrounded with beautiful jewels and several men should reverence her beauty with gold and her house should be as beautiful as those ones she knew on magazines and television.

She only needed a plan to get everything she wanted. To study was good for nothing or the teachers wouldn't complain so much about the work and out of money.

In addition to study was waste of time. On the contrary, the teachers were rich.

She needed an easier road to banish her poverty and raise high flight to wealth.

Once, while coming from school, she met Luciano, young boy and of neighborhood, who, since long time fell in love with her. They talked and soon Luciano was sure that had found his ideal partner, foolish and ambitious Tereza.

Without perspectives of earning money through honest work, they sought a friend of the slum and offered themselves as employees and partners to the crime.

Intelligent and aware of that work, quickly they expanded the business attracting classmates for using drugs. Nor all gave them ears. They preferred those careless, afflicted and upset adolescents as future customers.

Sooner, they called the attention of the boss due increment of money and, he, the boss began training them at weapons and strategies of attack and defense.

Quickly, the young couple, thrilled for success they avoided the school for dedicating full time to the traffic.

They were friends, guardians and partners of the boss that, for its turn, no more planned anything without hearing them.

They conspire betrayal

Once, before go to bed, Luciano asked Tereza her opinion on Claudio, the boss. The girl, as always objective affirmed that Claudio was dispensable and they would get more money, eliminating him. They could also blame the rival gang and without Claudio's leadership, they could command an burglar and subdue a larger area of traffic in that neighborhood.

Luciano agreed with her and soon were planning against whom had introduced them to the traffic.

After had rendered concrete that perverse plan, soon Tereza and Luciano subdued a large area of the slum, getting many resources for that place. But they couldn't stop there; they moved to a beautiful house downtown. They passed themselves off as rich business couple, frequenting nightclubs and parties, delivering the smuggled goods freely.

At the beginning, they found some resistance with traffickers rivals, but, little by little, they identified and eliminated the rivals. Thenceforth, the others gang understood that the young couple was too dangerous to be faced.

Rich and famous, the couple had everything the money could offer them. They knew about the risks, but the profits always were better.

When, seldom, they visited the slums delivering provisions, gifts and other things, they remembered about their awful life there. Those memories increased the desire of never again go back to that poverty. Not even knew that at each step of material goods, more they dived into mire at astral, where the victims of a such ambition were anxious for revenge.

Nobody at least imagine the dark sowing that material desires provoke to human creature or never would choose those tortuous roads.

Luxury and wealth raised ambition

As was expected, the fast success and wealth acquired by that young couple raised ambition of other trafficker, who put his men to watch the network and provisions of Luciano and Tereza.

After a year, he had a dossier about the couple, even about the boss' death.

Thence, the scenario was prepared to incriminate Luciano for Claudio's death, what would probably take him to prison. Later he and Tereza, wise woman, who interested him so much and managed the whole net of traffic raised by the couple. And also could be helped by Luciano to expand the business, even from prison, whereas, he knew about the daily routine of corruption involving policemen.

“Who slayeth with the sword shall perish with the sword”

Tereza soon noticed that something was about to happen and moved to the strongest side.

Counting on Tereza's help, Arthur incriminated Luciano privately and put made him prisoner. Disappointed with whom he loved indeed, he swore avenge to Tereza, he decided to take part in that plot only to avoid larger losses than have already had.

Usually, he felt solitary in the prison. The prison cell was several times worse than slum; even as woman, they had already inconvenienced him.

Along of the time, more he hated Tereza and he built equally a plan to her, who was arrested to prison too. The trafficker abandoned Tereza and went away.

Luciano couldn't penetrate into feminine prison. However, through his partners he bribed the prison guardians and companions to pursue and torture Tereza.

Tereza suffered hard humiliations, sadness and revolt worst than in the slum, where there isn't larger poverty to spirit than arid desert of hate and pain.

Even worn out physical and morally, Tereza incited a rebellion in the prison and died during a confrontation with police, when she was twenty six years old.

Thence has disappeared her insane dreams of greatness of spirit that started taking part in group of vile spirits composing the spiritual scenario of Brazilian prisons, increasing the dense negative layer already existent in the walls, at physical plan, giving funereal and dirty aspect to that place.

To get free from that dirty, Tereza, started as active spirit in the mud and contamination of prison astral where she had lived, until she was redeemed by Spiritual teams of Christian service. Exploited and humiliated, Tereza's spirit nothing else was that beauty and haughtiness of beforetime, teaching us that, who wanted too much lost even the little already received for her spiritual ascension.

19. Black magic in the reformatory

Fell into envy, Robervalson engaged to the traffic. He would be rich and exhibit goods which couldn't get up to now as well as some friends of work had, wrongly.

Why couldn't he have either? Why was negro? He worked as motoboy for a publicity agency in Rio de Janeiro. He hated the playboys driving big cars and always with beautiful women. He studied by night and worked daytime and little or nothing had gotten up to now and only a bypath would make easy his objective.

The bypath usually delays the arrival

Bypath means traffic. Old companions of childhood of the slum required him to deliver smuggled good downtown, weekly, using his motorcycle and would be well paid.

After some months, the deliveries improved and, the "Boss" of traffic raised his salary too since he gave up the other job. I have employment book and what matters if I won't go far, thought Robervalson.

He had promised his mother that would take a diploma. But it was difficult to fulfil his promise now. He involved more with old friends dancing funk and got some girlfriends. That wasn't he dreamt about when saw the playboys, but he was get on well with girls until became crazy due orgies, drinks, overdoses and so on.

His mental reflex reduced and usually dropped and lost precious goods. Because of terrible lifestyle, he was arrested while delivered a package, Wanted by policeman, Robervalson was arrested together with his accomplices.

The Reformatory

As he wasn't eighteen years old yet, primary criminal and slim body he and two companions were taken to Reformatory.

That place was an horrible surprise to Robervalson. In spite of being involved with traffic, he had moral behaviour better than those boys living there.

That promiscuity in the prison shocked him. Cubicles full of young boys. Some of them frightened and had something different in their eyes. Later on, living together, he discovered that those different eyes were acquired after total loss of purity changed by sadness or even cruelty living in that inhuman place.

Life was meaningless to Robervalsom. He understood too late the bypath to wanted success had taken him to hell. He struggled to avoid the reformatory; his mother and some friends has contracted a lawyer, without sucess and his dossier had disappeared. The police not even knew on him caged in that awful place.

Thence he joined with rioted people there, poor fellows that not even knew why lived; Life for them was good for nothing. They lived as true robots fell under hate and revolt, as all they had only one body.

Usually they provoked rebellions, setting fire to mattresses, hostages, murders. That was real and cruel lifestyle they had.

Little by little, Robervalsom knew the daily routine of the prison and he own began to command the rebellions and crimes over there.

Invitation to black ritual

Lourival, old resident of reformatory invited Robervalsom to see something in cubicle, where usually, he own, some companions and monitors practiced magic rituals. There, they called for Satan´s name, Belzebu, to take care of them. Belzebu had driven them for some rebellions and when materialized among of them, he incited cruel deaths and many prisoners became escapees too.

Lourival invited Robervalsom to take part in that secret group:

- You are an special leader Rober; Satan would like help you.

Robervalsom was afraid of that invitation. Never he liked occult forces nor his mother, evangelical, either. Never he had lighted candles to saints nor devil.

But his life in that Reformatory was the worst possible. He had never seen a such thing. He was forgotten by terrestrial laws and God wouldn´t waste time with him, a criminal. Now, he only should appeal for demon.

He asked his friend some time to think about.

At meantime, he asked his mother that, once again, talked with authorities, so that he was judged and get his freedom or would be crazy there.

After a week, his mother told him, crying, the situation was the same as before.

Robervalsom didn't lose hope. He sought Lourival and confirmed his presence in that ritual.

Robervalsom didn´t like Lourival, full of cruelty and sensuality, who lived at Reformatory since he was 12 years old, among escapes and prisons. He was well known by prisoners and police and taken as crazy one.

The guest murdered

The secret meeting held on Friday 13, full moon night. Robervalsom nothing knew about that event. He was anxious, a mixed of fear and curiosity.

That night, some minutes before midnight, Robervalsom went in that cubicle completely silent. The companions were sleeping as if something strange have happened or some drug had been given them. A chill crossed by his spine.

When he arrived at the place he met Lourival, three companions and two monitors unknown that greeted him coldly.

The ritual began and around midnight Belzebu would come.

They made a circle with gunpowder on the ground, lit incenses of stink and much smoke. The group seemed hypnotized and sang strange songs.

Suddenly, one monitor fell on the ground and burst out laughing. A black smoke coming from some unknown place shaped up a picture of Demon right before him.

Robervalsom regretted of being there, but was too late. He looked around and all of the members stared him, walked in his direction and held him strongly.

The monitor stand up now, seemed a "ghost". Robervalsom was lied down on the ground, in the middle of gunpowder circle. His hands were tied and feet open. He tried to scream, but couldn't. That ghost, black and red, hairy and horned was close him and his rotten breath was repugnant.

He reminded of his mother's advices. Never, he should involve with "demon". The monitor that more seemed a ghost approached him with a black knife in the hand, threatening him. He fainted when felt a stabbing pain in his heart.

Robervalsom was murdered by black magic ritual and they drank his blood and ate his heart.

The next day, happened other rebellion with barbaric deaths. The news about the body mutilated and without heart wasn't divulged by means of communication and Robervalsom taken as fugitive of reformatory, while he was murdered.

Robervalsom woke up at astral plan taken of terror. He tried to avoid that place, but was prisoner of same beast that subdued the Reformatory.

There was a "Laboratory of Reptilians" collecting raw material for macabre experiences in the other places.

Recently, during a trip for cleaning at astral plan, Robervalsom and other prisoners were redeemed by Team Servants of Jesus.

He was under hypnotherapy treatment. Sooner he may wake up and follow new road. It depends on him choose it or not.

Jesus uphold us with his Infinite Love.

Save Jesus.

20. The singular behaviour of a rich girl

A long time passed by until at dawn of beautiful day when Tais awoke from her dark past. From her bedroom she saw the sunlight surroundings, entering in by window. Was she dreaming? What place was that?

Few minutes later, a cheerful nurse came bringing her a tray of foods.

- Good morning, Tais! At last you wakes p! I bring you a meal food to strengthen you.

- Good morning! Who are you and which place is this? I am lost and I don't remember about anything. How did I come and what am I doing here?

- Calm down. The anxiety only harm your organic balance. As far as Know, you were brought here by two people who love you, and thenceforth you only sleep. Now you have to strengthen your body and, little by little, returns to your daily routine.

- It is all right. Nothing I ask until you tell me. I am a little tired.

Tais sat down on the bed and had her meal, as humble and patient spirit. Usually she didn't behave this way.

Who was Tais?

She was the only daughter of a couple of doctors well reputed and only interested on social appearances. Unworried with sublime commitments of motherhood, her mother transferred to employees her daughter's education, usually assisting her on everything, so that wasn't frustrated psychologically, accordingly with thought at that time.

Any worker who didn't execute the parents' orders or dared to correct the girl was changed at once.

Tais grew up free and surrounded of everything material the money could offer. Toys, dainties and everything that pleased a child, she had at her disposal. Swimming pool, playground, track of pushcarts and others took part of her infantile universe.

The "friends" surrounded her ever and new ones arrived daily, brought by the oldest ones, just interested on her rich life.

Tais, as was expected had no limit and since her adolescence, began giving flow to her inferior instincts. She used making intrigues and already had disurbe the employees, having dominance over them and with a word could dismiss them.

Her parents were proud of their beautiful daughter, whose intelligence and perspicacity pleased introducing the daughter for high society.

Tais grew up, empty of true feelings and full of addictions and doubtful habits.

Despite of not needing, she was used stealing the classmates and teachers at school. She knew that if was discovered, her parents would consider her innocent. She amused with tumult. Above all, she liked putting one against other and appreciate the duels later. She laughed of those situations and judged herself good at human nature.

Irma, the cook, arrived at Tais' house, when she still was a baby. She was the only servant who avoided the girl's plots along of several years.

The parents ignored her behavior

Irma knew the girl's addictions and tried alerting her mother, without success.

Oddly enough, Tais liked the cook sincerely and, whenever possible, she heard her ideas, even despising them later. Irma didn't mind, despite of wealth, she saw Tais as abandoned child at random.

Now, she was 17 years old and was already engaged to underworld of drugs and sex. She pledged herself to the sex selling the body shamefully to uphold the drug. Even without understanding why made that, she didn't stood aside. She liked having many men and laughed of that situation.

Every day, the dependence was larger. Daily, she drank alcohol and overdoses. The parents knew on everything, but considered normal to adolescent and pretended nothing to see, believing that phase soon would end.

But didn't end. By that easy and awful life, Tais called attention of "terrible beings". Reptilians saw that sad and ill temper of Tais could be useful them. Thence, the decided to follow her until the appropriate and direct approach.

The favorable moment arrived, when Vinicius met Tais.

Vinicius, an adolescent of sad life and contrary to the social norms. He knew about Tais and decided to benefit that situation. Addicted in heroine, didn't see the hour of using the drug ever and again.

They planned the couple's murder

Vinicius, out of money and anxious for using drugs ever and again, he planned murder Tais' parents so that could spend a nice life thenceforth.

Tais, seduced by Vinicius' eternal love agreed with him. How would be free from parents? With his inheritance, she would take trips and live only for her boyfriend.

Thence the young couple prepared all the steps to render concrete that macabre plan. Otherwise, they ignored behind there were Reptilians incited them evil thoughts.

In that fatidical day, she left unlocked door and planed day off for all the employees. The two criminals used axe blows, tore the couple's thoracic and cranial box and tried hurt also Tais, so that could raise difficulties to police supposing the girl as victim too, but al the efforts proved useless.

At once, the police arrived at the place and arrested the criminals. By other side of life, reptilians had tied body and mind of Tais with electrodes monitored 24 hours a day the mentors of that terrible crime.

Tais and Vinicius contradicted in their speeches.

The energies from the couple were stored and converted by basic energy. The both criminals were protected by strong safety against siege Good Energies. Tais had reasonable mediunship, usually used for manifestation of some perverse entities together with group of obsessors spirits.

Betryaed by her boyfriend Tais didn't worry in hiding the facts on her parents' death. Thence, she and Vinicius were taken to prison.

Tais pregnant makes deal with Darkness

As rebel and frivolous spirit, Tais started to carry out in the cell, the same hole of rich girl, provoking intrigues and discords. She used her sex appeal to benefit as prisoner, until she was surprised with unexpected pregnancy.

Rioted in losing her beauty, she tried getting free of her child, without sucess.

While sleeping she met with Commander Reptilian and made a deal with him.

She would give every load of energy possible and he would get her free of that undesirable pregnancy. Days later, she aborted the child already at advanced upgrowth. She was found in the prison cell with her child aborted.

She amused and laughed of her own bloody body passing the dirt hands on her body and face. The case was taken to authorities in charged of mad people and later on transferred to Psychiatric Clinic. There, she kept at supplying energies to perverse creatures. She hurt her companions using techniques of incision but without kill them.

She soaked her own body with blood and danced happy celebrating the operation. Usually, she put the blood in glasses saying to appreciate delicious wine.

Little by little, she became vampire

Her astral body, little by little, presented considerable modifications, shaping up as vampire and many threads tied to her, as marionette, subdued by Reptilians. No more she lived nor had own will.

At Hospital, nurses and doctors avoided to look after her. Little by little, dark breeze began surrounding her more and more solitary at physical plan, while at astral, increased the black siege over her spirit, and her astral body was used for experiences of Reptilians, using drugs and blood collected for subsequent analysis and usage.

She took part in endless orgies, wearing away vital energies collected by "black scientists". They promoted sessions of vampirism with Tais' spirit outside of prison. She was just a toy for those "hateful creatures".

No longer she was as beautiful girl as before. The case was forgotten. Her boyfriend, Vinicius lived at masculine prison, but treated as a woman under cruel tortures due his perverse crime.

No relative at least visited nor helped the young boy. As regard Tais, her inheritance was confiscated to the State.

Only Irma prayed and visited her, but she didn't bear up see how the girl lived.

At astral plan, she as human dunghill and at astral as slave of darkness, Tais lived the last years at prison and died after too much suffering.

Completely besieged

Tais, free from physical body was driven to Damned Castle taking part in a group of guinea pigs often used as experiences of reptilians.

That was the sad life of a rich girl.

Years later, at astral plan, Irma, deeply sad asked the spirituality about Tais. Aware of her condition as sexual slave, Irma redeemed the girl, by means of much love and work and later on was authorized to visit Aid Cologne of this Spiritualist House.

Some years of fraternal work at Aid Cologne Irma asked the workers to redeem Tais, whom she knew still a baby.

Tais' parents, subdued and enslaved at inferior astral were redeemed for treatment at Aid Cologne too.

At this time, Tais woke up, after a year of rescue and received from old cook the first healthy meal, after so many years of privation.

Long time she may need until recover her physical and psychical health.

She also have to endeavour so that no more be attracted by viscous atmosphere of prison, where she lived long time.

Despite of being free from physical body, Tais was still prisoner has doubtful future, whereas, she didn't change her behavior yet. She goes to prison-ship and exile, at once.

21. Lourival and his gang of adolescents

"Life means spend good time."

Following the lemma above, the person exposes his physical body to every luck of foolish pleasures.

The careless and immoral souls are taken as objects at service of darkness, mainly adolescents disturbed due overdoses of drugs don't respect either God's Laws or human ones. Since early, let be arrested by low instincts of pleasures and later taken to abysses.

The gang of Lourival was composed of six young boys, including he own, from 15 to 19 years old. All they had mutual interrelation: laziness, negligence to studies and total disrespect to life. They didn't respect not even their parents, ignoring or mistreating them with bad words and actions.

They were dragged for addictions due inclination to everything illicit, immoral which brought adrenaline. By orders of trafficker's of the slum, they "burned alive files" fell under tortures and humiliations. They tortured and set fire to two boys that approached as friends, but were disguised policemen investigating the plots.

The bad boys disturbed by overdose of drugs, they became insensitive, walked armed and imposing fear by force and violence.

Quickly became famous traffickers

Lourival and his gang were well known after short time of vagrancy and recruited by "big boss of the slum" "to turn off" their victims without leaving footsteps.

When the police invaded the hill, they dispersed among of ordinary citizens, workers that inhabited with that scoria sharing poverty. Then, mixed among of the people they always escaped the law.

Lourival had his head put to prize, when a member of his small gang fell to religion and dared back out.

Jorge was the youngest, 15 years old when fell in love with Lucia. In spite of little visit his family, he wasn't welcome at home. Only his mother received him well, always imploring him to stand aside that road of shadows he had began since his 12 years old.

After Jorge met Lucia, often he visited his mother, for despair of his brothers that didn't forgive him for a such messy life. Little by little, he had insights of changing his life. At that time, he trusted in his girlfriend who, by its turn, revealed to other people on Lourival and his gang. Thence, from mouth to mouth, the confidence arrived at the police, that shaped up a portrait of Lourival in order to arrest him.

Lourival, when saw the danger closer him and despite of liking Jorge, he murdered him coldly, nearby the accomplices and said: "Traitor must to die."

Wanted by police that discovered the barbarisms executed by Lourival and his gang, already suspicious that had murdered the both disguised policemen, they started to seek them, as who looks for a needle in a haystack.

After months hiding in several places, Lourival was arrested with accomplices, quite drugged and unconscious.

Lourival was forgotten by Justice

At first times in the prison, Lourival and his companions were tortured terribly. Two of them died due didn't bear up the knockouts applied by policemen in their bodies until were mutilated. The other ones stood forgotten in the prison, because of police using of illegal tricks to delay at most the judgement of criminals.

Ten years passed by without judgement. Forgotten by justice, Lourival and his accomplices decided to make justice by themselves.

After appeased the policemen, the tortures ceased. They suffered several months between life and death. Even so, the murderers' bodies survived and started their revenge plans.

Known by big bosses of traffic of some slums where had rendered important services "turning off victims", those who informed them about the policemen's identity. They got the data through the espionage net created inside the prison and informed to the traffic, answered for kidnapping and murdering families of policemen. Thus they started controlling the prison. He answered for arrival and exit of visitors, meetings, entrance and exit of drugs and weapons, and so on.

Reptilians don't fall sleep at the switch

At spiritual plan, there was more dark beings guided him than at physical plan. That attendance called the attention of Reptilians, that sought him, so that could install in that prison of small town, a "laboratory" bound for their experiences.

Lourival told them he was still strong and they answered that ignored the other powers as such to be invisible to go in and out the prison free, without be noticed.

Lourival agreed since the experiences began in another body, because he would like to follow the result, before he own fell under a such madness. So it was done. Several prisoners taken for genetic experiences at physical-spiritual plans have disappeared without be noticed.

Lourival, surprised and frightened, he postponed at most to take part in those experiences whereas his companions had disappeared.

Afraid of that, he refused the deal, but was too late; without his permission, he own was prisoner. His spirit was submitted to surgeries and transplants and made him crazy. Later, he has disappeared of prison, without ne noticed.

There is no Divine Injustice. There is total revolt to Superior Laws

Lourival and his accomplices fell under macabre experiences and were prisoners between the both plans of life.

Their physical bodies, quite gelatinous and deformed, didn't deteriorate at that dimension. The silver string hadn't undone and the crazy spirits noticed terrible suffering in those bodies.

The satanic beings gave up their useless experiences with mankind, and sought new guinea pigs, because always there was men "selling souls to demon."

After years of sufferings, Lourival and his gang received help from Team Servants of Jesus.

The technicians were untied with silver strings of gelatinous bodies, almost undone after detachment. The spirits, at total mental disaggregation were taken to Aid-Center.

They need of many compulsory reincarnations until recover the lucidity again.

That kind of experience took place in a foreign country, but also happens in several countries, at the present, where crowds fell under the vilest inhuman condition and taken by low instincts side by side with "beasts", ignoring their ill-nature.

Those faithless and loveless brothers often are easy preys to Beast.

There is no divine injustice in allowing such abuses by Reptilians. The negative karma of neglectful and rebel spirits who withstands Supreme Laws, put them in the hands of Beasts.

The Sublime Teachings of Jesus are bound for all of the creatures. He who doesn't want the Light, sooner or later his free will lead him to abyss.

Don't await peaceful and harmonic "End of cycle"

Reptilians strengthen in your Planet now. They judge have defeated battle, due negative force, hate and fear involving the whole Earth, at the present time.

Then they practice every luck of macabre plans to make easy their landing to matter. They realize that have little time for final solution of troubles and then benefit the whole scientific and technological knowhow they have to reach the objective of living mixed in the human beings' evolution.

The neglectful people fallen under their hands are exactly whom vibrate at same spiritual coldness and dislike to the neighbor.

It already happens exile of Reptilians side by side with brothers of low graduation for compulsory exile.

Brothers, don't await a peaceful and harmonic end of cycle. The true reality that surrounds you should already have cleaned your mind from a such illusion.

The battles increase and the dark beings defeated are submitted to exile, as well as, deceived ones are dragged by negative whirl and exiled to Planet appropriate to their negligence before the Divine Laws.

Lourival, accomplices and many other ones that together fell under painful and macabre experiences by scientists Reptilians, they are already at preparatory phase for exile in a primitive and arid Planet.

Soon the rebels, cold and perverse spirits are transferred to psychosphere of some Planet to adaptation and improvement of theirs.

Don't judge a such event as fiction. It is real and thousands of them happen in prisons, while you are reading our words.

The evil creatures are among of you and strengthened by selfish feelings and bad actions thrown over the terrestrial psychosphere, twenty-four hours a day. They disguise as "tutors and guardians" for dominance over alien peace. The only vaccine against those satanic lunges is: Follow Jesus' orientations, practicing the simplest of the lessons: "Love the neighbor as were yourself"

The deserters, today, of Divine and Sovereign Laws may be dipped in millenarian nights, where much blood tears are purified.

Don't fear who travel the road of Light. Keep at practicing anonymous work helping the poorest ones surrounding you.

Be fair in your thoughts and words and only practice good actions. Thus you are invisible to perfidious creatures, inhabiting the Planetary House with you.

Jesus is the Safe Compass pointing you out the direction for upgrowth, the only road of progress for immortal spirit.

Reptilians insist on their perfidious actions until the "ENOUGH" and sounds the last signal. Then, upset and faithless spirits are attracted magnetically to some primitive Planet, whereas, they had the days numbered to incite ignominy.

Commander Setun Shenar, Vice of the Comando Ashtar, 10/03/06

22. Help! Help!

Clairvoyance: I see Luiz Sergio and Ranieri Matias maybe practicing meditation, looking at direction the Shelter. In the sky, the sun appears painting the horizon with coloured lights.

More one request for us

The sunlight blossoms quickly. In the middle of coloured lights, we have seen at distance, a woman unknown walking slowly to our direction in the Shelter.

Closer her body she had a little child dressing in old clothes and her suffered appearance shocked us too much.

Soon we were informed by first sentries that more two children followed that woman. Her face revealed a young and much suffered woman in spite of some tenderness emanated from her. She had long hair and demanded hygiene and cares.

- I am Maria das Dores asking God's help. I need shelter to me and my children! At high costs we skipped even so, those strange beings arrested my husband. Help me! Help me! Screamed the worn out and afflicted woman.

By orders of Superior Spirits, we sheltered her applying the daily procedures for recovering her soul and adapt her to new atmosphere.

After she had received the magnetic aid, the children adhered to her body loosened, one of them was at shock state, paralyzed like statue.

It seems that something terrible had happened with that boy, around 4 or 5 years old. The other two children received prophylaxis and cares at once. The mother was taken to ward of medical center bound for prisoners.

Later we discovered that some guardians had received superior instructions to shelter that brave mother, wife of a prisoner.

Q: How long lasts until she get over the senses? I ask the leader of works in ASJ, Ranieri Matias, who answered:

A: We don't know Luiz. The case is so serious. She faced dangerous creatures and if she wasn't strong enough, her children would also have been arrested there, as her husband was. Love is powerful force that at least imagine the faithless man.

Unexpected Encounter

- Come on! said Ranieri Matias: Let's know the events involving the arrival of our mysterious patient. Mr. Lobsang Rampa, evolved spiritual and worker here, guide us, he is specialist in handling equipments for transporting us by the time.

- Ramp? Is he one from Tibet, whose books I loved since I was adolescent and judging them as fiction such was extraordinary the reports?

- Yes, Luiz! Now you may know personally the famous personality here called as Tuesday, Lobsang Rampa.

Oddly enough, in spite of years of study and work at spiritual plan, strong emotion invaded me and I prayed to calm down in front of him.

Guided by Ranieri Matias, we crossed by a long corridor which end had two rooms. The largest room, like a cinema, was prepared with comfortable armchairs and other equipments unknown. By the front side had a concave screen covering the wall. The other little room had just a small Japanese tea table.

We entered in, where appeared our brother Tibetan with three Siamese cats.

- Are you famous Luiz Sergio? Greetings of this new brother and friend in Jesus! That cordial and cheerful greetings, left me quite relaxed.

I greeted him, asking permission for a fraternal embrace, as if I already knew him since long time.

- For sure, we already met each other for several incarnations; now it's only a new encounter, answered the friend, who could read my thoughts and feelings, even before my mind could process them.

Maria das Dores in danger of life

After we were feeling well at new atmosphere, we went in auditorium where brother Ramp described about the equipment which would show us about Maria das Dores' history, while she was submitted to deep sleep.

We sat down, left free our minds, coupling the phones and soon the room was filled with sounds and ignored smells. The screen was coloured and showing images also unknown for us.

Afterwardss, I could see a very simple house in a slum. Maria and his husband Ademir discussed, while she prepared a meal having the children beside her.

He was quiet, after have screamed to his wife and thought so strongly, that we could catch his ideas:

- I won't live my life time in this poverty! Let's go away! I need to offer a good life to my children, even that I make a deal with demon, once that God has abandoned us.

The birthday party

The discussion began when his wife wanted to make a birthday cake for Lucas and she asked the husband to buy some sugar.

Out of money, Ademir hated his old boss who had dismissed him.

Ademir was a painter, immigrant from poor countryside, who moved to city looking for better way of life for his family.

However, in spite of great painting skills, Ademir had ill temper. Easily, he was angry with physical and verbal aggression, as had done to his wife.

He thought how long would be unemployed. There was already four months and the insurance was finishing. Out of money and work, how could him supply his and stare his wife as boss of family?

His wife didn't face him. She loved her husband and married still young but, tried facing courageously the daily routine full of troubles.

Before her husband's refusal, she borrowed a cup of sugar from her neighbor and prepared everything lovingly.

Later on, two friends of Lucas arrived and thus the birthday party happened.

The father still upset little took part in the party, even with the whole happiness and euphoria of children.

When finished the small party, Maria, as reward, took a cake piece to her neighbor who helped her with some ingredients.

Arrival at illegality and prison

In that night, when the adversity incited revolt at Ademir's heart and courage to his wife, their roads were prepared by themselves.

He decided to seek job in the slum to feed his family he loved so much.

Thus he began working at trade of weapons and drugs. Soon, less than one year, Ademir, humble painter was trafficker and cold murderer, wanted by police.

The terrestrial men should see the bankruptcy of penitentiary compound and seek healthy strategies for integration in a society. Ademir was punished for illegal transaction of weapons and caged in punishment cell from where no more would leave.

As prisoner, Ademir at least had been judged as primary criminal and thenceforth he knew true side of horror: violence, abandonment, hunger, diseases of all types, masculine siege and so other sexual misfortunes and got sick.

His wife, in spite of being upset after her husband became trafficker, she visited him weekly, offering him affection, good words and hope.

Ghosts from inferior astral

Usually when visited his husband she reduced his suffering and sadness. Afterwards when he was already sick, Ademir spoke about beings wandering inside the prison cells, going in and out disordinately. Beings with human appearance like reptilians as they were looking for somebody there inside. One of them, as described Ademir, always had the head covered with hood.

Actually, strange movement could be seen at astral of that prison. Near to the main entrance, there was other small room with austere and cold decoration.

Usually, because his mediumship little developed Ademir could see, hear and speak with strange creatures.

Maria das Dores believed in her husband and asked him don't get in touch with those strange creatures. Soon Ademir answered that if he commanded a rebellion, those Beings would let him free again.

According with irrational pact, Ademir began new phase: spreading violence in the prison for adjustment of his ill nature.

The rebellion and sinister consequences

He didn't hear either arguments or supplications of his wife and not even thought about his children, he acted selfishly provoking rebellion with hostages visitors.

Due that rebellion, intolerance and negligence raised difficulties for Divine Help, thus Ademir and his family died together.

Even ignoring his condition as disembodied spirit, Ademir kept at struggling to get his freedom even seen his half-nude body lied on the cold ground of the prison, among those bloody scenes after the rebellion.

Today is so sad the reality of that poor family.

He became hostage of same beings in the caves.

Maria das Dores and her children died during that confrontation too. When she left her physical body and saw those perverse beings interested on her children, she struggled hopelessly defending them.

Lucas, even small, understanding the mother's effort to save them from those terrible claws of monsters, he tried helping her when he was wounded and poisoned with substance produced by enemies, provoking him state of trance, because was near to those strange and terrible beings.

The husband didn't have same luck. After long efforts, winning the barrier among the two worlds, Ademir was arrested to bottoms of prison inciting fear and pain among of those creatures.

When the film ended I was frightened of those scenes so real.

How courageous was that woman saving her children. We were thankful the Father for presenting us such opportunity to help that poor family.

The history goes on

We said good bye the great worker who, briefly, explained about the equipment and thence we went to visit the punishment cells of new prisoners.

Maria das Dores was still sleeping. Lucas was under morbid state receiving large load of recovering energies and cleaning out poisonous substance from his small body. The both girls, Ana Claudia and Alice, played as nothing wrong had happened. Blessed is infantile innocence!

Days later, gradually, that woman recovered her conscience. She recalled the episodes over her family such as: signal of rebellion, sound of cells closing, the women's despair and children running away from those men. Screams and horror of men tortured. During that rush, she fell down. She had strong headache and heard her son crying, maybe wounded. When recovered the senses, she noticed that had fallen over Alice, suffocating her, while Ana Claudia lied inert on the ground.

Afterwards, she noticed a strange movement and, beings tried reaching her with paws. At safe distance, she saw other women also stepped, get up and arrested by flying bugs, like vampires.

She runs searching for her children and, bravely, faces all of them.

She hears a husky voice saying: that is mine, keep out all you! Initially, she feels better just saving her skin and later, shocked, when sees those beings run away from the other worsen creatures than before.

While there's life, there's hope

Alone with her three children, the young woman offers a prayer to God and at once, experts Spiritual Instructors offers her a sword and she faces against the enemies.

Nobody could imagine the danger inciting her too much strength and she struggles bravely. The terrible animal attacks and hurts her son, who falls. At last, she defeats the enemies with knockout She catches her children and runs away.

She is led to transitory a Aid-Center, where also the child received extra load of energy and the woman led to Shelter Servants of Jesus, when we know her.

The woman, more strengthened, wakes up and recalls memories went on in the past and asks about the children. She is informed they are better and soon visit her. She also asks for her husband. We inform that he is hostage of Reptilian, at double ethereal of same prison in which he was beforetime. Now he is prepared to become a robot. His ill nature made him prisoner of Beasts.

The woman asked who, what and why those strange creatures. We answered she would better to strengthen first and later study about the astral reality.

The days run fastly. In the morning, after breakfast, Maria was ready to her first walking when Lucas entered in room so happy. Soon aunt Irene brought Alice and Ana Claudia to that happy meeting too.

At daybreak of new life

The leader of Spiritual Works, Ranieri Matias, invites her to work in that House, at physical plan. She asks again about her husband and wonder if we could redeem him. That would be a difficult task and the Spirituality put Ademir's name among those brothers redeemable for receiving prayers thenceforth.

While walked, often she was mentioned because had defended her children and faced the Reptilian courageously and thence she became as celebrity.

I own starting new task

Brothers, all these events took place months before we began this work. Compassion moved us in direction those faithless souls dived into mire of pains. When, we concluded helping some victims arrested by Reptilians, arrived at us from High, strong load of pure energy and easened the redeem, a work of permanent help and popularization on extra-physical realities in the detention houses and prisons.

Gradually, we are going to know the daily routine of that painful and awful world, where powerful mind driven by ill feelings destroy human lives, families and hopes.

Here it is the challenge which we took on behalf of Jesus guiding us.

When we would penetrate into stronghold of those Beasts, Maria das Dores already was strengthened taking part in study and meetings, whenever is possible.

Polite and assiduous, she begins helping his husband.

Since the beginning of our preparation to take trips to prisons, countless requests arrive and changes happen at astral of the house. A ward is built bound for those contaminated and redeemed.

The day approaches. The study, daily routine, researches, prayer and Christian help strengthens us more and more.

Let me tell something important. Our group at physical plan, once a week, practice mantrical songs, when the arrival of energy from High is several times larger than usually.

Hard task awaits us on that day, when the whole energy emanated from embodied ones and more additional load from High soon is prepared and addressed to help the helpless brothers.

In the day established our caravans got in that place where Ademir was prisoner.

We crossed by a steep and closed bush road to redeem the major part of prisoners possible and go back.

Count Rochester's team searches for Maria das Dores's husband. She follows other team of cleaning and removal of redeemable even unconscious.

We entered in invisible. There are spider threads, dirt and mud everywhere.

Soon we were at work. We don't intend saving everybody there. The workers answers for identifying those ones prepared to receive such help at the moment.

After some hours of fraternal work, we left from fetid cells to our Shelter.

Many spirits stayed back. We redeemed the helpless at that moment to submit to several stages; Firstly, incorporation of one spiritualistic medium from Shelter Servants of Jesus. Only the emanation of embodied fluids give the necessary pulse for recovering many of those brothers brought here.

Unhappily, Ademir didn't come yet; despite of sadness his wife thanks God for other parents that like Ademir live in dark puddle and she keep at working with us.

23. No Pain is Eternal

At work in the Prison

Telesforo, experienced Instructor, invited us to take a trip to prison placed in Sao Paulo for redeeming some brothers already set ready to leave that unpleasant place. We would go there by request of sufferer mother for helping her son, who had been thrown into that hell wrongly. She was a honest mother and friend of our Instructor, who, since long time, planned that trip.

We set off while the sunlight wasn't too hot yet.

We four: I own Luiz, Telesforo and the doctors, Andre e Vicente, experts in sufferers spirits living in dark areas. We went volitating.

Arriving at the mentioned place, Jorge, who works at Aid-Center near to prison in Taubate/SP received us kindly there as was planned.

We were so happy giving our contribution for Jesus' Cornfield. Jorge guided us as far as the big gate accessing the interior of prison. He said that wouldn't enter in with us, because hadn't permission yet and other "worker of last hour", would guide us.

A humped dwarf opened us the gate. A chill invaded my body when I saw that shady place. At silence, we crossed by a narrow and dark corridor as far as small room, where a slim and nice man received us.

He was Teofilo disguised as nurse man, auscultating the souls for possible redeem, affording assistance for whom accepted it.

- There are other like me, also disguised, dispersed by the other cells, searching for souls that want and may leave this place.

Do you want to rest? - He asked us.

We began our task

- The group which we would help usually is watched by faction of rebels, submitting them to torture. It's a danger work, but Jesus follow us and we'll be winners, Teofilo said.

Telesforo recommended us to pray without be noticed by that crowd moving noisy by everywhere.

Each one prayed, begging Jesus strength, courage and success in our taskwork.

There, at physical plan, we could see some prisoners followed by a troop of shadows tied by perfect syntony of thoughts and attitudes. Poor fellows! Living in darkness of ignorance and ought to tread much suffering and painful roads because of negligence to God's Laws.

Those prisoners were completely deformed like animals, dressing in excentric clothes of red and strong yellow colour. The place had terrible aspect and stink.

After the silent prayer, we followed Teofilo to visit Sister Clotilde's son, soon after we know the place where live the group redeemable, Telesforo said.

Here it is a hard work. Prisoners of other torturers living in that prison! The brothers who live here shall be great debtors; they are prisoners already disembodied and even thus are arrested by perverse group that inhabits the prison too. How much trouble!

Telesforo, caught my thoughts and said:

- Brother Luiz, don't wast your time with useless thoughts. They live a such situation due unbalance of theirs. They were selfish and violent souls in the past, when still inhabited a meat body. When were disembodied, they became prisoners of whom supplied them with cruel accomplishments in the matter. There is no divine injustice nor they are abandoned by Providence. They just receive a little of what had hurt the neighbor. God always helps his children and Jesus too. He who withstands the Larger Laws fall in the own traps.

At shady prision cell

The Instructor is silent when we enter in a very shady cell. Teofilo informs us that group is arrested in underground of prision.

Then we take a look at that place. Two big man, half men-beast watching the place and don't see us.

Telesforo seems to think deeply. We stayed at silence too. For our surprise, the guardians fall asleep. Telesforo opens the eyes and seems happy now.

We entered in that awful cell. At the bottoms, a door gave us access to underground. We could see that, at physical plan, the place was a "camera of tortures", where the police and criminal factions tortured the other prisoners.

That place was full of negative energies, blood and screams of pains. At physical plan, they supplied and rendered concrete the construction and upkeep of atmosphere to astral plan, where we were.

I asked Jesus for helping those souls, from astral and physical plan, dived in darkness. Oh, Jesus! Help those brothers! Open their hearts to Light. Involve them with your Love healing their pains and wounds of soul. Amen.

Thence we entered in a cubicle where was the group which we looked for.

If I hadn't God at heart, I wouldn't bear up that awful picture with two prisoners were nailed on the wall, as were crucified full of wounds and larvas devouring them.

Oh, my God! Why men don't love one another? Jesus, help them!

The other three prisoners were piled up on the corner already in decomposition and larvas devouring them. The stink was unbearable.

There is no divine injustice

Oh my God, how could their bodies be devoured like this? Aren't they Spirits? My mind was full of questions.

The doctors Andre and Vicente saw that situation different. They didn't collect brothers under a signal of Telesforo so that we leave the place.

- To leave? Won't we help them? - I asked.

- Telesforo, patiently, answered me:

- Luiz, everything at proper time. Jesus is with us. Calm down. The brothers may be helped, firstly they need to be submitted to First-Aid where they are and then we can remove them without be noticed. On the contrary, we don't rescue them as we want. We aren't here to save everybody nor to confront with perverse souls that enslave other brothers. All they live now what looked for and deserve. Neither God or Jesus abandoned them and spill Light on them.

Unhappily, nor all can receive help and benefit it. Let's prepare for right help.

As soon as I was recovered and I apologized my attitude.

Andre and Vicente keep at praying.

We left that place, again guided by Teofilo, who was outside of the cell watching the guards slept until we left that place.

Telesforo asked our guide to take us to see Floriano, son of that sufferer mother mentioned before and soon we went to other side of the prison. Everywhere we passed by, the deformed brothers accompanied smiling the embodied ones, by strange symbiosis.

Foriano's history

The pavilion visited now is less suffocating than previous one. Even, despite of deformed brothers' presence, it is cleaner.

- Brother Teofilo, seems that has rained here and cleaned the atmosphere, I said. All of them smile and the Instructor said:

- In this pavilion here, the embodied prisoners receive, monthly, visit of some Spiritualistic Groups spreading a little seed inner prisoner's hearts, who execute the orientations and, praying daily avoid syntony with perverse creatures, inhabitants of astral, turning the place cleaner, as you brother says.

Floriano sought new road. He was arrested while helped his friend murdered near to him and the police punished him as accomplice in that crime. Thence his mother's anguish, because of his unjust prison. Otherwise, he was in debt to Divine Law, when in the past time he passed himself off as other person, taking to prison the same friend murdered near to him. That is the Karmical Law collecting its tributes.

The brother isn't rioted and waits new reincarnation as promised by Spiritualistic Group that visit the prison. He is aware of his unjust prison occult something he still ignores. Calm, he connects his mind to the High, searching for some balm.

The brother murdered hasn't same vibratory pattern than Floriano and, usually, he discourages him, inciting revolt and raises difficulties to definitive transformation of Floriano after leaving the prison. Thus we may help them too.

While we went to cell, Floriano read a spiritualistic work. Telesforo put his left hand on his forehead and much energy involved Floriano, who put the book aside and fell asleep. He woke up anxious at astral plan beside us and asked:

- Who are you? What do you want?
- Calm down Floriano! - our Instructor said – We brought you a visitor.

Floriano's mother visiting him

For our surprise, Clotilde, his mother entered in, embraced her son and told him comfortable words. Floriano calmed down and heard her words:

My son, if the men's law is unjust, the Law of God is infinitely fair. If today you are prisoner is due the debts you still have and our Father who everything sees, he keeps you calm and ready to face the vicissitudes.

Alfredo is upset and needs your help awake him to reality in which he lives and thus receives help deserved from Justice and Kindness of God. Please be ready, calm and faithful therefore tonight we meet him and this is the price of your freedom.

Understand that you are in debt with him and your comfort and hope words may calm him. Trust in the Creator and I am with you.

Pray and Jesus comes help you. It's enough a thought emitted to him so that his Energy involve us. Go, my son, I see you later, said Clotilde.

Floriano wakes up happy after had seen his mother and reads the Evangel.

We followed her in direction the friend murdered. He was seating on the corner of a dirt prison cell as crazy one.

Floriano's mother called him. He stared her and said:

- Are you an angel?
- She answered, I am your friend and I'd like to speak with you.

She involved him in her arms as she had done with her son, and he fell asleep. She stayed there preparing Alfredo for meeting with her son.

We sought Teofilo for helping souls deserters and the mother too.

Telesforo guided us as far as Teofilo's room and asked us to pray and he would come later when was allowed. He said that we could cross that section with Teofilo, except, where was the redeemable brother.

At meantime, we prayed for those embodied and disembodied spirits punished for violence and libertinism.

Soft breeze touched our face and sweet perfume flooded the room. That was the answer for our appeal, coming from High. Comfortable and trustful we accepted Teofilo's invitation to visit the prison.

The subject is complex and real

Q: Brother, Why those brothers tortured had larvas devouring them?

A: Luiz, these wild brothers have strong ties with matter and they own have built a such cruel reality. The astral larvas are decomposition of heavy harmful load emitted by embodied and disembodied spirits daily. The virus and bacteria inhabit at subtle dimension and can show in at the both plans and in different ways. They aren't spontaneous creations; they inhabit the atmosphere and when are stimulated, they grow up and multiply in the most varied ways.

The perispirit or astral body is highly sensitive to vibration of thought and action of each one creature. The aggressions are as real and painful as at physical plan.

The more materialized and primitive is the creature, more the harmful energies involve them. The brothers describe that can feel all sensation of torture and resist on each blow violently, stimulating the perispirit to react as were in the matter. Highly sensitive, the astral body corresponds to same mental emission.

The miasmas and bacterias while are vibrating at same inferior strip, they act hardly over the rotten matter.

The subject is complex and real.

The brothers suffer as were inhabiting the meat body, Teofilo says.

- How complex is human mind!. Why not to simplify it? It's enough to accept Jesus and his lessons and thus avoid a such sinister and cruel suffering.

Andre and Vicente point us out to other scene.

Fight from astral on physical plan

At physical plan, two men struggle hatefully using knives and the police stop them. At spiritual plan, there was a large number of, not only wild-man awaiting the emanations of pain, blood and death, but also birds of prey, like those of threshold, awaiting some remainder to feed them.

The dark spirits together with embodied ones, they left angry because didn't made success of battle. Those were shady pictures similar to caricature of death showed on magazines.

- There is every luck of creatures inhabiting areas like this one, full of negative energy coming from hearts and minds of embodied ones and their followers of invisible Barn of inferior areas.

Why the justice men didn't see yet that due their negligence they condemn the society, their relatives and the other people under extreme violence, inciting them hate over the prisoners?

The prisoners are brothers fell under conflicts and violence, provoking them mental disturbance when live for long time here. Even if they leave alive to society, they, become more violent than before, when don't become beasts such as ones here, commanded by instincts! - Andre says very sad.

I take a look at those brothers and hurts my heart. Once again, I beg Jesus for them and also for those men who create the Terrestrial Laws, so that could be changed this prison compound usually creating true monsters.

Oh, Jesus! Have mercy on everybody!
It was late and our feelings also were as shady as the night falling on us.
How much sadness we have seen.
At meantime, Telesforo arrived and said:
- Weren't you praying? The atmosphere demands constant vigil. The occult enemy notices the low vibrations. Pray and watch because a black cloud hang over us, it already alerted us the Apostle of Heathens. Let's go!
At once, we linked to Jesus and followed with Telesforo.

Arrangements for taskwork

Two nurses with stretchers were already at Teofilo's room waiting us.
He brought support, the Instructor said. – Let's be ready, at 6:00 o'clock we have an appointment with Servants of Mary, sending energy to calm down all of the prisoners so that we go out with our bale, without be noticed.

After the prayer, let's visit Alfredo, Clotilde and Floriano and later, the other insane brothers, said the Instructor.

At Teofilo's room, the Instructor offered a beautiful prayer to Mary of Nazareth, our dear Mother.

It was a such emotion that each word made us crying. The sapphirine Light from High flooded the whole prison after that prayer.

Telesforo called us to cell of Floriano. He had just made a brief cult, as he had learned with spiritualists visitors of that prison. He lied down and soon slept calm and followed us.

Soon he saw his mother with Alfredo in a clean place similar a small Chapel or Oratory. Alfredo was awake and dressing in clean clothes and soon embraced Floriano saying:

- You may run away! - Floriano embraced his friend and spoke him about the events went on in the past when Alfredo had been murdered.

He made him to understand that no more he lived with embodied ones and, death means restart for immortal spirit and he should accept the new reality and follow his mother, who inhabited that beautiful world.

- My mother takes care of you as dear son! Hereafter we meet again.

Alfredo heard him quiet and shocked when knew the truth, he cried, accepted the explanations and throw into arms of Floriano's mother.

Clotilde involved the both boys and and prayed.

A nurse, before a sign given by Telesforo, put Alfredo on the stretcher. Clotilde asked her son to follow Jesus' steps and said us good bye, thankful and happy, and left with Alfredo.

We led Floriano to his body again, sleeping calmly, involved with loving words of his mother.

Concluding the task

We crossed by courtyard, everything was calm even the insane spirits there.

- Maria of Nazareth is warlike woman! Excuse me, Mother.

Telesforo smiled understanding my thought and said:

- We are going to camera of tortures.

While the big size guardians slept deeply, we entered in and worked carefully.

The powerful source of energy from Merciful Mother also sent some Emissaries, Servants of Mary as soon as we began the task and arrived three big men with emblem of Mary of Nazareth embroidered in their tunics.

Telesforo received them.

Andre and Vicente looked after two of three souls fallen on the ground, while I own and a nurse helped the other brother. Telesforo and Mary's followers collected the brothers attached on the wall.

Carefully we cleaned the wounds, dressing them in white clothes and put them on stretchers and thence we left that room.

The guardians and the humped dwarfs were sleeping. Everything fell silent.

Teofilo guided us outside.

The workers of Aid-Center close the prison collected the brothers and together we went to First-Aid Center.

We said goodbye to Teofilo, thankful to Jesus for him, who lived in that hell, voluntarily, helping sufferer and insane brothers.

Telesforo explains us that, in the past, Teofilo was redeemed from a prison and at the present, he helps the other brothers living in darkness, like him had been before.

Teofilo is a good brother. Jesus bless him.

Who are those men?

Q: Brother Telesforo, who are those brothers redeemed?

A: They had been politicians who helped to build up prisons in Brazil beforetime. By means of corruption, deviating public money for own enrichment and negligence with public service.

At the moment, they suffer in perverse hands that had fed them with crimes. Now arrived the hour of redemption. No pain is eternal. They may pay their mistakes exiled, no more in the Earth. They may live together with other groups also collected from the whole Planet Earth to other orbe appropriate to their low vibrations.

- I didn't know what say and thus I asked Jesus for helping those brothers that have to much to clean out. May Jesus blesses and point them out new direction.

We left from Aid Center to Cologne of Espirito Santo state that sheltered us on that moment.

Jesus blesses Brazil, so that can be "Barn of the World,"indeed.

Oh, Jesus! How nice to be with you!

I love you, Jesus! Thank you for accepting me in your Army of Workers!

Thank you, Jesus, to awake and lead me to your direction.

Thank you accepting me as the last of the servants, because I am still so imperfect ! Thank you Jesus. I love you!

Thank you my sisters for this opportunity of fraternal work.

Save Jesus!

24 - God is with me

A soft breeze flooded the little prison cell. It seemed to bring hope, freedom and good smell from nature outside.

Afterwards, Julio only could feel stink, a mixture of dejections and perspirations of bodies piled up in a cubicle bound for 50 prisoners and with 230 now. He own counted 229 cell companions who take turns sat down or stand up.

The strongest prisoners choose the best places and also usually choose a companion to satiate their sexual desires. Those that accepted kindly humbly all kind of sexual perversion, later, may choose to sit down for some hours near the openings of breeze and lie down. Who refuses the orgies or fell under police displeasure should increase a black list.

Usually the insane police transfer those prisoners of black list to prison cells overcrowded so that empty space to other handsome prisoners. That was like a corridor of death instituted by prisoners due hypocrisy of a such prison compound insisting on receiving more prisoners to small cells already overcrowded.

Julio should be the next chosen to die.

He stood a chance to escape the law when fell in the hands of famous thief condemned to 30 years, due rape and death.

Antenor, insane, strong and insatiable spirit was the prisoner most feared in that place. He knew how to benefit his physical appearance.

His spirit, exploited by perverse creatures, sexual vampires, often subdued even the police serving them as special meal.

By night, Julio tried praying to understand why so much suffering and how would be his death under endless despair, when Antenor killed him.

Julio thought: after all, what was life for? Was there God indeed? If that was true, why God doesn't help them suffering long hours his own death?

I'd better commit suicide if my companions allowed, often watching each other.

Nothing avoided the pleasure to kill a prisoner, as just a pig.

They were about eating them the meat, maybe didn't because was raw meat, but some of them drank blood as were wine during rituals.

Lucas, the predecessor of Julio of that black list, didn't bear up too much pain and became crazy. He rushed on the grating mutilating his own body, suffering other diseases due infection of wounds and died humiliated there.

The most daring prisoners had fast and painless death while the fearful suffered slow and painful death to reach the other side less cowardly, said Antenor.

That was the only request of Julio to God, so that he could bear up his death courageously and at once.

He still saw blood of last victims on the floor. Why am I here? Why the destiny was so cruel to me?

It was nearly clear day, when Julio should die and he cried recalling of his mother. He didn't know his father and had two sisters and an uncle. He remembered of them, but nobody would be with him today, the day of his death.

They won't go to his funerals, if there was. What would make with prisoners' bodies died there in the prison?

So much was pain, fear and anguish that Julio cried and prayed asking God to help him. At astral plan, among group of vampires and black stains, two beings appeared over there.

Two workers of Light entered in prison, bringing some stones and placed them on Julio's forehead.

Julio feels better even before a such cruel destiny.

By constant prayers, the two workers created around Julio, a protecting bubble moving energies and fluids from little box of theirs.

Involved by that bubble of Light, the fluids seemed to clean Julio's brain who thought deeply in God and good moments with his mother and uncle.

Recovered again, he began new day aware of facing his destiny soon.

The two entities taking care of Julio, little could do. Vampires were ready to besiege him when his blood was spilled on the ground.

No one of them could see the evolved presences in the prison cell; maybe could feel the good energies involving Julio and easing his rescue after death. All care was necessary so that the events were under control of Workers of Light and that prisoner sincerely regretted could be redeemed from crimes and transgressions.

The moment arrived. Holding a spear, Antenor crawling to direction of Julio stand up prayed awaiting his executioner.

The perspiration began on his body and with throat dried, he thought would lose the senses, such was his anguish. Stopped before him, Antenor said: "brother, today you go away. Say good-bye to devil."

Saying that, nailed the spear near to Julio's liver and draws it up.

At once, approached the first vampires, sipping the fresh sap using teeth and tongue. They screamed happy, while Julio fell agonizing, strangely anesthetized. He felt just, as if something had nailed his body, painless and he soon left his body.

Stand up, beside the inert body, Julio could still see the vampires sating his viscera. By spiritual side, he could see his father and other man unknown.

He knew that was his father, reminding of small portrait his mother had shown him, when had suffered discrimination at school for not having father.

At the moment, he was before his father and could leave that place. So anxious, he went in direction of his two friends, leaving behind his physical body, beasts, vampires, cell companions and everything else.

They went on towards high spheres and, dazzled, Julio looked at the prison thinking: Now I know: God exists and he is with me!

Count Rochester and Ranieri Matias, 10/03/06

3RD CHAPTER FOR MEDITATION

"Under judgement of poor embodied minds, there is no recovering for insane souls, while Supreme and Loving Father drives all his children for renewal.

The terrestrial men, before of judging, they should help those souls and know that still stand a chance to recover them"

01. Eyes of God follow up everything

The conductive line of life drives all of the creatures for upgrowth. Unhappily, several creatures choose roads that usually lead them to pains, sufferings and fights and not for their own evolution.

At the present time, people complain on expose their children, grandchildren and so on under huge violence and thence use of same argument to reduce the births. Their reasons are fruitless and immaterial; when time enough they had here while the Earth wasn't so polluted yet and didn't benefit that. Not even the landing of Magnanimous Jesus to Earth improved the major of human beings.

Now, they complain, not due the decisive moment in which they live, but due the opportunities lost in the past time.

Delinquency increases at geometric proportion as regard disregard to suffering and alien misfortune.

There are many Evolved Spirits working in favor of the Earth and her inhabitants: unhappily, they can't touch those hearts already hardened. Those brothers of elevated Spirituality can't awake insane people that only want benefit the matter.

Dragged by powerful force of addictions and Sex appeal, they only want "to benefit at most" refusing orientations able to reduce them the material pleasures. They always postpone the spiritual duties.

Thus walks the humanity before the "End of the Time" who don't know how behave yet, even aware of Safe Itinerary, the Sublime Jesus' Lessons.

Late at time and space, the human beings are exiled again.

There is a total inversion of moral values in this current society. They reduce the number of schools and increase prisons. Delinquency inhabits all of the social groups of both sexes. Even a sexual aberration is taken as legal, making funy of Creator for not creating three sexual categories.

The prisoners live body to body and loose sexual shame.

There isn't so much to be lost, while living piled up inside a punishment cell. They loose the reference, identity and balance and are subdued on and on.

They undo the bowls with reality and strengthen them with invisible ones. No more they know where live. Insane are seduced by eloquent speech, and proceed numbed "the voice that from shadows, commands them".

They are reduced at piled up bodies, anesthetized and living in such a situation of adversity due the insane terrestrial Laws.

Stunned they attack for self defense. The shadows drive their violence actions and also inciting the justice men to increase disregard over prisoners. They benefit the human ignominy.

Do they increase their powership? Pure illusion! The Eyes of God see and follow up everything.

Ranieri Matias, 03/02/06

02 - Earth Time runs over

Brothers, Peace of Jesus.

The humanity live madness collective, because of inversion of moral values already reached that condemns a poor fellow who kills a bird to satiate his hunger and leave free many starving wolves stealing millions from Public Economy.

The End of the Time draws on while brings a procession of insane beasts and also scientists mixing horror and vanity, powership and death.

Hereafter, men shall endeavour no more for increasing their territory nor natural wealth of precious stones, but search for precious resource: water.

The scientist kill his brother in name of insane science, vanity and powership. The mankind has lost moral reference and fell under Anti-Christ people. Divine Laws are out of date such is human immoral conduct. Religion doesn't calm the spirits, usually incite them vanity and powership.

The cities of inferior astral, described by your spiritualistic literature are materialized like ghettos and slums whose inhabitants endeavour to survive there. alleys. Nothing else interests the men than money and material goods to uphold his future "at peace", even that his upset and in debt souls stand hopelessly lost.

Few of them refuse to execute the orders of Beasts, at once. Few still fulfil the promise follow Christ's principles. For the latter ones we say: Go ahead with Jesus driving your steps.

Have faith and hope, because this world is about to suffer radical transformation and all you may join with Jesus Christ, favored for living in a world better, a peaceful world! Keep on faith and at work and thus give your contribution for new world where you may inhabit in the future.

As regard whom tread dark road by own choice, may still dive more in darkness, in another orbe, until learn how to behave before Supreme Father of Love, Kindness and Mercy.

Peace be with you.

Shama Hare, 17/03/06

03. The child abandoned

The reality in prisons surpass largely the headlines you knowy daily, by means of communication, due the attacks over human condition for right, fair and healthy.

The prison cells overfilled present deep roots of society, suffering terminal cancer.

Each one child abandoned to own karma, without Christian balm of pardon, love charity, affection, study and moral education, usually become delinquent, violent and lost men, ignoring that all revolt, hate and revenge lead them to abyss of pains.

They become adults empty of sublime feelings giving them the human condition for natural aptitude. They live piled up in filthy cells, when should be at school, even as debtors spirits.

What for urgent measures of punishment, transfer, construction of new deposits of men, when the society should supply them conditions for growth?

Actually is too late for additional measures. It isn't enough to clean the stink of cancer that increase on and on, while the roots nothing suffer.

The steps should have been taken since long time.

At the present, it needs to educate the little ones, giving them the necessary conditions of health and work. You should share with your neighbor the opportunities of healthy survival; if you don't make it at once, everything we have stored may be removed by same way. Accordingly to Divine Accounting, nothing belongs you, besides the moral patrimony you should cultivate, so that grow up and give fruits. Everything else is generous offering from Father to test you as honest man.

Keep patience with the other ones, loving them as were yourselves, sharing the inheritance of virtues offered you by our Larger Brother, thence, healing the roots of a such disease that has been distroying your environment.

Keep on mercy and compassion with whom made mistakes as you were in their place.

Go ahead, each one doing your best for construction, explanation and preparation of world better.

We hope that your voices don't remain silent when invited to give testimony of your experience as servants of Jesus, never neglecting a request for explanation, helping and protection for little children of Jesus.

Your friend,

Simao Peter, 24/02/06

04. The bitter medicine spills on the Orbe

We hope the Mister of Peace involves all of you, dear daughters.

Sad are the pictures present in your daily routine and worse are those besides the matter, invisible to your physical eyes, but felt by your psychical sensor.

The embodied ones are at random, worshiping the matter harmful to own psychic-spiritual balance, because while lost spirituality notion and renouncing Christ's words, they open doors to darkness, materialized by Reptilians that multiplied and strengthened subdue many powerful minds and transform the Planet to battlefield, where the creatures fight one another for banal reasons, usually incited by Beasts.

This is the current scenario of moral decadence of this humanity, where we find prisoners, victims of themselves, chained each other by negative karma performed in the Earth. They suffer more while confronting the bitter crop of careless sowing done in the past. They don't have faith enough to save them of insane creatures that only want extermination of human race.

The prisoners are vulnerable, whereas, didn't build up fortress necessary for facing their vicissitudes. The terrestrial Laws don't offer the least love to the neighbor, but, helped by loving Father, they live what they own chose, paying high prices to Law which have withstood.

There is hope for brothers living in adversity and also all the humanity that cross quickly the barriers of new dimension.

There is hope for constructing a new world full of peace and fraternity.

The bitter medicine spills on the orbe.

Otherwise, the embodied ones despise the callings of alert, the salutary vaccines, the beautiful messages from Dear Master spilled on the Earth. Blown by the wind, they reached all of hearts, however the seeds of love and pardon found sterile hearts and didn't germinate. Few hearts which has received allowed them blossom. The latter ones penetrate into dimensional barrier and inhabit at peaceful World.

The large number suffer hardly in the expurgant matter, portion of poisonous load adhered in their spirits and pain able to awake a noble feeling inner their hearts aren't enough to keep them in the New Land. One by one is led to where deserve.

Each one pays accordingly to his own debt. It could be different, whereas, sweet words of Jesus are recorded in all of human hearts, being enough good will for awakening their consciences.

The painful picture wouldn't be necessary and unhappily is supposed to increase in a painful way, on and on.

We greet you with so beautiful and fraternal work performed sincerely. Many brothers were redeemed; lots of them awoke up and sought Christ's rows, as Workers of Last Hour. Many others led to sanatoriums, to get over before fo to other Orbe. When is reduced the disastrous load of astral, also reduces the harmful consequences suffered on physical body.

What you are living now could be worse, if Christ's Workers hadn't removed the load of negative energy.

We are at your disposal for explanation about the subject.

Q: What could you tell us regarding the repercussion at spiritual plan of our books: The declined people and their terrestrial journey , Vols. I and II, at spiritual plan?

Shama Hare: They opened glades of understanding, covering many gaps existent in minds of specialists relative to human evolution in the Earth. This book, as petals of light, lightened the roads, removing shadows of mysteries about the man's arrival in the Earth.

Great strength spread throughout the Orbe.

May MasterJesus' Energy spills and strength you along of this incarnation. Much suffering you may still face hereafter, thus benefit that load stored inwardly.

Save Jesus, Light that drives us.

Shama Hare, 31/03/06

05. Dominance runs in the Beast's blood

The upset faces of prisoners, mainly the youngest ones, denounce how they are subdued by dark beings. The latter ones seduce the people, satiating their primary and low instincts, inciting the worst violence for performance of macabre projects.

When the poor fellows avoid a such disastrous influence, they suffer the worst physical and moral tortures, provoking them madness or death ahead of the time.

The dark beings have only one Law: dominance and don't accept any refusal.

We don't intend spreading either terror or fear about the prisons and prisoners; and yes alert, how your society neglect the neighbor, those brothers piled up and forgotten in punishment cell thence are creating beasts to attack you whenever possible.

Don't forget that even one of your relatives can be one of those wild man and thence disturb your life too.

Change your attitude on those brothers caged.

As a society, you should help the weakest ones supplying them balance and work, reducing their aggressive and sanguinary contingent that usually divert them from fair road. They are your children, grandchildren, nephews, brothers, parents and so on.

Love your neighbor as were yourselves.

Everything else come for increment of Father's Mercy.

Ranieri Matias, 03/02/06

06. The call is urgent!

Sisters,

It is terrible the reality at invisible plan surrounding you and built by own man who withstand Divine Laws, changing the sublime, safe and evolutive road by harmful feelings degenerating the mankind.

The sad and wild creatures, invisible close you is larger than embodied ones. To avoid those pernicious creatures beside you, first of all, strength your vibration to Jesus, not only by simple and empty words, but practicing feelings and actions, pardon of offenses, loving the neighbor and mainly your own renewal.

The portals of inferior astral are open, from where the mad, hateful and upset creatures like vampires cross to surface. They and you own have the last opportunity of spiritual redemption in this Planet Earth, cradle of many fights and, at this moment, is worn out and reacting hardly, once and for all, who hurt it of death.

The exile awaits he who doesn't change his attitude.

Jesus shouts us to fraternal work.

We answer for our own evolution or stagnation.

Wake up brothers! The call is urgent!

Jesus is with, today and always.

Andre Luiz, 10/02/06

07 - Each person answers for own thoughts, words and actions

While opening the portals of inferior astral set free several spirits arrested there for millennia. Those ones of low vibrations have the last chance of reincamating for clean out from physical body, the toxins adhered on spiritual body for long time in dark areas. At the moment, large quota of inferior energy spills on surface provoking unbalance between embodied and disembodied spirits.

Waves of hate and violence spills over the humanity and, the incredulous ones suppose the Planet fell under demon. Nevertheless, who keeps on faith realize that Father sees and provides everything and thus, keep at work calmly, the last moments of horror invading the Earth.

The density reaches high levels at astral plan, inciting arrival of insane spirits to be reincarnated. They accelerate the fights and confrontations at astral plan, where the duel between Light and Darkness opens glades among of darkness. He who doesn't accept the Light, as soon as possible is led to prison-ships and later on to exile, so that reduce the negative load at astral plan.

The negative pressure from astral plan to physical one speeds the planetary movement by Sidereal Engineers.

Several fights and conflicts happen by insane spirits coming from abysmal areas to surface spreading fear and terror among all of the creatures.

It increases the number of beasts inhabiting the astral surrounding the Earth.

The negative action practiced by dark beings of high intelligence and cruelty easened due the largest density of plan in which inhabit and perverse embodied beings too. Usually happens connection between negative creatures of inferior areas and embodied similar them. Exchange that promotes the performance of extravagant experiences among them, longing for fast solution that, since millennia: Incarnation without concurrence of Superior Brothers.

For sure, an extravagant attempt don't become reality.

It increases, quickly, the researches performed by dark cientists, inciting much more suffering and pain to embodied of negative karma falling in their hands.

The inhabitants of streets, asylums, mainly prisons compose rich barn of favorable souls for those macabre experiences. Empty minds, insane souls, higyenic physical bodies are ideal guinea pigs for disastrous purposes of Beasts.

The majority ignore the powership of those inhuman beings from astral over physical plan which let them more vulnerable to lunges of Beasts.

Since they are taken by useless purposes, the dark creatures act in the prisons and still find, at plan astral, other spirits, no as perverse as they own, but also insane, increasing their rows. They are experts obsessors, sorcerers, magicians and the whole group of criminals, leaving from physical to astral plan completely disturbed and fall under dominance of "Beasts."

Who doesn't love the neighbor supplies human laboratories for Beasts.

The Black Brotherhoods of Scorpions, Red Serpent, Dragons and so on, they act freely in those places, provoking violence and revolt while groups and factions confronted in the both sides of life, favorable to dark scientists.

Sex and illicit drugs, for its turn, are currency in these places. Men and "Beasts" get along well.

Where are they going?

For engraving exile due their short intelligence and civility. They already look like men of cave with additional perversion.

He who arrives at prison calmy either is devoured or become just more one prisoner. Even the violent disembodied spirits, usually see each other arrested to shady places by diabolical followers that inhabits there, multiplying their sufferings and tortures and are dragged by darkness, whereas, lost the opportunity of choosing.

To escape the law? How?

Once again, they clean out toxins adhered painfully on astral body.

The souls redeemed there by Evolved Spirits don't have the least condition to reborn in the Earth, thence are transferred to similar orbes.

Several fights took place between Forces of Light and Darkness in prisons to reduce the tumult there. At physical plan, the situation would be worse, if didn't happen those fights and confrotations.

The negative energies emitted from places full of insane creatures also provoke climatic unbalances to which the nature reacts hardly.

The dense mass of thoughts-form such as black cloud, compete with natural phenomena, interfering in its vibratory frequency and also hurricanes, tornados, gales, hails and so on. Everything is connected somehow.

We're a single body suffering several diseases: The Earth's Body.

There is only a solution to terrible situation: The planetary transition, when the dense and suffocating cloud floods the Planet Earth and washes it with fury of waters and blown by wind. Thence without dense debris stored, the Earth is ready for new planting.

Clairvoyance: At that meantime there is a break of this message and I see a battlefield with army of angry beasts set ready to attack GESJ and ASJ. Soon are stopped by a ship spilling light over them. Even before they were redeemed by prison-ship and exiled.

The message goes on:

While approaching of terrestrial prisons we can identify area of inferior astral due the density stored in those places, where originate macabre ideas thrown over embodied ones who execute them. They are barns of "criminal ideas" to corrupt and subdue several creatures.

You are here hearing our messages bound for humanity. Imagine those men, out of work full time. They don't pray, work, and do nothing; only have inferior thoughts putting them in touch with similar vibration at inferior dimension, where inhabit the beasts drive them, as marionettes, executing their diabolical plans in the matter.

Who reads our messages, may understand that, each empty mind attracts beings whose vibrations exchange with environment supplying hate and revenge. Don't worry, who fulfil his duty and also has evolved thoughts. For sure, he may be disturbed by dark beings and know how avoid them by means of superior purposes.

As well as evolved spirits emit superior thoughts to embodied ones, the inferior ones emit vile and pernicious thoughts to the former ones. Each one embodied absorbs similar thought.

Each one answers for his own thought and consequences.

There isn't larger justice than each one answers for his own thoughts, words and actions. Save Jesus.

Ranieri Matias, 03/02/06

08. Prisoner disappears

Dear brothers, fraternal greetings for you, thankful Father for blessed opportunity of working together with terrestrial brothers.

It increases the human adversity and even with all suffering devastating the creatures, larger is the blindness of this humanity.

As well as before time, lots of people had succumbed also happens to major of current incredulous and careless people only attached to transitory material values.

Reptilians, perverse and also experts in science benefit of such human insanity for advanced genetic researches, withstanding the Creator.

The consequences of such experiences, in additional to pain and suffering imposed over several spirits serving them as guinea pigs and important raw material of work, it happens the production of creatures without spark of superior Life, natural and essential to human condition. They are creatures with characteristics are appropriate to survive in sterile Planet.

Transformed and insane, the brothers intend creating a new race to survive in desert land, sharing terrestrial environment with human beings.

They benefit the millenarian know-how using the physic-psychical matter abundant in your Planet. Human bodies or no, whose inner cells supply the genetic code, they need especially of helpless prisoners.

Usually those perverse beings have human appearance and invite the prisoner to a new life without pains and sufferings and, the prisoner disappears. The managers of such awful prisons not even notice his absence or don't mind either. Thence, begins his painful calvary, taken by useless purposes of unhealthy reptilian minds.

Among of several experiences in full swing some make progress. The reptilians arrest several insane beings to desert and inhospitable areas of Planet for adaptation and later, produce them in larger number, competing equally with natural species of the Planet.

Your insane Science ignores the nature of such events that could elevate the spiritual understanding but, since millennia ignore moral values. However, even that your science can't reach a such progress, it doesn't erase its existence, only stands it at disadvantage.

While dare as holders of whole know-how, loose chance by humility, know beyond of their short vision.

Lots of them could be working with us neutralizing the negative performance of such creatures. However, the major of them can't receive us yet. We are many seeking resources for interfering over progress of macabre technology. They supposed as owners of whole Earth and work full time and believe that social abandonment is the best resource for useless work of theirs.

It is necessary and urgent do make public about the large damages provoked due negligence, greed and dislike for all the humanity. It needs understand that, Light is the only road for upgrowth and, humility, the only way to reach it.

To face those perverse forces demands unconditional union of all evolved minds serving the Light. Every day, the lunges are more daring due arrogance of attitudes.

May Jesus blesses our work and guides our steps.

Count Rochester, 24/02/06

09. Prisons overcrowded, rebellions and escapees

Up to now, human corruption and pride have been building up the penitentiary compound throughout Brazil. There are other good examples of prisons spread by the world, where the creatures are treated as human beings housed honestly in airy cells, just with number of prisoners for which have been drifted, taking part in workshops so that later have professional formation and reduce the confinement, at each day of accomplished work.

Today, it isn't spoken about the reintegration of prisoner to the society. The prisons overcrowded provoke constant rebellions and fugitives increasing more and more the confinement, while the "system" ignore the number of prisoners, the criminal records, if they were already judged or not, time of prison and so on due neglectful Judiciary System.

There are more mistakes than success in the "justice", where the papers are piled up at same proportion to prisoners.

The politicians benefit of such corruption, temporary power and public service, precarious and out of date and ignore the prisons overcrowded.

Meanwhile, the black "tentacles of shadows" leaving from prisons where are supplied and are invading the perplex society.

The Judiciary and Legislative Powerships ignores the urgency to transformation of prisonary compound.

The politicians don't intent helping the people. They want to benefit public goods. They forget that, later on, they own may need that old system which they have created.

Some rich people stand angry when are locked at special cells. Even so, they scream for rights, despite of having neglected their duties.

The moment is crucial and finished for negligence that had originated the construction of "empire of shadows" in prisons. Only pains, tears and sufferings explode as gunpowder barrels over the whole society.

Keep your grounding and serve the Father, so that when the splinters reach you don't provoke large damages; while over large insensitive human crowd, those projectiles open deep wounds to clean out the bile of hate and revenge.

Only Evolved Spirituality, workers of Jesus' cornfield aside of religions may transpose such craters of hate and pain, if aren't taken by same devastating feelings.

Don't doubt, this humanity are already living the End of the Time. Spread good thoughts and prayers over those brothers prisoners, so that reduce the negative energies involving them. Avoid inferior thoughts and foolish judgments. They are our brothers, God's children, whom are purging the results of own actions. They already suffer enough and don't need of other judgments.

Awake up! Finish this shame in your society; offer a sincere prayer to Jesus, asking him for those hapless prisoners.

Only High Spirituality can help to change this system in which you live.

Only the devastating force of pain point them out the solution.

Save Jesus (see note 8).

(8) GESH– If the prison doesn't happen now, surely in the next incarnation, tells us Master Ramatis, Kutumi, when was asked him: Which spirits more suffer after death at astral plan? Answer: Experts in abortions, suicides and corrupt politicians.

Ranieri Matias, 03/02/06

10. The warning is given

I felt negative vibration and soon I saw a Reptilian arresteded. It was allowed him to transmit us some words:

I know I couldn't be here without permission of your bosses.

You have been invading sections under my command and you run risk of death.

We have enough knowhow scientific, technological and powership to terrify you.

We have been tolerant with you, but until when support your interference?

By order of our "big boss", we'll attack hardly and defeat merciless who disturbs our road. Get ready because all you tumble beneath our paws.

The warning is given!

I'm prisoner and what is the trouble? I'm just a soldier executing superior orders.

A Reptilian prisoner, 03/03/06

11. The both plans attached

We enter in a prison full of Reptilians. One of them crosses by dark corridor followed by big size embodied one. They go downstairs as far as level beneath the soil.

There down a door kept by two beasts magnetized as beasts at physical plan. Inner that cubicle a embodied man falls under tortures by another masked man, so that the former one could say some secret he ignored indeed. He seemed fainted. Leeches at astral sucked his energies. The embodied people look like beasts of astral plan with synchronized thoughts and movements.

The Reptilian, at astral plan, gets in that cubicle, always following the embodied one. He checks everything carefully and screams: leave him. His words are uttered simultaneously at physical plan by other insane creatures connected to him. The prisoner is chained and they go away.

At physical plan the both creatures leave that cubicle by same corridor to prison cell like a flat with bed, TV, stove, refrigerator, drinks, cigarettes and so on. The big boss was lying in a double bed receives him. There are other embodied and disembodied spirits with attitudes and movements synchronized.

The employee prepares the report about the prisoner. The boss, after thinking some seconds orders to return the prisoner to his "family."

There was a fight between gangs of prisoners. A group torture the opponent without kill them and send the human rags to their companions.

The other faction receive the companion mutilated. It is an action of revenge that repeats on and on.

The dark beings from astral plan are mixed with embodied ones in prisons.

There are other prisoners in the courtyard. Men walking fro and back, without occupation and always followed by inferior and undesirable spirits.

27/01/2006

12. The bankruptcy of your world

Brothers,

We don't intend with our messages incite sadness nor anguish inner your hearts, only inform you how live in advertly the prisoners in penitentiary compound of this country; it is a denunciation a also an invitation.

We denounce what is occult behind the high walls and iron gates.

We invite each one honest man to evaluate the current and depressing reality in which your society is submitted hardly.

Don't fear, soon ends this present cicle of learning, however you answer for your lessons learned about solidarity, fraternity, mercy and compassion, without attachments and illusions.

Those prisoners take part in your humanity that also cry and suffer, hidden in filthy cells. Actually, many of them have withstood terrestrial Laws. But would be their crimes, justification for such awful punishments and cruelty with them?

We hope that, in the middle of bankruptcy of your world, you don't loose the noble feeling, Love, that raised you above the animal condition and thence decide as rightist of Christ.

We greet all you

Count Rochester, 21/03/06

13. It is not your place to find fault

The incredulous society denounces the hypocrisy and cancers existent, which stink attract dangerous larvas fed by abundance of provisions.

We hope that hard reality doesn't stop nor lead you to degrading revolt either.

Pains of brothers arrested unjustly should strength each creature for changing the current unhappy reality by other system where each one lived under real value deserved.

Who among of you, dear readers could say that never had made mistakes. And how many of you don't hide mistakes, usually so dangerous that you'd like erase them from your own mind? At same way you'd like have them forgotten and forgiven, your brothers too, except those insane who didn't reach the sincere regret yet.

Don't judge your neighbour. Only seek, through the Christian conduct, send them words and thoughts of pardon, healing, compassion and kindness.

Offer your hands without asking whom at your side and they always returns full.

You realize that, the End of the Times happens when Love no more find shelter inner human hearts and Life has no value.

Save effort of whom work! Save who believe! Save our Divine Governor!

Count Rochester, 31/03/06

14 - End of Planetary Cycle

Dear brothers!

It is about the hour to give up illusions that you are the most important person of Universe and around whom moves everything else.

Use your creative mind to think deeply. Are you sure that you live alone in the Universe?

No, your intelligence won't stop pointing you out the true road. Though, it is easier the foolish interest living around himself, despising everything else, betraying your senses and intelligence, than the intellect reaching what is already able.

There will be in the Earth, turbulence and revolution, at physical plan, and also modifications by fire; the skylines of continents no more won't be the same.

The changes already have began however the hearts didn't change yet. Could you imagine wake up and see the waves crossing by your door?

What happen during the three days of blackout when you don't find your relatives?

Open your spiritual eyes or will be crazy, desperate, fearful and so on.

Many people will fight one another without, at least, know the reason. Others try defending from exploiters that will benefit of alien blindness for own benefit.

The weakest ones will prefer commit suicide. Like human rain, they may jump from buildings, announcing, once and for all, the End of the Time.

Who is safe, thanks the Father and calmly spend the last time you have.

The wild sex serve to many as refuge of fear. In that moment, helpless who falls under the Beasts' displeasure.

Jesus, Sweet Nazareno, has pointed us out a road of thorns that we own have planted, but lessened by kindness, fraternal love and his Light.

Many people prefer the road of fast pleasures, superficially flowered and perfumed, stating that we were created for happiness and no suffering.

Sooner or later the flowers dry. The perfume gives place to stink of rotten matter and instead of that beauty and flowery road, chosen by foolish ones, appears the dismal scenario of physical painful and moral suffering.

Divine Justice doesn't abandon us and has created countless bypaths driving the aware walker from one to other road, from the bad to good choice. Thence, by fraternal work is offered to each one, the last opportunity for upgrowth.

The attendance to sufferer brothers arrested by thorns, planted by themselves is a saviour resource, Christian action that reveals faith and service of evolved spirists.

There are many prisoners bleeding among of thorns supplicant for help.

Give up comfortable road of flowers, false and fictitious, hiding dunghill of stink. Go in direction stright where pains and real happiness await contest and conquest.

Brothers, work for neighbor's welfare. Can you see how die the birds? The Master told us that would be the first sign and they, the birds are already dying. More massacres come, until there is no doubt about that sign coming from High and ignored by human intelligence, that "End of the times already has arrived."

Love at most because without love there is no salvation.

John Baptist, 10/03/06

4TH CHAPTER

AWAKENING CONSCIENCES

“They became beasts and are seen by eyes out of walls, as aberrations that should be exterminated, as terminal cancer.

It increases the prejudice here outside and hate there inside.”

Ranieri Matias, Instructor of GESJ

01. Time Expired by Eternal Father

Dear brothers!

I bring my love to awake those people who ignore Laws.

If the rich people think receiving me in their small palaces, know: Their task is come to Me, through the fraternal in favor of whom cry.

Their wealth in nothing invite my presence; it is at filthy and vile prison cells that needs to settle down fair feelings and love among of our brothers supplicant for help and touching inner their hearts with Light of Hope, Truth and Justice.

By means of your incursions to prisons, at the present time, I offer to those prisoners My Presence and Love that I spill on them, you and the whole humanity, so that know the truth besides of the matter reach their upset and insanespirits, the spiritual reality inviting them for redemption of sins and mistakes by means of resignation and sincere regret.

No insane creature reaches no one of My little children who wants to be in my arms and get free of "Beast's" that already reaches the surface of Land, with wild roars, inciting brother against brother.

Come to Me, little ones, I welcome all you with my deep love.

Time expired allowed by Father so that regret touch your souls.

Choose, as soon as possible, your road and begin to do one's good. Brave Workers, the followers of Christ await you.

Let them help you, accordingly to Eternal Father's purposes.

We hope that, once and for all, you give up the material illusions and see them as immortal spirits, acting accordingly with nature of human beings in spiritual ascense.

We greet you in the name of Planetary Christ and Peace of Mister of Worlds.

Jesus Sananda, 17/02/06

02. Better serving than be served

Just for understanding

Brothers, the pictures showed are only a little reality lived by thousands of human beings, piled up at "prisons and detention houses" throughout the world.

There is more dignity for serving than be served. Hereafter, we visit some inferior areas at astral of those prisons, so that you know the true dimensions of negligence and dislike that your Juridical System practice in your Planet, such as: ignorance and negligence regarding the spiritual life necessary to embodied spirits which lead collectivities to deep sufferings.

Don't think be safe and sound, while avoiding this hard and sad reality, by means of big walls, watching towers, twisted wires and every lack of safety equipments. Don't forget that at physical plan is showed only part of whole reality, usually denser and worse when glimpsed at original world, extra-physical.

If among of darkness inner the galaxies, you can see nurseries of stars, here in the Earth, in the middle of grating, we found insane minds that, as a disastrous group of hardened hearts, with no trace of tenderness able to become them human ones.

However, the dangerous liaison of hardened hearts fell under retrograde minds transform those places to macabre holes of beasts without physical bodies, moving free among of careless society, crossing wires, watchers, armaments and avoiding the detectors. They throw over you, by mental orders of mentors, as starving larvae, seeking nutrients to increase their population.

Poor fellows! They suppose to be safe and sound due their advanced technology. It's meaningless!

Only much Love can neutralize the attacks more and more uncontrolled.

Who wants to avoid them, wake up and work full time helping the neighbor.

Never, connect with those perverse beings or you'll be sucked by wild magnetic polarity existent in your Planet now.

This work we have been performing with you is an appeal so that you give up the dream of happiness idealized by infantile minds and, as true brothers, you seek at once, the real opportunities for construction of happy life in the near future.

We work lovingly with you, hoping that our words touch your hearts, awaking the latent love.

Greetings,

Rochester, 14/01/06

03. We don't want to sadden human hearts

Sisters, Peace of Christ!

The messages brought are appropriate in volume, reception and legible.

Many other histories may happen, as well as more important knowledge could be revealed. However, we bring you only part of them, because of other activities foreseen to happen hereafter.

We are thankful the Father for this opportunity in bringing to each one brother about a such hard and inhuman reality of prisons and similar places.

We don't want sadden the human hearts. We hope that people are touched and help the sufferer brothers who, like you, are alive, have dreams and hopes, hate, fears and so on. Give up the inertia and help your neighbor. If you can't visit the prisoners, help the poor children at schools, presenting them the untransferable spiritual values, so that later on, don't become victims from your violent prison compound.

Our alert aims at awakening you to work. As was planned, we'll send you our messages for two months.

Thank you and good-bye.

Count Rochester, 03/03/06

04. Meeting Victims and executioners

Peace only comes when no more hate pulse inner your hearts; when mankind practice pardon as real extinguisher of hate among of all creatures. However, before that, pain and suffering spread on the Earth destroying lives and impoverishing the fertile soil of many hearts.

Pardon is one of the most painful lessons. Usually, only arrives after a hard existence of pains and sufferings which balm revives the creatures in Christ's Love.

New incarnation with superior purposes of pardon is arduous task for in debt spirit, because, firstly, he needs forgiving himself. It begins, early, by difficult and countless days, struggling between calvary and freedom; however sure that come.

Only working hard and free from transitory values, the trainee is helped along of his road chosen.

At the present, many people suffering revolt and hate, tomorrow, they beg pardon for victims of theirs. By same way, the current executioners didn't begin the calvary yet, but soon are involved by dense cloud of own madness, supplicant the Father for help.

Each prison cell takes part in a long chain, joining victims and executioners, that only end when pardon is present among of human people.

Count Rochester, 03/02/06

05. Planet Earth no more move singing

Fraternal greetings for you terraqueous, and our best wishes of Peace for all of the planetary quadrants and also inner your hearts!

Planet Earth no more sings when move.

From its wounded body, the sounds produced more resemble cry of whom suffers terminal cancer and no more recovers the planetary health, as when was given to your humanity as precious gift, so that you could make progress and clean your own corporal morphology through the fluidical salutary emanations, free of terrestrial body. However, you hurt deadly your source of redemption and renewal.

It is arrived the hour when your cry and of whole humanity will echo throughout the space recording in your souls, wherever you go, whereas, the Divine Plan was diverted by useless attitudes and infractions withstanding the Largest Law.

This Planet no more recover its health due too much destruction; only after cleaned out the last negative element, starts new stage of existence.

When is cleaned and ready, Planet Earth crosses by "dimensional portal", no more accessed by primitive and retrograde minds. Only the children after submitted to deep cleaning, again develop the highest qualities of souls, through this planetary cradle, beginning a new song of Peace and Fraternity among inhabitants of New Land.

While doesn't arrive the happy hour, we urge those consciences lost to seek their own renewal, while there is time, and understand that material life is transitory. Several spirits from space are attracted by painful sounds emitted by your Planet, they work full time for necessary transformation.

No calling of alert or preparation proved useless because are thrown on hearts and minds of whom need fruitful renewal, even at distant future, as example of Father's Kindness and Plan of Creation.

We greet you in name of the Light, thankful by reception of your minds, and we hope that energies offered by Planetary Christ allow the fast progress at this time of hard learning

Commander Ashtar Sheram, 28/03/06

06. It is a funeral song

Planet Earth is a barn of love.

It was overflowing of love that Christ's Mind joined creative elements so that was born the Planet Sham.

The physical-ethereal morphology was composed of high notes of Celestial Song intoned by Creator. As if it were musical instrument, the Earth intones sublime song by means of evolutions, when moving around of itself and the Sun.

However, hurt deeply in its interior morphology, its song no more is of love. Now, it is a painful song echoing at long distance, touching the extraterrestrial hearts of fraternal creatures.

It is a funeral song. Wound, suffers diseases and dies.

Died at 3rd dimension, reborns at new dimensional body, cleaned by stertors from last existence.

New cycle reborns and other humanity equally renewed inhabits the New Land.

Mother and children longing for restarting, after had suffered too much in the past and return at unison to celestial song, praising the Creation and blowing by wind that, Life after defeating the death, once again restarts as other new existence.

Commander Ashtar Sheram

Star that more shines in the sky and guides you, 28/03/06

Spiritualistic Medium: How beautiful message, Commander. The words are poetry elevating our souls above everything else in the matter.

AS: Thus is Life at space infinite, full and free of attachments. The human beings are infantile while attaching anxious for material goods. They lose and stand back of superior experience full and happy of belonging to creation and Universe.

Everything is transitory. Only Christ's words remain, as well as, memories of all the events and of all preparation last forever in souls lived that time.

Then brothers, publish Christ's words, seeds picked in fertile field and thrown them over minds and hearts. Sooner or later, they blossom. It is important each one receive his instruction quota, resource that uphold them, now or in the future, sure that Divine Plan helps and drives all of the creatures.

Save Master Jesus' Sublime Love and Peace reigns at their hearts.

Commander Ashtar Sheram

07. In debt spirits reborns in slums of big cities

Brothers!

There is no divine injustice throughout the Universe.

The low vibration Spirits of inferior areas they reborn in the Earth at this crucial moment in which you live. They receive a meat body, in the blessed forgetfulness of bad memories that made their mad souls regreted.

They are born in slums of big cities, submitted to moral and economical poverty, forgotten by rulers and facing the human ferocity deprived of love. They are in debtor souls reincarnated for cleaning thecaustic load burning them. Of course, their suffering could be softer if had the least feelings of fraternity among of the creatures along of short material journey.

Fell under crime, earlier, they adhere it naturally, because, inwardly, they already have ill-nature though with merit of reincarnating for renewal.

Otherwise, those shaped up with meat body, with same opportunity of progress offered by Magnanimous Father, having better moral and economical conditions, but despise the opportunity of offering the basic need to the weakest ones, they withstand the Laws of God.

By same way, steals public money for own benefit and ignore the poverty, when could dress the nude, to quench one's thirst, to appease one's hungry and don't make it, all are withstanding seriously Divine Laws.

Those in debt people have to pay debts while the criminals postpone their renewal.

All we answer for evil practiced and for not fulfil our duties.

Jesus is with us, today and always, behaving us with his Infinite Love.

Save Jesus!

5TH CHAPTER

STIRING UP A HORNET'S NEST

Darkness are in motion over Planet Earth. They believe to be dominating and so it is; the more they believe, more have mistakes, thence, we can arrest and defeat them by order of Loving Master Jesus, who guides our painful taskwork bound for embodied ones, but liberating those spirits who pledged their faith above of terrestrial things.

Yury, Commander of all Stellar fleets at Operating Rescue

01. World net of dangerous connections

There is a world net of dangerous connections in prisons. The Highest Commands of Darkness are settled down in the most developed countries, however energy power come from areas where the worst conditions determine full discharge of harmful energy collected by Reptilians.

We are stirring up at a hornet's nest. However, if Evolved Spirituality led us to that work, so it be done.

Never we imagined to be closer of "Bases of Command" of Darkness. We are already disturbing them and our interference won't be invisible. Maybe that strategy takes part in "Larger Plan", to incite them some reaction and thence we can act on their "nuclei of performance."

Peace for everybody.

Rochester, 11/02/06

02. It increases clandestine laboratories of Reptilians

Fear is ingredient that strengthen Beasts.

Usually men and women are frightened in prisons.

All of the prisoners which live in that corridor for death at any moment can be murdered. It doesn't matter the crime, fear is always inhabiting those people's hearts.

Fear of corrupt and violent police.

Fear of own companions, beasts disguised as honest people.

Fear of unjust Justice.

For reducing insecurity and fear, they take part in vile plots of underworld, stand a chance to feel stronger in that inhuman place.

Due corruption of Judiciary Compound, has increased the laboratories of reptilians in the prisons, whereas, together with corruption, the prisoners' dossier were forgotten by Criminal Department.

Thus has increased fall of moral values and depreciation of life.

Reptilians knew well how benefit those opportunities, inciting the faithless human beings to a such inversion of moral values. They don't have to offer nothing to rulers or politicals as had done before, when exchanged human life by advanced technology. As regard the prisons, they just make deal with money, inciting the Ego and vanity. They only benefit the incautious and faithless people and fall them under terrible dominance of beasts.

In the middle of that chaos, they settle down their Laboratories of Genetic Experiences. They collect in prisons, everything they need such as: physical and spiritual bodies of prisoners as raw material. They want to liberate the Big Boss or Dragon, prisoner, living in bottoms of abysms.

They increase the negative and cruel emanations from neglectful people.

Do you doubt about presence of those "Creatures" among of you?

Don't want to see them for believing. Isn't enough to feel their influence?

Stay far from those "creatures" that can increase so much your debts to Divine Law and, as consequence, live countless painful incarnations until pay them off.

Clairvoyance: I see a prison not so big at physical plan, where we crossed by a small lateral gate and everything is covered with mists.

At astral plan, there is a dying light and much activity. A Reptilian lift up a prisoner by his hair like a bag of feathers, who reacts with screams and blows in the air.

Somewhere in that prison happens orgy among human beings and beasts. At astral plan, a prisoner is tortured by three reptilians. Even having his astral body mutilated, the facial bones triturated the reptilians still hurt the poor fellow.

We crossed by a steep corridor with bloody odor and afterwards a door cut-fire where there are strange creatures, half man-animal hung up by hooks in cages and dropping blood on the floor though they are still alive and moan unconscious. Their open eyes denounce extreme terror, even those with animal face.

Afterwards we entered in a room like "surgical center". That man lifted up by hair, now he is inert and tied on a stretcher. A Reptilian dressing in white jacket walks fro and back, injecting chemical substances in his veins. There is a empty stretcher nearby. Other Reptilian comes bringing a monkey. The animal, afraid of everything takes a look at that place and stays tame. It is put on the stretcher and tied. They cut its throat, still alive and full of terror. I read the Reptilians' minds that intend to change heads and arms between man and monkey. How awful scene!

Again we crossed by other long and dark corridor accessing a clean laboratory of that "shadowy house, where many Reptilians and human beings worked. It seemed a Genetic Laboratory and section of medicines placed underground of that prison.

Soon he goes on:

The damned action of Reptilians is eased due selfish and insensitive men doing everything in name of insane science", not-ethical and inhuman genetic, that don't mind, in killing other human to accomplish their researches. They make liaison with whom motivates them and supply their lunatics and cruel researches. Among them are powerful millionaires withstanding Divine Law and by reason of eternal material life, they supply those laboratories practicing the worst experiences with animals and human beings. Among of them, we could mention industries of cosmetics, promoting the most excentric experiences, in the name of eternal youth.

That scientist who despises God and idolizes the matter, usually is used by scientists Reptilians for cruel experiences with human beings throughout the Planet.

The prisons crowded and without control of authorities, as it happens in your country, it is barn of guinea pigs for Reptilian and terrestrial scientists together.

Dont't think that sugc aberrations only happens at astral plan; at physical too. Those laboratories increase accordingly to faithlessness and rebellion withstanding Lawsof God.

While you allow be used by those perfidious creatures, you create dense liaison with Beasts. Only changing your vibratory tonus, practicing love, charity and pardon, in a word, follow Christ's lessons so that avoid such influence of Beasts.

Master Jesus' Itinerary is the only antidote for those satanic creatures.

Count Rochester, 17/03/06

03. inferior astral of prisons

Clairvoyance: I see Count Rochester and his Saint Bernard dog. I left my body and together we went downstairs by a rustic stairway. The atmosphere is little lighted by Count Rochester. Behind us, follow two guardians, spirits of strong men like Zambi. Count Rochester speaks:

We are going down to inferior areas, nearby the prison where lived Cicero. It needs keep our mind strong with unconditional love for all the creatures, even those whom seem us awful and worthy of our rejection and negligence.

All of the beings seen hereafter, they are human beings transformed to wild man, after millennia fell into deforming passions.

The barrier of boars, the task of fly-wasps and vultures nest

Clairvoyance: Goind downstairs I saw "two boars", sat down. They have hair of fire, not hair properly said, but small fires burning and emitting red and yellow colors. Their eyes, flooded of blood with two black spheres in the center. They have two big teeth exposed, even with closed mouths.

We go on downstairs so dark, the ground was slippery and I heard noise of something like water and stink like rotten egg.

Count Rochester lights his hand and opens a grating door to large living room walled by grating and stones. On the ground, there was "two larvas" that seemed fighting each other. They have human size, as if a body was covered by a white and bright sheet. There was no distinction between head and members crawling.

It seems they want to devour each other, but I don't see any mouth. Count Rochester call me attention for something I hadn't seen behind us, because was so dark. There was a "giantic wasp" on the wall and other in the front wall.

Suddenly, one of those larvas breaks the white wrapper and appears a woman, cleaning herself, as were removing the slimy layer involving her body.

She takes a look at one wasp and stops too frightened. The animal goes in her direction and, with a sting, provokes her terrible pains and soon she falls and starts a metamorphosis process.

I look at the wasps again and they look like flies what let me confused. Would be wasps or giantic flies? I think it is an animal modified genetically, mixture of fly and wasp. The front side of the body, mainly the head and wings, seem to fly, but the womb and the stings resemble a wasp. Then, I asked the Instructor:

Q: Brother, what happen with those women, hereafter? Are they wasps?

A: Let's go ahead.

Clairvoyance: We went to other side, going upstairs. Everything is too dark. I hear sounds like a heart pulsing stuffy. Count Rochester calmly explains:

Factory of Human Robots

We went downstairs only three floors crossing by underground of penitentiary compound where we are at work. The first floor is kept by firing boars modified in their original forms, denouncing the genetic experiences.

The fire of their bodies bend like wings and set fire to any being daring to cross their road. Their big teeth are useful only for laceration of putrid meat to feed them.

Q: Brother, I wonder if it's sure these beings transformed to wild men?

A: Yes. You should review and enclose this chapter on transformation of those creatures described for you during astral trip in that old "castle", used as "factory" for those creatures, where several genetic researches were performed with alive human beings and disembodied spirits by scientists reptilians, at physical and astral plan.

Q: Then is the hour for publishing that material?

A: Yes. It is arrived the hour when everything must be revealed so that don't remains the least doubt and thus all of human beings can read and understand the world in which live. Let's go.

On the second floor, behind the walls, you have seen a very frequent type at astral of prisons and similar places. They are wasps, which poison acts in the victim's nervous system, forcing him executing orders of perverse reptilean.

He who dares refuse the order suffers unbearable pains able to kill him. They are used as dominance over primitive orce present in many prisoners. While are stinged, they lose the own will and are victims of Reptilians without enough know-how on "genetic engineering" yet, to make possible the reincarnation of own race in the matter.

Q: How can those people stinged by wasps choose the victims?

A: The attack is made after a meticulous choice of victim such as man, good physical health and punished long time due violent crime.

While are sleeping, the victim is chose and submitted under hypnosis and treatment for syntony of cerebral frequency. The more prepared and able to become a robot are taken in astral body to inferior prison placed in underground of penitentiary compound and prepared with poison injections.

When, by chance, one of those guinea pigs succumbs, it returns to his physical body and no more is used, though become more violent due cerebral shocks, leaving him sad and painful forever. As consequence, that creature commit the worst and bloody crimes, because is deprived of emotion, a robot.

Q: How are the victims captured?

A: The fly becomes smaller and moves among of the prison cells. The eyes record the scenes and send them to a control room of Reptilians, placed at inferior astral of some prisons. There, the images are selected until shape up men and women with characteristics requested by perverse minds and prepared a dossier of each one candidat submitted to last choice and approval.

Clairvoyance: I saw meeting of Reptilians presenting and defending their candidates. The more violent and bloody prisoners were the best candidats. Proud, the winner felt superior over other ones for having gotten the most violent prisoner.

Count Rochester goes on: The phase of check up on prisoners able to become robots receive contribution of wasps, stinging and collecting small samples of blood of victm's astral body, which are stored in appropriate places in underground. Later on, those samples are collected and analyzed by Technicians Reptilians.

Clairvoyance: I saw the wasp stinging a prisoner, who suffers in his physical, the sting given in his astral body. Thence, the wasp flew to underground cell, where there was a stone block where sting and store blood collected there.

Q: Are those wasps deformed human beings?

A: How could those perverse creatures (Reptilians) have in their hands the most advanced net of information and intelligence, if weren't God? They just changed the sublime purposes of creation with nets of human neurons, shaping up human beings as deformed and belligerent animals.

Q: I didn't understand yet about the subsequent process to collection of blood.

A: See the walls here in the underground where we are. They have equipments recording and storing the material arrived for study and comparison with next collection of "agents", which task aims at visiting the prisons searching for raw material for their "bosses". We are going to the third and last floor of our visit today.

Q: Will be the nest of vultures?

A: Yes. As you can see here, are brooded the eggs and created the nestlings of vultures, which cerebral activity is conditioned, since eclosion in the rudest and violent reactions, because are guardians that fly at some distance around the prisons.

Any careless visitor at astral plan is nailed by sharp claws and even his head removed by strong beak of vultures.

He who, by chance, avoid their flush, may suffer infection with only a scratch of those beings by powerful poisons, due storage of toxins and bacterias moing in his body.

It isn't enough a spirit want penetrating into a prison to help a prisoner; it needs appropriate preparation and be guided by Evolved and expert Brothers. See how works:

Clairvoyance: Rochester shows me that surrounding the dark areas, there are a string of Light and evolved spiritualist Guardians placed at some points; they only allow to cross the boardline the spirits whose karma is similar the situation to be faced.

I saw bodies quartered and I recalled our last trips taken to Castle of Horrors, and also the scene of a dog devouring a spirit at astral plan. Awful scenes involving deep knowledge about the both plans of life. They are subjects unknown by the most human beings. Then I thought: How can astral body be devoured by other being in the astral? Would the person be extinguished or would only live with other four bodies? Or would be his rests used as raw material for new astral body of whom devoured him? Or would be necessary to rebuild it from subsequent body? Among of my whirl of thoughts and subjects Count Rochester restarts the dialogue and his voice acted as balm for me after I recalled awful scenes.

- Some deformed spirits along of the time fell into hate are offered like good pulverized to vultures, as well as any worker of darkness that wants set free from his tragic life serving to the Evil. Let's stop now (see note 10 bellow).

(10) GESH: while we received the material for our work, in our city happened vile crimes in prisons such as:

Prisoner's death inside of cell, quartered and transported by wheelbarrow.

Prisoner's heart removed and eaten.

Prisoner boned with 143 holes.

Count Rochester, 27/01/06

04. Robots obsessors

An ambiance without rules causes disorder and attracts low entities.

On the contrary, clean atmosphere supplied with good thoughts is suitable to workers' meeting for fraternal approach and solve difficulties at physical or spiritual plans.

The interior of prisons, besides of disorder existent at astral plan, establish magnetic centers negative. There, Reptilians establish strategies for absorption of harmful energies to raw material of studies and researches and later on execute the great plan for dominance over Planet Earth.

They are experts in advanced technology and benefit sad minds to render concrete their primary instincts.

The Reptilians incite inciting hate, violence and social anarchy, preparing the prisoners' minds to their evil command, when are set free by dark forces and spread on the Earth. As true robots and implacable obsessors, the minds subdued proceed, having the bodies used for perverse actions, out of question and human sanity.

Brothers, the events are worse. Divulge the current reality, get over and be ready to face the evil siege of evil.

We are with you.

Count Rochester, 21/03/06

05. It begins the Beast's Kingdom

Clairvoyance: After my meditation, I saw a wall calendar, making public date 06/06/06. I felt strong presence of Count Rochester's presence, I left my body and saw much blood, as a bomb had exploded somewhere in the Planet hurting many people. Firemen made the rescue, transporting the inert bodies on own shoulders.

Maybe that scene happened at physical plan, when later I saw wolves devouring astral bodies of disembodied spirits in that explosion. The scene was so terrible that I returned to my body quickly.

Afterwards, I left my body again and with Count Rochester, we crossed by several continents and all they had much blood. At some moments, my mental screen, showed scenes of black magic rituals, involving spilling of blood.

After the clairvoyances, I asked to my Instructor:

Q: Brother what does mean that date in that calendar?

A: It is when starts the "Beast's" Kingdom. A black wind blow over the Planet and few nations are free from outbreak of madness.

Soon I saw human appearance beings, tails, red horns and awful fire eyes.

Q: Should we help them? Why do show us that reality?

A: Nothing can be done against a such manifestation. It is really the time of revealing so that the people choose which side want.

What should be done by whom already chose Christ's right, is keep at working, explaining to those faithless and infantile minds attached to material illusions.

Only time will show. It needs to run fastly to reveal the occult.

Brothers, love each other!

Love the neighbor as were yourselves is the best lesson divulged and practiced.

Alert, as you'd like be alerted, if you were deceived, sad or dived in ignorance.

Everything else is secondary on that hour.
Ramatis commands. Jesus guide us.
We are with you. Save the Earth.

Rochester, Instructor Spiritual of GESJ, 09/12/05

6TH CHAPTER

INFERENCE

The reptilians keep at practicing their perfidious actions until the "Enough" and when sounds the last moment.

Thence, insane, all they are attracted magnetically to some primitive Planet, because time is over for provoking ignominy.

Commander Setum Shenar

01 - Negative Energies from abyss

The prisons became places of cleaning out “devastating negative power from Abyss” fed by insane beings arrested inhabiting desert areas not for human creatures.

It was built up places in the Planet, with mind coupled to their followers, where could clean out harmful hate about life in the surface, once they don't have it. They subdue insane minds spreading terror and chaos over the Planet which they want to subdue it forever.

The places with human agglomeration arrested are fertile area due creatures' minds free and suitable for a such influence of Darkness. The neglectful rulers don't fulfil "votes of honesty and rightness before the Largest terrestrial Law ", benefit the most of public administration and don't draw up a programme able to recover the prisoners. They only want take advantage of public goods while skilled hands corruptors and corrupted answers for everything else. These also have connection with Beast that take them to exile to supply it more and more.

After several decades of negligence to public safety and increment of criminality, the beasts built up at astral of prisons “dimensional portal to deep abyss”. However, they ignore that Light open them road in middle of darkness, using "that portal" spilling Light on Beast. While the beast build up the "portal" easing the action among the embodied ones, they also allow action of Light, creating by-pass to reach it directly.

The Beast ignores the danger, supposing to be untouchable and invulnerable.

Proud it believes to be above the Creator.

Deceived it thinks to subdue the Earth.

Not even may see when is taken by surprise.

It will set off with its troop for sterile Planet.

Otherwise, until that happens, several under foolishness and falls, answers the beast's call!

Many fights, pains and sufferings may happen.

Blood, sweat and tears, this humanity is supposed to suffer until the end !

Save Jesus.

Andre Luiz, 20/01/06

02. The Spiritualistic Houses should answer that appeal

Brothers and friends,

We hope that Peace of God involves our souls!

There are much disturbance in the Earth. What can be seen and recorded by physical senses, is just a little part of atrocious sufferings created by insane minds.

For centuries happened what was occult before the physical eyes, however transmitted to few people chosen by Evolved Masters among of trainees of Masters of Darkness, Black Magicians.

The strong ignorance of this humanity about those subjects don't mean that no more there are plans and subplans of life, developed at ascendant and descendant areas of the matter.

At the moment, everything that was occult must be revealed. It doesn't matter how painful are such revelations, it is necessary you know about the disturbances taking place in the Planet and also in invisible side of life thus reaching you, human beings at any rate necessary and definitive.

The more increased the cleaning of inferior astral in the Planet Earth, larger are the residues polluting plans and subplans of own Planet.

The more dirty are fluidical components of astral, larger chance to contaminate energies settled in the dense matter such as embodied ones.

The cleaning in prisons removes dense layer of dirty stored since millennia by means of terrible, murderous and insane minds.

Only pure and sincere love can save you on that hour. Allow be guided by loving Christ and offer him your life. The reality in prisons soon comes out change the situation, having you as prisoners at home, when vast legion of rampagers, thieves and murderers walk free on the streets, when the Commands of Darkness think as winners dominating everything and everybody in the Planet.

Again, they are wrong; when at least imagine they are defeated.

Even subdued your Cities, don't discourage, as often do prisoners. Bear in mind salutary thoughts of love, faith and hope and use all the resources to get vibratory pattern above the disorder placed near to your homes.

Don't benefit as "rightist of Christ", to get over insane minds, because you can be arrested by skilled hands of malefactors.

No more await those golden years of beauty and parties. Now is cleaning. The more brothers like you join with us for a such cleaning, better for everybody. The more Houses of Charity begin, at once, astral cleaning in Houses of Seclusion and Social Recovering, more human beings are rescued from torture and humiliation.

May Jesus blesses us.

Q: Count Rochester, does the message refer to that date 666?

A: All of the events have connection and this work should be concluded until June of 2006. The reports which you receive at the moment are revelations about the least portion of cleaning performed by Aid Teams of this House, bound for suffer souls, by request of relatives, friends and merit of other ones.

Each case described here is real. Thence we mentioned those spirits aware of changing, as main characters of this work. Only the names are fictitious so that when you read the histories, your minds don't connect with minds of characters, whereas, they are already receiving intensive treatment for recovering their mental sanity. Thus Masters have touched your souls for helping them lovingly, using the load of energy from Aid Teams and later on send to Aid Centers close the prisons.

Clairvoyance: From Shelter Servants of Jesus (ASJ) spread light threads feeding the temporary "Aid Centers" opening roads for Caravans of Help, every day visiting the prisons. The volunteer workers of such Caravans are required to seek redemptible spirits, afford assistance to brothers that can't be transferred yet, supply restoring energies for professionals at work there and prepare traps to arrest the perverse entities, so that have enough time to help those poor fellows as was planned.

Luiz Sergio's presence arouse interest of two other Spiritualistic Houses, that have him as great friend and Spiritualistic Instructor. They are little "Focus of Light", and are studying so that can settle down new "Medical Center". Nevertheless, at physical plan, they need of workers for that edifying task.

It would be better, if Luiz Sergio's parents were informed about the effort of superior Spirituality devoted to that theme too. That would reinforce, helping the Spiritualistic mediums in understanding the messages received, therefore afraid of them, they think to be victims of persecution and disturbing attacks of darkness, when we show them scenes of prisons in order that confirm the need of such work.

May Jesus allows us enlarge our task, helping more beings, because increase the number of people supplicant help for their suffer relatives living in prisons.

When began spreading news that devoted brothers were dismantling gangs of spiritual torture and chaining of disembodied spirits, increased the demand of parents begging help for whom they love.

The requests arrive at thousands and our work load is reduced; we need of other groups to help us and thus we help more brothers. Training teams are prepared for visiting Spiritualistic Houses interested in a such fraternal work.

There are several and diversified places, having space for all of sorts of workers, since they are balanced mentally and bear in mind healthy thoughts.

Also by network can be published messages seeking collaboration of brothers for fraternal attendance of disembodied spirits in prisons of countries where dark nets increase quickly.

Aware of your difficulties raised daily, thus think about answer or not our request.
Peace for your souls

Count Rochester, 11/02/06

03. There are many calls!...

Clairvoyance: I saw a group of spirits, by pairs, guided by an Instructor of our House entering in living room silent and polite.

They sat down and observed our work at physical plan.

Soon I could notice they weren't sufferer spirits, dressing in white paints and jacket, as Workers of the House. I heard Ranieri Matias explaining about the service of his group as redeemed spirits would offer for brothers died in prisons, as they own had already received beforetime.

Brothers, you have already lived in that condition and today thanks the Father's Kindness, you are healthy in your mental activities and happy.

Hereafter, you begin a journey of redeem work, healing resource at our disposal for getting over, which are better now than when you arrived here.

Keep on faith and love and offer your hands to the prisoner's welfare.

There are many calls and few people chosen people, because few can convert happiness of health to fraternal work. See how many supplicant brothers for help and, by the other hand, fewer workers than necessary.

Mathematics is clear and shows how much work we have hereafter, then we invite you to take part in rows of work of Christ's cornfield.

Do it, how, how much and when you can, but always lovingly, so that happen the transformations necessary.

May Jesus, in his infinite love help and guide our steps still shaky as trainees!

Ranieri Matias, 18/01/06

Clairvoyance: The brother saw me aware of that scene and said: The group brought here, is similar that one of resident doctors; they are spirits recently-recovered and trained for affording assistance for disembodied spirits redeemed from prisons. They are required for reception and selection of patients arrived by means of helping trips taken at inferior astral, cleaning dark areas and brothers arrived from prisons.

After those explanations, I have seen a small group of thirty people, from 20 to 40 years old. They were spirits of young and strong men, redeemed yesterday and receiving the patients today.

Shelter Servants of Jesus prepared at astral plan, a "Ward of Specialized Service." bound for assistance of helpless patients brought from astral of prisons.

After that ward, there is an area for "mental cleaning" and rooms where the patients live completely secluded.

The latter rooms are bound for treatment of removing "roots" of powerful thoughts-form that can be erased of his creator's minds, but staying alive for some time, could be attracted near to main body, as a new by-pass in his mind and pull it back to his domain and consequent unbalance.

The relationship between the embodied prisoners and spirits free linked them and the thoughts-form created by their own minds, form a complex plot of specialized service and treatment.

That team seen is have recently-recovered spirits of similar situations and still with vibration similar the helped ones, answering for them.

Peace always!

Ranieri Matias, 18/01/06

04. Acknowledgement

Clairvoyance: I saw a young man in the Garden of Health of an intraterrestrial city. He picked some flowers and irradiated energy of gratefulness.

For sure, the words can't express the feelings brought inner our hearts.

We five thank you the help offered us here and for sure, the other ones would like to do the same too.

Only who suffers can evaluate how is important that help received and, you guided by hands of God reduced our suffering.

We know that many of us made mistakes that need be redeemed through the suffering but we want to correct them hereafter.

New life encourages us thanks you beside us as brothers and changing our lives. We are thankful you and we'll do our best to live better hereafter.

It needs to stop so much hate, revenge and sadness.

I was taken to a hospital of intraterrestrial city and treatad in the Garden of Health. Authorized for workers of that place, we picked those flowers as a gift expressing our best wishes that God gives you much health to keep at working and helping other brothers like us.

As soon as we have permission, we want to work too.

The companions present here emit gratefulness to each one of you and we say good- bye. May God blesses us always.

Julio, ex-prisoner, Now, Servant of Jesus, 31/03/06

7TH CHAPTER

FANTASTIC REVELATIONS

It explodes bloody battles in several parts of the Earth, brother against brother.

It spreads the trade of faith and many incredulous people don't believe that High Power runs Life in the Planet.

More and more, corruption is valued and Life vulgarized.

All you fall under final examination.

Ranieri Matias

01 – Fiction or Reality?

At the end of May and begin of June of 2000, we received impressing revelations through the astral trips of secret content. In that time they couldn't be published yet aiming at our safety (Spiritualistic Group Servants of Jesus - GESJ) and also would be premature divulge a such transcendental knowledge.

At the moment, before the "Times Arrived" High Spirituality gave us green signal to publish those messages, because many brothers at physical and spiritual plan already awaited them. Although the human creatures, at the moment, can't understand them well, don't worry nor insist on knowing the subject, only divulge it at most by the whole world, in that phase of "Judgment Day", when the "beasts", as quite deformed human beings, are free from "abysmal areas" under Divine Determination, reaching the planetary surface.

I'd like to say that, at the beginning, I own refused that request for divulging the messages. Not for rebellion or fear of them. Simply, I hadn't understood the content yet, despite of countless readings I have already done.

I asked help Mahyr who elucidated the subject, which became legibler to me.

The theme is complex, new, strange, thus even that many people want to receive these revelations, they ignore about our seven bodies.

Study, research, analyze, compare and see how the pieces fit well as puzzle.

Save Jesus, Power and Light driving us.

Margarida, GESH, May/June of 2006

02. Incredible scientific experiences

Note: Message transmitted in 26/05/00 not as usually; here the spiritualistic medium heard and described the envents without recording in his mind.

She is unfolded, maybe working at mental superior when said:

I began meditation I felt as I were downwards an underground. I arrive at a cold room but clean. I see several stretchers with dead and frozen human bodies there. I just see the inferior members; the superior ones are covered with bed linen.

By the opposite side of stretcher, some beings opens the cranial box of dead people with a tool like an opener big size and touching some part of the brain. It seem the first stage of a work, when the bodies arrive and are prepared there. Something is removed from the cranial box and thrown into the garbage; only remains the brain.

By the other side happens similar scene described above.

Margarida: Who are making that operation, are terrestrials like us?

A: They haven't human appearance and have a type of armor in the column bending them to the front, maybe for working as they are doing now. They have short arms and very skilled hands. They seem deprived of intelligence; their actions are mechanical and seem created for that work, as robots.

M: Are they operated by intelligent beings, maybe reptilians?

A: Those machines have a crest on head, like an antenna, maybe to control the mind. As far as I know, those surgeons are operated by that workmanship implanted in their heads, besides of armors on the backs. The armors are as high as top of heads at conical shape, like an antenna guiding them, receiving orders, maybe operated by remote control at distance.

M: What are those bodies for and why that operation?

A: Soon I see a big apparel like transparent tube. The body cleaned and the remainder brain placed inside a big tube maybe out of gravity. In some other place, other team removes from test tubes stored inside the containers, at low temperatures, small embryos of appearance no human yet. That picture reminds me of "Alien", as if the author had accessed it for composing his fiction film.

The embryo is implanted inside the brain and grow up, supplying the body morphology, as only human organ remained from that strong and healthy original body.

The development of that tissue is prepared so that I can see embryo's upgrowth and soon recovering the brain operation.

The brain recovers the neuronal net and such as a film, the whole body is redone through the brain, as if this one answered for reconstruction of internal organs.

Thus the brain stimulates the embryo's upgrowth but no human form. As regard the external aspect, the skin and shape look like disembodied body. It is as had been emptied that body and filled out with embryo and thence shaped up a new body from inside to outside.

M: Where comes that embryo from?

A: From a place where they remove it and the workers seem human ones. They have appearance of doctors, scientists and dress in white clothes. They remove the embryos within metallic and frozen tubes where are other glass flasks, like test tubes, containing embryos of brown color.

Some embryos removed are examined carefully and if aren't appropriate for implanting yet, are stored inside metallic tube and the scientists choose the others ready to be implanted.

M: Are those embryos from human beings, reptilians or what?

A: I am taken to other room where scientists or doctors prepared some research by order of a Reptilian.

M: I wonder if those embryos come from genetic experiences of Reptilians?

A: There are some apparels, like computers, in that room. The scientists, after discussing how execute plan ordered by boss, with those apparels they check several genetic maps and information on chromosomes. I see something relative to chickens. Through that computer program, they cross the information of chicken genes and of other animals quickly. The informations appear on the screen, as if they were already programmed for some combinations, as if the program already knew what was looking for fitting them, like a puzzle, starting from data already existent about several animals. The new being doesn't look like any animal or being known.

M: What for hybrid creatures?

A: The insane scientists discussed how create a new being developed inside of "empty" human bodies, so that later work as robot, however not as metallic machine. An alive robot, created from several animals, without own will, operated by boss.

I suppose those scientists are embodied ones and connected with reptilians.

M: Had those scientists lost own will or are hypnotized doing those crimes?

A: They are coerced however don't worry, doing everything in the name of science, though, they don't know what is the final product. That is the challenge to create a being as were God. They can't define an specific animal or creature due the combination of several genes. They can't do that or don't want to solve that aspect, wheres only the human form interests them.

Along of the process, they remove some tissue which doesn't allow specif form to the being developed. It is a tissue for filling of human body, able to get a body, but unable of taking own decisions.

My Guardian take me back to previous room, where the works go on and soon we go upwards the surface. That underground seems part of desert, where is the "Laboratory" for researches and incredible genetic experiences.

There down is too cold, but in the surface the temperature is normal.

At that meantime, I see an airplane landing. It opens the load compartment with new shipment of selected human bodies, packed and frozen. They are separated into groups of sex and age. The most of them are men, few women and all are adults. They are strong and have healthy appearance what means they weren't old or sick.

M: I wonder if the human ones had natural death or were murdered?

A: The airplanes unload packages that later are taken to that Laboratory descrided above and soon takes off . I see a "silver thread" linked the bodies.

If they are linked with silver "thread" t they are alive. Maybe they injested some medicine or injection to put them at cataleptic state.

I went in that cold room and the bodies seemed separated from spirit. The silver thread keeps at shining.

M: They create a battalion of robots good for them and harmful for human ones.

A: The energy for this communication is over, therefore Intus thanks you and explains that the spiritualistic mediums only see and describe the scenes, without keeping them in the mind, because the subject is dangerous at this moment.

M: We are thankful his trust too and when permitted, we divulge the revelations.

A: Intus confirms this transmission form can't be recorded in my mind.

M: How awful thing happens in the world behind the back stages. Who shows this for you?

A: Intus, an Extraterrestrial. (He is guardian of spiritualistic medium)

M: Ask him what for those creatures created by crazy scientists.

A: Intus answers that is serious subject and can't be revealed yet, just to protect the Group.

M: Thus we have done up to now.

A: Intus adds that when come under "their" notice they are being exposed and unmasked, for sure may attack hardly. In the appropriate moment, we divulge the informations.

M: Of course, publishing them throughout the world at the same time.

03. Gadually Revealing the occult

Explanation: After written the first part of this book, our guardians proposed us don't eat any product of origin animal, over the next fortnigh, whereas, our physical bodies needed be cleaned of dense energy.

So we have done until we received the other massages.

Hereafter we describe about the hard reality that has been happening behind the backstage and we only could access it while we were sleeping and with our bodies cleaner of animal toxins.

Thence continues the work, described by an spiritualistic medium with his body subtiller than the astral one and then could see the scenes described as follows:

They explain us that over the previous fortnight we were at work.

Some of us arrived firstly and other ones later, because they were executing some task at distant place.

It seems another Planet: arid, of brown color even remaning the rust color in that landscape.

Margarida: Have we visited the Intruder Planet?

Spiritual medium: No, it is another place. Our Instructor tells me that isn't allowed to identify mentally where is that space. (Now we know it is the original Planet Reptilians, world extinguished since millions of years)

The density is so high that, often, it seems physical matter, however lacks superior permission to become matter.

I can see our team arriving at different moments and stopping somewhere. Afterwards, comes to meet us, a Being unlike of animal though similar to human form, dressing in black, with a lance in the hand, mounted in a black horse and so aggressive. He has sharp teeth and horse body, even having human appearance. I notice he is a deformed man, enslaved and subdued by that horseman.

M: Is that black horseman who attacked us during a vigil in Setiba, when Commander Setun Shenar defended us with strong barrier?

R – Maybe. He is the Guardian of those places, because when noticed our presence, he moved forward. Despite of short distance he can't reach us.

We stopped long time, praying, awaiting the right moment, instruction or order to go ahead. I don't know how long of those 15 days we worked there.

Several of us were executing other tasks before arriving there and, at meantime, strengthening as Group avoiding any disorder that could be fatal to our group. The exhibition is too strong due to dense energy there.

I begin to see, at distance, how we have moved forward, unitionally. That scene remind me of Hebrews crossing by Red Ocean, due dense energy moving us ahead, opening roads by invisible hands and the Black Horseman didn't reach us.

Afterwards I see a type of Castle, like a shadowy house.

M: Are we dressing as warriors?

R - Not. We are dressing in blue and white tunic and sandals, with no accessory.

We went on towards the entrance of that castle where is supposed to have something awful hidden. Other beings appear, mounting on horses, apparently less strong and powerful than the first one. They are armed and dare attack us, without sucess. Maybe there is an invisible glass covering the road hindering him reach us. We go ahead calmly, despite of intransigent persecution.

All we were voliting, forming only one body as far as main door.

The big door is black, maybe of wooden, but, at the same time isn't a door. It is a dimensional portal of negative and dreadful vibration.

M: I wonder if has happened much magic work over there?

A: I am frightened to enter in.

M: Let's get over and get in later.

A: The group stop right before the door. At meantime, we knew we would meet somebody very important belonged the Darkness Darkness.

We stopped some time after the walking to get over and receive orientations. Maybe the "Dimensional Portal" links the inferior plan. We entered in and crossed the space and great was the surprise, when we identified that castle as possible cave.

There, we could see the most several types of dark spirits.

I heard awful screams and saw dark abyss, pictures of cruel, horrendous sacrifices projected by everywhere. I don't know if that scenario was created by insane minds arrested there or if they had lived that situation indeed, or the both process simultaneously.

Maybe the beings' minds recalling of memories went on in the past, cleaning out the worst instincts in order that frighten the other beings there.

Our group stayed together, despite of everything awful seen. Ahead, everything was empty.

There was only that abyss with beings hovering in the air with images projected. Everything else was too dark, as if there was no perspective, beyond of darkness.

We stayed for long time near to the gate, praying, recovering energies and receiving new orientations coming from High spirituality.

When ended the light from High, our team as only one body, moved forward, crossing by darkness, courageously.

Below us, we didn't see any ground. The space was completely dark. The beings surroundings were the same described before. The noise was so strong that seemed to break bones, skin and body. All the images from those Beings' minds showed blood, tortures, wars and so on, projected on space.

At that meantime, we were together involved with light. Thence, we began going down, as if we were inside an invisible elevator, linked to the High through a Ship at distance, emitting a bright string involving the group.

While we went down fastly, I felt something pressing my neck and also each one of our Group felt something similar in some part of the body, as we're recalling memories about our own deaths and crimes went on in the past.

M: Once, Ramatis told us, by message, that we would face our past time.

A: That descent touched our unconscious, as if we were inside a very dark and too deep tunnel, while memories appeared about that body descending which I could feel clearly and fearless. I felt having my throat cut. It was strange and didn't incite fear, pain, nor nothing either. Though I could feel my neck, as well as the others companions felt in some part of their bodies.

Suddenly, we stopped, as we were reached the center of the Earth, plenty of magma, incandescent rocks, much yellow color as everything were melted and too hot.

The string connecting us to the Ship, undones; we fell strong and firm there.

We went ahead volitating, always together as only one body. At short distance there was a space like a cave. I noticed the presence of "Being" there, but I couldn't identify it yet, as if that space or cave were the own Being.

I heard unpleasant and frightening sounds. I don't know how describe them: guttural, strange, husky and terrible sounds. Suddenly, right before us, it seemed the whole energy were converged to single point and, at high speed with different forms.

They thought deeply about any animal form and modified quickly. It is as if the whole space left from those energies, and even could form molecules of a body. That body changed its form quickly. Now has human form and seems to be a scientist. He has body and present something in his eyes, which I can't understand what is.

That was body adult and bald man. He disappears and appears easily. He shapes up as very thin and poor African.

I heard an awful laughter. "He" seems flying by that whole space where we are and is his house too. Each piece of that space is part of his body as he wants.

For a fortnight we just as observers.

It is very difficult to explain how we didn't touch in nothing, as if we were in the air. Our team was involved by bluish and beautiful light, together and firm for our objective, maybe for 5 days.

M: Just for observation?

A: Yes.

M: Master Ramatis told us previously that we should stay silent there and record everything that he needed.

A: We can't explain well how is the "scientist."

He is a Being and, at the same time, several beings. Maybe unfolded in many others ones and that process gives him a big size before our eyes.

How strange! What I suppose to be him, it's just a part of him, maybe mental projection, handling the molecules of atmosphere and creating what he wants.

We are face to face. He laughs a lot of everything. Actually, It seems an emptiness, it doesn't exist a being materialized and defined individuality. I can't see him clearly; though, he is the whole atmosphere; the whole atmosphere is he own. My mind can't understand that, but so I feel. (It wasn't to be understood indeed).

We leave that place, after five days just observing, capturing, recording all the events, connections and separation of fluidical material which he manipulated mentally, creating those countless strange forms.

M: Is he own who manufactures that material?

A: He can't. He receives it from some plant located above where we are.

We set off upwards. It seems the point to be reached is out of that space.

At short distance, I see something like a hill which top has a type of tube; several big beings arrive and throw things over there, but I don't know what.

Those people look like the ones appeared after the great black Horseman, but, they are black and smaller.

I don't know if that "smaller" represents size or power. Maybe Power. They bring some big tools similar clod-crusher, which tip have a substance not solid nor pasty, but hard. From there, that substance crosses by a tube. That material seems a bunch of tied hay of dark gray color.

M: Is that the raw material used by that scientist?

A: Yes.

M: Where comes from and what is, if it is already processed?

A: Yes, it comes already processed and ready.

Now we left to a type of plant, where is prepared that raw material, at large load.

We are approaching the Earth. That plant is not far from where we have been before, and yes closer the Earth. The reason for that is the payment for material received that, for its turn, is the own matter.

It comprises two parts: first: payment of workers; secondly: driven to scientist. We made the inverse road coming back now.

After the arrival of material, it is separated the fluid vital given to workers, as payment.

Those workers seem beings still attached to the matter, disembodied spirits, very different from those beings of that place we have been.

Now, far from them, for sure, the horseman and the scientist are other type of beings. Otherwise, the plant employees look like human beings.

M: Where comes that material from?

A: Now seems that we are at the bottom of the plant, where the final product is packed and delivered for that place, maybe to Earth.

The plant is placed in the Earth, though where the bunches are driven, I think isn't our Planet.

The product seems of human bodies triturated by a big blender (11)

(11) Note of GESH – Along of first semester of 2006, some barbaric actions happened here in Vitoria/ES that not even the "primitive barbarians of our civilization" had practiced. Cell companions has decapitated a prisoner and boned him. Also, at another occasion, they killed and quartered to too small pieces and collected by a wheelbarrow. "See who has eyes of seeing.".

I see arriving at that plant human bodies already cut. I'm not sure if they are physical or astral bodies.

As for my insights, those bodies belong to people fell under addictions, passions and hate. Even after died, due the choices using free will, didn't avoid the destiny that awaits them. They still have large load of fluid vital. Many of them, even unaware of their current disembodied state are killed and cut in that plant and taken to other section, where are triturated. Thenceforth, as we already as we already described: is separated a part for payment of services and the other one to that place where we have been.

I can't understand that whole process, however the image is clear about the obligation of those people. Why does that happen? Were they extinguished as human beings, immortal spirits?

M: Not, because we have the other bodies. I believe that process aims at astral body, the main body.

A: At that meantime, I can see people kidnapped and arrested. Some are cut and sent to production section. The other ones are stored in capsules, in which inject a product, little by little, transforming the bodies to reptilian embryos. They are emptied in their essence and transformed to beings without human spark. I don't know how explain it, they are as cold as animals.

When are removed from capsules, they are already embryos, nestlings.

In that moment, appears image of other work, where were injected embryos in human ones; maybe the both works are connected.

And also has another production section. While the material run to one side, the capsules are led to other side, receive treatment and emerge as small nestlings, but already with lizard form.

For whom, at the moment, make negative choice, can't imagine where are going, after disembody.

The work accomplished during that period goes far. Much more we have seen, for the time being, they won't show anything else.

04. Awakening consciences: Preparatory stage for transition

Fraternal greetings.

We are working with you in Christ's Comfied, redeeming work, for whom accept it at several spiritual graduations.

Many brothers are engaged to Planetary Transition. To awake consciences of reincarnated in the Earth is preparatory stage for Transition and have to be accessible for all of the creatures.

It is comprehensible your hypothesis that several minds materialized can't understand this reality yet. However, we affirm you, that seed thrown inner each heart may blossom, offering necessary spiritual content to renewal and redemption of each son of God. Your task with us, aims at spreading seeds so that fall in the most of the soils.

The task bound for laymen, receivers of messages addressed you, is to cultivate the land, becoming it fertile and favorable for arrival of Divine Power through the messages sent for you. Each one seed means a package of energy and know-how, representing survival while there is shortage and madness.

The human minds, daily, are more distant from effluvia of Christ's Love, not finding anchorage for upgrowth in the fertile lands of Universe.

Then, the Evolved Spirituality, skilled Engineers, space Teams, planned to send Seeds of Light and chose the human hearts and minds like fertile land to be sowed, so that the roots anchor there, through the Protecting and Loving Light of Christ.

They endeavour so that the upset spirits don't become easy objects to darkness that, by its turn, insist on submit the human ones to dense plots of inferior passions feeding their terrible purposes for dominance over the terrestrial inhabitants.

Thence, it needs to divulge the messages, so that, in appropriate moment, can be accessed, approaching children and parents again, even who withstand power of renewed love. They should also stand a change of receiving the divine blessing of redeeming knowledge, at the last hour of this Planet.

We are at your disposal, for explanations and questions necessary.

Margarida: As regard the material to be published, received in 2000, we'd like to enclose it at the end of work on prison since it is legible to the reader.

Mahyr: The reptilians, as you know, left their original Planet completely destroyed due greed and extreme violence, seeking other Orbe, where clean out their primitive instincts. They didn't abandon their planetary house forever; before yes, together with Beast, they transformed a part of that area which you have visited before.

The original Castle that now appears in this Planet was inhabited by insane creatures, where up to now develop researches which aims at materialization and dominance over life in the Earth.

Using advanced technology they insist on creating appropriate physical bodies in Planet Earth, so that can express their belligerent and overbearing spirits. Reptilians, associated with Beast (the Apocalyptic Beast arrested in abysmal area) and also created net of inferior energy here for their negative purposes.

The matrix is linked directly to this net, as well as, the energy in your Planet can be transmitted by satellites and also the production of negative energy, coming from their original Planet, accessing your world, by "negative portals" operated by those terrible creatures.

Margarida: Is there that matrix in original Planet of Reptilians yet?

Mahyr: Yes.

Margarida: Hadn't neither Planet and people developed along of millions of years?

Mahyr: Despite of whole advanced technology, they can't recreate Life yet. They are like vampires sucking the vital fluids by everywhere.

They believe to be able, in a new Planet, to discover formula magic of creation.

They believe that, even being dark beings they won't destroy the Planet again or extinguish the Life, as have done with their original world.

They believe able to recreate Life, control the energy power in the Earth, keeping it at low vibration and also produce harmful and heavy violence, hate, luxury, fear, pain and so on.

In additional to that, they suppose to find the mechanism to control creation of life at low vibration, they can rebuild in the same harmful conditions in their Orbe. Thence, they can cross by space, inhabiting other Orbes, reproducing the bad plan, satiating their perverse nature. Here is the reason why they don't destroy one another; they believe that having the formula of creation they have the whole Universe. They don't need fighting for this or that Planet or this or that home, whereas, each one can be Prince of Darkness in his own Planet, controlling, enslaving the faithless creatures, sucking their energies emanated from violence, hate, fear, pain, sex and of other several practices of perversion.

Only interest them foolish pleasures forever.

Then we say again, they have associated to the Beast daring to face the Divine Laws, supposing be possible to perpetuate everywhere the ill-nature, withstanding the Law of Progress, always feeding on human decadence and low passions.

As you can see, they are insane and infantile minds. Only fall to the creator determination of values and infinite progress.

No more, they can penetrate into your Orbe, using their standard apparels of locomotion: spaceships. Thence, they develop technique of communication at distance and delivery of heavy energies, changing its road, like garbage recycled in the space, crossing by Cosmos and reaching the portals of the Earth. The magnetic attraction and negative form in the Planet keep at supplying the magnet that still allows arrival of negative power. Thus, the "portals" stay working and, at the same time, supplying the negative net involving the Earth. As well as, there are the Forces of in your Orbe, a power Plant that receives and delivers high load, at too small scale, though overpowering also have Darkness Power that receive and spread negative energies throughout the Orbe.

The point of convergence of the both forces is only to inferior area where Beast linked with everything negative that happens and arrives in the Earth.

The destruction of protecting layer of ozone isn't the only result of pollution in the physical plan, but also of harmful presence of "negative power" penetrating the orbe coming from the original Castle.

Margarida: We joined all material with revelations that our sister brought and if aren't legible yet, we make questions again. Thank you Sister.

Mahyr: We know how is hard your task at physical plan due human ignorance attached to material goods.

Who longs for spiritual progress, he receives the revelations and, even don't understand them at once, it needs time enough for germination of knowledge. who didn't get ready, may suffer different reactions. However, no one of both attitudes change the reality, the Net of Negative Power increases in your Planet and have to be stopped at once. It needs to know a such reality just how it presents among of us now.

We hope that Peace of Mister of Worlds involves all you, strengthening, helping and encouraging when necessary.

We are always with you. Here speaks Mahyr.

Margarida: We thought was Count Rochester! How are you and Ysh-Wan?

Mahyr: Count Rochester is the intermediary of this work. Not even the teams engaged to the plan after of yours, at the beginning couldn't reach nor understand the whole information arrived.

The histories described are the main door of a world quite ignored by embodied ones in your Planet up to now. Helped by Venerable Joanna of Angelis, the psychological content was chosen so that, gradually, was introduced to the readers about the invisible and we add: terrible. In another time, we wouldn't endeavour to bring you that knowledge, however, at the moment, before the Transition, all of the people need recognize how are tied with "Negative Power".

We don't intend disturbing you, only due the extreme violence increases more and more, it needs understand how "harmful energies" reaches the creatures.

We have just told you a part of the whole presented us. We understand the difficulties raised for this process of transmission, reception and popularization of our messages. We hope that all you understand them too necessary for spiritual upgrowth along of this Planetary Transition.

Margarida: For whom believe faithfully.

Mahyr: It doesn't matter. It needs each one working lovingly for the whole humanity.

May Jesus, Divine Governor, help us to face the hard daily routine necessary.

Save the Light, save Master Jesus!

Mahyr (extraterrestrial one) 05/05/06

05. How and why intruding Reptilians

I see Count Rochester quite serious. He stares me and says:

Fraternal greetings!

Q: Are you ready to go downstairs to the abyss, where originate orders of atrocious dominance over your prison compound?

A: Yes brother.

CR: It is the Reptilian headquarter that command the prisons.

In those inferior cities placed in abyss, we met a "Movable Command Center" of depravities thrown on crowds of prisoners.

From those places starts commands, plans and orders of daily routine in the prisons and the best usage of large spectrum of energies coming from there.

- A bath of light is prepared for us. A neglectful observer wouldn't believe that so tenuous protecting layer was covering our bodies. The fine layer is more powerful at defense of our bodies and minds than the thicker bar of steel you know.

Force isn't so important as materials and load of energy used to create it. Even narrow and transparent, only we can look around. By outside, either Being or technology can detect us.

We use an extraterrestrial workmanship, produced with unknown material in the Earth, constituted of microporos and threads hindering to transpose the mesh formed.

Two forerunners follow us, opening way. They also covered with same material, but are individual apparels like motorcycles.

That mean of transport don't make noisen and floats as were moved by wind.

At the moment, we are visiting a prision and soon pass by a stony stairway, used by a Reptilian which we'll follow him.

We began go down and see the big reptilian, maybe coordinator-boss, checking the daily routine of the prison. Happy he writes something and goes away.

The air here down oppresses us. A cry fell on my ear and I asked Count Rochester if there was beings there and he answers:

A: The underground of all the big Brazilian prisons have torture cameras for production and upkeep of harmful energies.

Q: Even wanting to change that reality at physical plan, firstly, shouldn't they turn off and destroy those cameras?

A: Yes. However, there is no intention to clean the prisons up to now.

The prisons became battlefields, defined, delimited and hidden from where the Reptilians get food for surviving until subdue the Planet as they want.

Q: If they could subdue the Planet, the terrestrial life would be the same which happens in the prisons, now?

A: Yes. But would be larger the crimes and delinquency.

See how many poor fellows live in adversity, so that, slowly, supply loads of precious vital energy for those insane creatures.

When involved by vibrations of fear, anguish, pain, hate or desire, the vital energies of those hapless ones handling by powerful workers and later become workmanships and warlike machines, instruments of prisons and torture, means of communication and other useless apparels.

Q: I see flashes of more women than men here. What does it mean?

A: That area is bound for liberation of the lowest energies in cameras of torture, coming from women who ignored their sublime condition as creators of life and preferred the empty cult of beauty and luxury.

The trip goes on as far as some centers, where old steam engine are operated by countless strong slaves.

Q: Which place is that? Why are they here?

A: This area is a battlefield. The heat produced here by burning of specific fuel, heats the air reaching those people of low energy such as: hate, revolt and violence. The nervous system suffers quickly the arrival of air in lungs; Soon the human beings are involved by that aggressiveness.

Q: Are there strange birds flying over us?

A: The environment here is inhabited by strange species of flying reptiles, like a crow, primitive animal from Planet of Reptilians. They always follow a Reptilian. They are like pet useful as watchdogs and hunting animals.

After the explanation, we continued downstairs and soon I hear a strange snore.

Count rochester says: They are factories.

Q: Which factories?

A: Factories of "beings" as result of researches accomplished by Reptilians. When a research makes success, the informations are addressed to Headquarter that at once, sends the material for production line in up-to-date factory.

From here leave robots, mummies, ghosts, animals and transgenical plants. The mutilation is daily routine here. The most important is having them deformed.

We went on crossing by dark, fetid and awful underground of prisons.

Count Rochester, 10/03/06

06. The Castle of Horrors

- We arrived and stopped in front of a medieval castle, maybe that one we have been before, at work and guided by Count Rochester who says:

- New visit, now checking carefully details in that insane center. It is right that, in your society, crowds are forgotten: people inhabiting streets, children abandoned and lost, patients abandoned by relatives and kept as prisoners, due the Karmical Law necessary for readjustment.

Lots of those brothers are completely ignored by your society and don't take part in social statistics. They live alone and hapless living in adversity. Even so, appear insane specialists interested on usurping their energies.

The cases are studied throughly and each embodied living in adversity soon is arrested by perverse creatures.

The Reptilians subdue the Planet Earth since long time, when the human species at leas hadn't the current characteristics yet.

The human embryo was taken as happy promise placed inner wild bodies of primitive men. The arrival of extraterrestrial civilizations in the terrestrial surface longed for populate the Planet. The Reptilians also docked here longing for primary energy.

Like pirates of space earthwards taking with them, for several trips, loads of energy, while thei Planet already agonized. They took round trips longing for withstand the Law of Destruction deflagrated in their original Orbe, due extreme greed of theirs.

After millions of years living in the Earth, the reptilians made progress of genetic experiences for creation of meat body, able to inhabit the Reptilian race.

Their primitive Planet, Ork, was extinguished after devastating action of military spirists and scientists experts in dealing chemical and biological components.

Experts in imminent destruction, draw up a program, seeking other Orbe, where could settle down a new race of chosen ancestry and high mental powers. During one of those trips taken to the space, they discovered the Earth. Here, they collected materials to be checked about the compatibility with their future plans.

The militancy with excess of aggressiveness is constant mark of that people. In case of need and anxious to take advantage of explosions of pure energy in the Planet under development, they placed underground bases here to exploit the Planet Earth.

Q: Mister, why Evolved brothers who brought those deportees here didn't avoid the arrival of hair-raising creatures here?

A: Only Providence Divine, perfect, fair and wise could allow the balanced instauration of antagonistic forces in this Planet.

On't forget that, despite of covered with rude, hard and awful crust, the Reptilians are also creatures of God, thence our brothers under learning process driven by loving Father.

Their ill-nature show the delay and obstinacy for hate and, by other hand, advanced intelligence, pride and uncontrollable rebelliousness. After all, the survivors of that race are those whose characteristics remained stronger. When that people perished, the great majority, through the pain and in need of all the physical resources, they broke the crust of hate adhered to their bodies and, the most intelligent ones, instead of suffering the exile, they simply looked for new land.

While the Instructor was speaking, I have seen the people of that world suffering diseases and also degradation of environment invading the whole Planet. The hard reptilian the main characteristic of that people, split into several parts and many of them got free from that hair-raising appearance. It seemed that had happened "planetary transition" there.

Q: Is it right my analysis about those events?

A: Yes. For sure, they were monitored by Power of Light. The people no so large perished, and at that time, the task of Evolved Spirituality was only help people of Ork.

The both Planets, Earth and Ork and have similar frequencies in their original composition.

Q: What has happened with Planet Ork, after extinguished that race?

A: Planet Ork became an artificial sterile Planet caused by human talent. As far as I know, in the near future it shelter spirits of vampires, so that the process of regeneration imposed by Law to the human mind defragrate the renewal of own Planet.

When is concluded that stage, a planetary cycle, the vibratory polarity of Ork is recovered for receiving old inhabitants again, to regenerate the Planet.

They will be inhabitants of Reptilian Race and also beings of other races whose karma approaches of Reptilian, as it happens in the Earth, at present time.

The Highest commands of Reptilians will be linked to their original Planet until that people have concluded the hard learning due bad habits went on in the past. Thus they have to redeem themselves, facing the negative mental siege contrary to the renovating force of love, as happens in the Earth now.

The "Being" chained by Divine Power at the bottoms of the Land had its background that resembles of Reptilians. Exiled from its original Planet, for millennia, lived here enjoying the energies of the Planet and at same time destroying it coldly.

When rebelled against God in their own Planet, they already had a mental talent so developed and dared to subdue the "Command of Power of the Nature". Their wisdom after long time are recorded in the space due misuse at several and different ways that you at least imagine.

The reptilian specie developed and constituted "large army of followers", until they were defeated by apocalyptic fights in the Orbe where lived and was condemned. Its strategies were limited, but the mental performance increased, in agreement with Balance of Worlds Plan, that uttered the norms of settlement for antagonistic forces of same intensity in a primitive Planet. In those Planets that balance impels the progress.

Reptilians fell under negative magnetism of "Beast" living here, linked energetically with "her", they landed here at aims to settle down their new race.

Planet Earth since the origin is governed by creative mind of Jesus Christ, wasn't bound for sheltering perverse race. I had been created for shelter, without exception, helpless souls for hard learning and searching for upgrowth.

Master Jesus allowed the Sidereal Engineers to shelter each helpless soul for evolution, cleaning out past mistakes. Thus, the exiled of other orbes landed here.

Q: Did Reptilians come voluntarily attracted by Beast and followers chained at bottoms of terrestrial abyss?

A: Yes. Initially, interested on this Planet, the reptilians tried at high costs, to reincarnate at third dimension, as human ones, without success.

They ignored that Jesus' purposes couldn't be modified by any other power.

Up to now, they strive to reincarnate and subdue the whole Planet, which efforts proved useless, whereas, the Planetarium Christ's mind forged inner fibers of this Orbe, his condition and of whom are authorized to reincarnate here.

Because of their bankrupt vanity, Reptilians aided by Beast, they dared to execute macabre experiences to produce and liberate energies for their own pleasure, and render concrete their plans in the hope of be winners.

After destruction of dinosaurs, prototypes of their species settled down in the Earth, using corpses in good state, they began to produce robots operated by mental power.

The castle where we have been, was created since Inquisition, when were tortured and killed countless creatures, supplying large negative load used by reptilians.

Since that time, Reptilians were associated with leaders of church, just for greed and powership.

Their clandestine civilization in the Earth increased during important historical moments, such as period of Inquisition, spreading by the whole Orbe, diseases like black plague and Spanish influenza, wars, mainly the Second World War, when they were the main mentors of bloody and absurd slaughters.

The shadowy castle at astral plan serves for research, using volunteers for their macabre experiences.

Although growing slowly, that place where is settled down the headquarter, always represented emblematic symbol of powership and suffering.

Let's come in.

Clairvoyance: At distance, I saw a drawbridge being lowered. Some worker would go up. Quickly, mentally, we went to that place so that we could follow him, without be noticed.

The air was dense and the walls had awful pictures.

There was large scenes of conflicts and wars carved as panels and, at the same time, presenting the worst and more painful could suffer the human being. Collective murders of children in front of their sufferer mothers, torture of slaves arrested to the trees, collective hangings, bonfires burning women arrested and other vile pictures decorating hall of the castle.

We were invisible. The forerunners were with us, avoiding traps here and there against of intruders.

When a trap was detected, we avoided it. We arrived at wide living room with several doors, in which center, there was a swastika drawn on the ground, like a six tips star. Afterwards Count Rochester said:

Each door drive us to a ward of castle for specific work. We may visit just some of them, explaining you the nature about we have seen and the consequences.

Clairvoyance: We crossed by the first door and went downstairs. The air was so dense that badly could breath. One forerunner gave us masks. A woman's cry fell on my ear : help! help! Rochester informed that was a trap, for capturing Workers of Light, when approached that woman and thence arrested by black and dense net of hair-raising creatures.

I saw a "laboratory" very well equipped. At the bottoms, several cages with animals. The most of them were calm, though their eyes denoting sadness and much pain, they were forced to be there.

I was stunned to see human bodies together with animals caged. Men and women, nude, long hair and beard, seeming to be there since long time.

They observed what happened in the laboratory. On the tables, I could see guinea pigs with belly opened, the vital organs exposed and needles with tubes in the tip dived within some substances.

Other ones had the natural organs changed to artificial and with open body too.

A porcupine, stimulated mechanically, bristled and retracted its thorns, while the electrodes turned on in its brain was registering the cerebral waves.

That was a room of genetic researches, where studies were accomplished aim at discovering the nature of some procedures and actions of some substances.

From that section started informations about the change of organs and members, implants and other genetic modifications. Everything was monitored over there.. The human beings caged were awaiting the moment of serving those insane scientists. For the time being, just their blood and other liquids of body had been used.

Some guinea pigs, including human ones had bodies mutilated. Count says:

The experts in misuse of several beings for their hair-raising experiences. They intend to discover a body which characteristics shelter their insane souls to reincarnate.

Going back by same road, we went in another cell, arriving at living room where we crossed by other door. This itinerary had small slopes with traps for moving away the intruders. Even before, we heard screams and supplications for help.

The agony and suffering was daily routine there. We saw a torture camera with human bodies arrested, handled by skilled and cold Reptilians.

The victim, while was tortured, usually a man or a woman, liberated of the mind a viscous black substance from the organ or member hurt.

The slippery substance was stored in cups dispersed by strategic points below the head and organs hurt.

The fetid mass, like a home made past fermented was placed on a long table.

We went to third room with strong stink of blood. One of the forerunners gave us a strong substance to scrape against the nose and later we used hygienic masks. The room reminded of a slaughterhouse. There, a portion of blood was separated and kept as liquid, other part became smoked sausage and the third one was separated as blood components. I saw several carcasses of pig and boar there.

Thence we went to room with machines. The pig carcasses were sent there, where were cut and soon triturated by those machines and at last, stored in big bowls.

At the bottoms of that room was an excentric creation of pigs. Some had human heads, other human feet and the other ones even with human parts forming monsters.

The fourth room had the most several animals forced to practice sex among themselves and even with human beings.

The Reptilians wanted transgenic insemination. Some animals were tied each other, with genital organs coupled. At the same time, chemical injections and electric discharges stimulated mechanically the muscles.

The whole atmosphere was walled with cameras and everything seemed be recorded and transmitted. The Reptilian working there smiled and enjoyed that scene.

The beings were exploited until were worn out later discarded.

In the other rooms, I could see parts of human bodies sewn to bodies of Reptilians. I saw beasts caged eating human beings. Machines of trituration receiving pieces of human bodies and producing a product to feed other beings. That was a "castle of horrors." Indeed.

We left that hair-raising place and even Count Rochester was down. By my insight, he was unfolded and in another place, while we were visiting castle. Something so serious seemed to be happening. As he was capturing my thoughts, he said:

- The world ignore the nature of Beings with which work. Great powerships of many countries uphold pacts of cooperation with those hair-raising creatures (Reptilians), that idealized, built and uphold the castle for their insane genetic experiences.

They want, at high costs, to accelerate a large world conflict. It is the Beast's desire and also of some governments.

Poor governments handled by Reptilians, prepared a programme for explosion nuclear and deflagrate a world conflict, which must be avoided at once.

They are insane, foolish and retrograde creatures. By chance, do they think that perverse Beings would divide the reign with mankind taken as inferior species?

The prisons today are strongholds of darkness. They feed and are supplied by huge activity of that "Castle". From there, starts the threads driving the atrocious products to prisons.

They monitor whole delivering net until the final destiny. Gas pipes directly connectes to cells. Remainders of tortures are dematerialized in laboratories and materialized in kitchen of prisons.

Selected blood with violent energy information is injected in many prisoners, in their astral bodies, while are sleeping.

The images of orgies and perverse practices are transmitted over and again to prisoners' brains chosen for that end.

When those prisoners no more can be kept in prisons, they become good copies of perfidious behavior of "Reptilian Mentors."

The animals modified are thrown into the nature, in order that test the resistance and survival strength.

Thence can be detected, by your scientists, new and strangers style of life.

We hope that, never, no one of you meet those hair-raising creatures.

Count Rochester, 11/03/06

07. The headquarter of Reptilians

Shaped up from inferior feelings and vile thoughts, the structures of that castle, where is placed the headquarter of Reptileans, have density similar to the matter, under special conditions, counting on some alignment of stars and satellite of the Earth, increase more and can be materialized for some hours.

The negative conditions of structure of this castle are kept under merciless pains imposed on human and no human (animals), answering for the most primitive desires of "Beast" commanding the operation together with Reptilians.

While that place is materialized and, only on those occasions, embodied ones can be led there, as slaves and guinea pigs, by order of mentors of evil sheltered there.

Q: What happens with whom arrives alive, when the castle is dematerized again?

A: Even before that happens, it needs to kill the hapless ones and sucked their vital energies and fresh blood, for vile purposes as we have already showed you.

Such occasions are considered as "celebration" when the "Beast" with dark appearance visit the servants, feeding their inferior and morbid purposes.

The own Beast, unfolded mentally, sucks the heart blood to strengthen and renewal, whereas, by itself, could suffer fuidical decomposition, due its too negative mental activity. It needs of fresh meat to restore its structures, already worn out.

Q: How are the conscious human beings taken there?

A: By and large, they are driven awake and arrested, recruited by satanic sects, the collectors and followers of Master of Darkness.

Don't doubt, the Beast is powerful, has sagacious intelligence, which desire of revenge and dominance is implacable. Hapless who falls in its infernal claws.

Q: Could we know when happens that event and where is placed that castle?

A: Seek that continent where happened the worst bloody barbarisms of this humanity; where the blood spilled on the land, forming rivers and underground lakes with precious liquid of life; where moans and screams still sound as sad and fateful song of regret. There, you find, in middle of half-died grass, burned by low vibration, the basis of old ruin, whose walls and facades, towers and underground basements existed at physical plan and at astral plan stay alive and inhabited up to now.

It is a "negative portal" accessing the most dangerous areas of inferior astral in the Earth. Nothing else, we could say now, for your own safety . Permanent negative waves from that castle are strong enough for arresting, careless minds daring to find that place.

Throughout the Orbe there are only more two places like that, however we can't reveal them yet. The area is inhospitable and taken as haunted.

Everybody fear of approaching that place full of astonishing legends, became less attractive for visitors and not even animal species and vegetables exist there. However, the larger power of attraction acts at moon nights, when somehow, this is aligned with other stars.

The materialization of Shadowy Castle

The full moon shines. The place where is the castle was clean, without anything on the ground. The scenerio seems stopped by the time.

I see a group of human ones arriving at that place. All they are very thin and tall. They dress in long layers, with hoods covering the faces and walk slowly. One of them moves forward, touches the ground and collect some mud. He makes a ball and says strange words.

All of the other ones come behind him. Then, appears a black horseman, carrying a big sword. He moves anxiously, suddenly, he stops and makes a drawing in the air with the sword and a "black portal" appears, where the people cross it. They are few ones, around ten, but have with them other group of men, women and children, hypnotized. The latter ones are prisoners to be sacrificed in the ritual of materialization of the castle.

Afterwards, they cross by a black portal, sit down making a circle, take strange equipments and begin a ritual mixing up songs, some objects, fire, air, earth and blood.

The prisoners don't take part in anything. Then, they begin to call a "Being" whose name I didn't understand. Soon fell under hypnose state, after suffer with spilling of blood, and appears the Reptilian of high hierarchical ancestry, to be worshipped. It checks the group, if there is intruder and appreciates the group of human beings brought him as gift. Thence, he talks with coordinator, using a strange language. The coordinator answers affirmatively and the Reptilian smiles, takes a look at the prisoners and orders that they are sacrificed. Thence, begins an evocation at high sound, uttering strange words. In that moment, it is thrown a black dust into the air, forming a dark cloud and soon appears the shadowy Castle.

The castle is materialized during that ritual with dances and orgies. After was concluded the "black party", the Reptilian says good-bye, affirming a next meeting. He enters in the castle that, little by little, desappears as black cloud, like a magic scene.

The masked men fall on the ground, worn out, and remain long time there, while their spirits visit the castle, at astral, creating indestructible ties with that place.

When coming back to the body, some of them are wounded or even at state of decomposition, like a leprous ones. But they are anesthetized by "glory" after the orgy.

Dragged by that shadowy Castle, the impure hearts and minds feed those "servants of darkness". Of course, they intend defeating us. They hope that the world suffering oblige the soldiers of Christ go back. Thus, tireless, they spread on surface, pain, weaknesses, sensationalism, suffering and everything else of low vibrations.

Count Rochester, 28/03/06

08 - Darkness

Brothers,

Here we bring you information about the negative beings with whom you have get in touch during your spiritual tasks.

The knowledge is necessary so that you know about those brothers' condition, the local characteristics, performance and, at the same time, learn how facing what we classify as follows:

- 1 - Dark beings that only act at inferior astral;
- 2 - Obsessors of Inferior Mental Plan;
- 3 - Black magicians;
- 4 - Extraterrestrial beings of low moral graduation.

The first category composed of beings that can only transit by inferior plan Astral and where develop their evil actions.

They can be subdivided such as:

- a) Bosses or commanders.
- b) Beings that work interested on offerings. They are strongly arrested to material life and keep at practicing any abominable action, in order that receive "gifts" such as: alcoholic drinks, blood, meat, sex, drugs and so on, thence are more and more stopped at inferior plans.
- c) Obsessors tied to facts and actions of much prejudice went on in the past didn't forgive the offenders yet. They are described by spiritualistic literature.
- d) The other ones, among them, a large variety of inferior spirits used as robots, by the strongest and skilled ones in their perverse activities. (we worked with that type in our desobsession meetings).

The second category include dominance of obsessors over people's mind. They are between Astral Plan and inferior Mental and can provoke several damages to incautious minds, rationalists and crystallized in some negative feeling or objective.

The third category composed of Black Magicians, handling a large variety of occult techniques. They are good at mysteries of magic and have large knowhow about the inferior plans. Easily, they can handle the human beings of medium evolution, in the both plans. They seduce the people for powership, goods and easy material pleasures. They know deeply the human temper and benefit their pride and selfishness to enslave them. They know well the road chosen and don't worry, only powership interest them. The fourth category you have already informed before.

An Instructor, GESH, 19/02/99

09. Hard Work

We bring you some informations necessary for performance of your work.

It needs that all of the Beings involved with Christ's labor and redemption of that Planet know about the events happened beyond of them and the Earth.

The reptilians of the other Orbes, declined countless times of several Planets, and lost opportunities offered them for own upgrowth and unhappily didn't reach the least moral graduation up to now.

They have already sucked energy of several civilizations and intend to subdue the Planet Earth. They are good at advanced technology, cybernetics, atomic energy and genetic mutations.

They know the natural science very well and can move forward technologically in short time, bringing several news for fascinating the incautious beings, whom just long for technical and material evolution but don't have enough moral graduation to give up their immoderate ambition for powership.

They found in that humanity of surface several open wounds, by which penetrate like worms and assume several areas in this Planet. Since long time they have agreements with several powerful countries.

They tried at most, dominance over this Orbe by means of war, political and financial powership. Thence they advanced too much on genetics and atomic energy.

People of surface and also several great leaders fell under those negative beings just for powership and dominance. But already arrived the hour of interrupting their performance quickly, because there is a general danger which you can't imagine. They create true monsters, beings without evolution and spiritual life and also powerful machines, able to disturb the Planet Earth and the whole Solar system too.

GFBU – Great Universal White Fraternity, has imposed a limit and there is a deep and serious work for that end.

GFBU ask detachment, deep moral evolution and integration with work, so that don't be reached by those beings. That they vibrating at strip that can be used while sleeping for works and combats. Brothers, wake up for seriousness of that work. You know well, the world, as a whole, aren't interested on evolutive work. Many people are arrested for illusion of materialism. The awakening of consciences is an arduous work. We need always of your efforts as developed embodied to make easy the arrival of spiritual energies through you.

Keep on faith and trust. Now, more than never, needs much devotion to the work. Who speaks here by projection is your brother Setun Shenar.

S - Any question?

M - Are there other groups of negative beings acting yet?

S – Yes, several groups. We have mentioned that specifically, on account of direct influence over your science and technology. But there are countless beings working and searching for energies, even the remainder ruins of that humanity.

Bear in mind enough knowledge that, the decadence of the people in the surface means as wound attracting countless insects that want to sip remains of this wound. Thence, there isn't other way besides of much suffering to begin the redemption.

You were prepared for attitudes necessary, hereafter. Be careful!.

The Earth suffer want of Superior Energies what makes difficult their arrival and also of messages to this Planet. Meetings of groups are necessary, so that the messages can be emitted. You know that everything possible, has been made at Superior Sphere to keep united your team, but it needs larger individual effort too.

We hope that you keep on faith and perseverance but we ask you: give a step ahead and Superior Energies will walk miles and miles towards you. Be ready because your people needs you.

If you take a look at planetary situation nothing else would import you, but, the Spiritual Road.

Setun Shenar

Commander substitute of Great Ashtar SheranGESH, 12/03/99
